

Pesach in the Desert—A Second Night Seder

Saturday, March 31 - Sunday, April 1 in Succor Creek

Experience Passover the way our ancestors did—In the Wilderness

Rabbi Dan will lead a creative seder experience on the second night of Pesach at Succor Creek Natural Area campsite in Malheur County, Oregon:

http://oregonstateparks.org/index.cfm?do=parkPage.dsp_parkPage&parkId=9

We'll re-live the journey into the wilderness with hiking, singing, and traditional Pesach foods around a campfire.

This is a primitive campsite, so you will need to bring tents, water, and warm and waterproof clothing. When we know who is coming, we'll also assign some (kosher for Pesach) food preparation.

Campsites are free and there is no charge for the event.

RSVP and questions to Rabbi Dan: ravdbf@gmail.com

