Let's Shabbaton Together Again

RABBI NOLAN LEBOVITZ

The Sages refer to Yom Kippur as Shabbat Shabbaton, or the Shabbat of all Shabbats. My favorite Shabbat of all Shabbats is the one in which we all head to Simi Valley together. At the Brandeis-Bardin campsite, we welcome Shabbat together, eat together, play football together, climb rock walls together, sing together, hike together... and eat together (I know I said that twice). It is a meaningful, fulfilling, fun Shabbat experience for all demographics of our community.

Unfortunately, we've had to skip a Shabbaton because of COVID. It is important that we return in-person to this in-person-only experience. Rabbi Miriam Green Potok will lead Shabbat services on the patio and streamed on YouTube, but Brandeis-Bardin will only be available in-person.

Shabbat is meant to teach us to be present and live in the moment away from our weekday lives. There is no better way to be present than playing football with the Kopmars, or cheering on climbing with the Dixons, or singing along with... pretty much everybody. We come together to enjoy each moment of one another's company without planning, without reservation.

“...a meaningful, fulfilling, fun Shabbat experience for all demographics of our community”

There must be time to be set aside for Shabbat, especially this one. Please make it a priority and register as soon as you can. I look forward to seeing you there and spending time with you... most likely in the Chader Ochel (dining hall).

OUR ANNUAL SHABBATON IS COMING!

From President Janet Schulman

Now that the High Holidays are over as a season of introspection and reflection, we can sit back and reflect about what a glorious experience it was. Despite the continuing COVID challenge, we were able to hold meaningful services for all of the High Holidays that kept us together spiritually, emotionally, and physically. Our Courtyard was filled with congregants and community guests who davened together and took time to schmooze and get reacquainted in person. It was glorious. For those who chose to listen and watch services via streaming, they also had a wonderful experience with technologically seamless services and the ability to enjoy the spirituality from their homes. And our Yom Kippur appeal was a resounding success and raised much needed funds to sustain and grow our beautiful synagogue.

Adat Shalom was recognized in the larger community for its success during High Holidays based on the number of community guests we had, the number of people who tuned into our YouTube Channel throughout the season and the publication of Rabbi Lebovitz's sermon in the Jewish Journal.

I want to thank the Torah Mantle Committee for their commitment and work on the new Torah Covers and table covers. They are stunning!! There are seven new Torah mantles and two table covers, all donated by congregants to remember their loved ones. They look beautiful in the Sanctuary where they enhance the Ark and the Yahrzeit Board. In the Minyan room, they bring new life to the intimate setting. Thank you Barry Bar-El for chairing this committee and to Sandy Helman, Ari Kopmar, Sandy Kass, Esther Margulies, Rabbi Lebovitz and Renalee Pflug. The singing and dancing on Simchat Torah with the new mantles was a joy to behold and to participate.

Please look out for the opportunities to donate to the Community Torah fund to honor or remember a loved one.

While we still follow COVID guidelines, we have been able to open up to welcome weddings, b'nei mitzvot, Kabbalat Shabbat services, Adat Hollywood Bowl, Tot Shabbat services, religious school services and more. We will continue to utilize the courtyard, the social hall, and sanctuary as local health guidelines allow.

We have a great deal to look forward to in the next few months. On December 5, we will hold our annual congregational meeting followed by a Chanukah party being coordinated by Judy Paz and Stephanie Ginzburg. Please join to hear information about future plans at Adat Shalom, and participate in elections for the board of directors and a really fun party!

Thank you to Marla Knoll for chairing our annual Chanukah Angels program and giving children from Chai Lifeline joy and happiness and fun presents during Chanukah. Thank you to all the volunteers who sponsored the gifts and who helped wrap the presents. It is with a deep sense of joy and gratitude that I wish all of you a happy Chanukah with family and friends.

From Executive Director Renalee Pflug

We Return! With growing momentum the past six months, we're returning to in-person gatherings—Kiddush lunch on Shabbat, monthly community Shabbat dinners, B'nei Mitzvot, building beautification projects, and the imminent return of Shabbaton 2022!

A few special highlights: As the High Holidays approached, we planned in-person services in the courtyard to signify a fresh beginning for a new year. Thanks to the generosity of an anonymous donor, we replaced the aging beige chairs with new, beautiful and comfortable gray chairs, 250 in all, delivered just in time for Rosh Hashanah. A supply chain miracle!

Our momentum reached a special height as we dedicated the new Torah mantles and table covers on Simchat Torah. Rabbi Lebovitz and Cantor Schatz led us in davening, dancing, and singing as donor families carried the Torahs adorned in their new 'clothes' to the courtyard and were there surrounded by the community in joy. The project was the culmination of 18 months' dedicated work by a committee chaired by Barry Bar-El that carried on undaunted throughout the pandemic.

In March 2021, Adat Shalom submitted an application for the National Security Grant for Nonprofits. Moments before sundown on erev Yom Kippur, an email arrived informing us we are the recipient of a $150,000 grant. We are now submitting documentation for the work to appropriate authorities and anticipate installation over the next 12 to 18 months. Thank you to Janet Schulman, Sandra Kass, and Esther Margulies for your invaluable help and support in this project.

Fueling the momentum are two new rentals on the Adat Shalom campus. The first is Creative Learning Place (CLP), an educational resource that provides class discussions and cooperative learning opportunities for children who are homeschooled. CLP students and teachers meet twice a week in classrooms and the patio. The second rental is Got Game Sports Camp. The program will take place during LAUSD Winter Break, January 3-7, 2022.

Moving along, we are in excited anticipation of Shabbaton 2022 at Brandeis-Bardin Campus. Put the date on your calendars, Friday through Sunday, January 14-16, 2022. The camp is reserved, and health protocols are in place, so all we need now is YOU!

The office staff continues in high gear for upcoming programs—Sunday, December 5 is the Congregation Meeting and Chanukah Party, January 8 is Women's League Shabbat, and many more simchas.

Thank you to President Janet Schulman and the Board of Directors for your continuous support. Thank you to Joanna, Cesar, and Ian for making the impossible possible every day. See you soon!

Hashivenu: We return! High Holidays 2021/5782

Together Again for the High Holidays

It was both surreal and wonderful to be together again this year for the High Holidays. From the beginning with Selichot services, where we celebrated the arrival of the Wacht Family Torah, commissioned by the family in loving memory of Arie and Yafe Wacht z'l, through Rosh Hashanah, Tashlich at Kenneth Hahn Park and Yom Kippur, to the lively celebrations of Sukkot and Simchat Torah, we were thrilled to welcome so many of you back in-person. And, for those of you who were not able to join us in person, we hope these pictures will inspire you to return in-person soon!

The Bounty of Our Garden Was Put to Good Use

For those who have admired the beautiful pomegranate tree in our courtyard over the past couple months since our campus re-opening, we were able to put the bountiful harvest to good use with the donation of two large boxes of pomegranates to SOVA.

A huge thank you goes to Erica and Ari Kopmar and Cesar Olivares for harvesting the tree.

The Torah Mantles and Bimah Covers Are Here!

BARRY BAR-EL

By now, hopefully all of us will have seen our beautiful new Torah mantles and bimah covers. On behalf of the entire community, we wish a Yasher Ko'ach to all of those who have made this project possible through their sponsorships and thank those members of the community who have already contributed to our "Community Torah" fund. Thank you also to the committee that steered this effort: Sandra Helman, Esther Margulies, Ari Kopmar, Renalee Pflug, Janet Schulman, Rabbi Lebovitz and Chair, Barry Bar-El. And of course, our artist, Jeanette Kuvin-Oren, who designed and produced these incredible mantles and covers. We invite everyone to participate by contributing to the Community Torah, dedicated to the strength of the Adat Shalom community. You can donate by either contacting the office or directly online.

We hope that these radiant and inspirational mantles and covers continue to brighten and energize our sanctuary and chapel for many years to come and enhance our enjoyment of our special physical and spiritual space at Adat Shalom.

Listening to Beautiful Music All Summer Long

The Hollywood Bowl came to Adat Shalom in August. The evening was one of the most beautiful evenings at Adat Shalom in memory. The concert on the patio featured Moshav's David Swirsky and Yehuda Solomon. The evening, sponsored by the Alvin and Violet Harris Memorial Fund, included boxed dinners from Got Kosher with outdoor dining on the patio with schmoozing, singing and laughter throughout the night. The event was the brainchild of Janet Schulman, who believed from the start that we should be using our courtyard for in-person programming whenever possible. Thank you to Renalee Pflug and the staff who coordinated all of the details, handled RSVP's, and arranged for the boxed dinners, which was no easy feat. If you missed the opportunity to join us, we hope you attend the next concert. Stay tuned...

More music... Check out Cantor Dale's playlist on the YouTube Channel. You'll find his Chanukah Medley and so much more on Adat Shalom Synagogue, Los Angeles - YouTube.

All concert recordings from this summer's in-person and virtual concerts are still available on Adat Shalom's YouTube Channel: Adat Shalom Synagogue, Los Angeles - YouTube. Please share the link with your family and friends.

Thank you to Karen Halaszi and Naomi Friedman who have spear-headed our new member outreach program welcoming our new members with gift baskets which were hand delivered to their homes.

Additionally, in September, we officially welcomed our new members into our community when we hosted them at our Sukkot community Shabbat dinner and service. Our president, Janet Shulman, introduced each of the new members that were able to join us and each, in turn, had a chance to introduce themselves to the community. It was a warm and welcoming gathering under our sukkah and we look forward to engaging our new members in future programs. Please feel free when seeing new members at services or any of events to introduce yourself and welcome them!

Religious School Returns to Campus

CARIN SCHACHAT

One of the core values of Judaism is Kehillah – community. This year, the Religious School Community will gather together on four Shabbat mornings to learn and pray together. Our first R.S. Shabbat was held on October 16 in Helen's Garden, facilitated by our very own Orley Garber! Orley led families in a text study of Lech Lecha, the week's Torah portion. Each family had time to talk with each other about their origins before sharing with the group. It was fascinating to hear where each family came from and how they emigrated to America. After our learning session, the Religious School families were called up to the Torah together for an Aliyah to commemorate our learning experience. We are all looking forward to gathering together throughout the year for Torah study, davening and schmoozing.

Our oldest class is delving into a brand-new curriculum, designed by Rabbi Lebovitz. Kitah Gimmel is exploring Jewish authors the Rabbi thinks they should be exposed to, including Maimonides, Rabbi Saadia Gaon, Theodore Herzl, Elie Wiesel, and more. The discussions between the students and the Rabbi are insightful and thought-provoking. I look forward to hearing about these discussions on the ride home each Wednesday night.

Our younger classes have been learning about key Jewish principles of kavod (respect/honor), ahavah (loving others), dan l'kaf zechut (judging others favorably/giving the benefit of the doubt) and the importance of mitzvot. They've also been learning their Aleph-Bet including final letters and vowels and their colors and months in Hebrew. They are doing great!

Our Religious School continues to grow and flourish. I am looking forward to seeing all our R.S. parents and children this January 14-16 as we return to Brandeis Bardin for the Adat Shalom Shabbaton!

Adat Shalom Supporting the Community Through Tour De Summer Camps

On October 31, 6 of our Adat Shalom congregants, led by team captain, Richard Destin, participated in the 9th Annual Tour de Summer Camps whose goal is help raise the critical funds needed to make sure every kid in our community has the opportunity to enjoy a transformative Jewish summer camp experience. Liz Bar-El, George Hall, Mitchell Gossett, Paul Miller and Richard Miller rode 26 miles with Richard Destin completing the full 100-mile event! Together, the Adat Shalom team collectively raised over $11,000, exceeding their team goal! Kol Hakavod!

Adult Learning Continues

The Rabbi's Neighborhood is back! In conjunction with our book club discussion on Yom Kippur, Rabbi Lebovitz inaugurated this season of The Rabbi's Neighborhood with a thought-provoking discussion with Natan Sharansky and Gil Troy, the co-authors of Never Alone: Prison, Politics, and My People. Rabbi Lebovitz followed the season opener (baseball pun intended) with a visit from Dara Horn, author of People Love Dead Jews and Stuart Weinblatt, founder of the Zionist Rabbinic Coalition. Check out all the latest episodes on the Adat Shalom YouTube channel.

Adat Shalom Book Club

Yael Hartstein and Lisa Schechter

Our Adat Shalom Book Club is still going strong with meetings before and after the High Holidays along with a special meet-up on the afternoon of Yom Kippur. Post High-Holidays, the Book Club met on October 19 via zoom for a lively discussion of Boris Fishman's "The Replacement Life." This story examined the experience of Jewish immigrants from Minsk living in Brooklyn and New York City. While reactions to the book were mixed, as always, the discussion was interesting and book club members enjoyed the chance to connect and share their thoughts.

Our next meeting will take place Tuesday, December 14th at 7:00 pm. We will discuss Three Floors Up by Eshkol Nevo. Adat Shalom will provide a zoom link in the weekly email before the meeting.

Adat Shalom is Sponsoring an Adult Learning Series with ScholarStream!

Beginning in October, and spanning all the way up to Shavuot, the Conservative Movement seminaries and institutions are partnering to offer eight series that will bring you face-to-face with the brightest and most engaging scholars our movement has to offer.

Scholarstream 5782 features three distinct arcs of learning that stand alone or flow into each other. Cultivating Our Relationships (series 1 & 2), Defining Our Sacred Spaces (series 3, 4, and 5), and Renewing Our Resilience (series 6, 7, and 8) will offer an exploration of who we are, where we are in relation to others, and how we move forward in this complicated world.

Adat Shalom Supporting Community Through Chanukah Angels

Through a many-year partnership with Chai Lifeline, an organization dedicated to helping children facing significant illness and their families, Adat Shalom members, including Religious School parents, children and teachers came together on November 14th to wrap Chanukah gifts for children in need. Under the leadership of Marla Knoll, we were able to sponsor wish-list gifts for 12 children dealing with serious illness in our LA Jewish community, and in addition, through the help of Women's League and general membership, we were able to donate over $1400 in Target gift cards which Chai Lifeline will use throughout the year to support the families they serve in meeting basic household needs. Kol Hakavod to Marla and to our entire community for coming together to support this very deserving organization!
