 - Non-catered events in public space (parks, etc) including potlucks (e.g. tashlich), where food is shared, will adhere to Har Shalom campus policy
 - Events in private homes – Host is encouraged to communicate their personal food policy to their guests
 - Private parties and events hosted by Har Shalom congregants do not require adherence to the Har Shalom food policy.
 - Labeling ingredients for Har Shalom potlucks – In order to accommodate various food preferences and needs, we suggest labeling all dishes. These labels can include dairy-free, vegan, rennet-free, gluten-free, nut-free, etc.
 - Cheese with rennet will be allowed
