MESSAGE FROM OUR LEADERSHIP

OUR PRESIDENTS

If you are concerned that this column will be focused on our present President or possible candidates in the future, relax. Enough with politics for a moment. Of course, having just celebrated my 78th birthday I will leave it to you to decide whether a Rabbi should take a test at any specific age to serve.

There is an office of president that I would like you to consider today, as we are about to transition to a new Temple Israel president. During my 52 years at Temple, I have served with many officers and have been impressed by the commitment, devotion and wisdom of those who have led our congregation. During my years in this community, I have great respect and admiration for the number of men and women who devote endless hours to leadership and service.

Consider for a moment the journey to the office of president of Temple Israel. Most often the first step is the Board of Trustees and then the Executive Committee. Every president of our congregation has spent years leading to the moment when they are installed. When in this office, they will attend our Tuesday morning staff meeting in addition to numerous board meetings, executive and committee meetings.

Why become a Temple Israel president? In my experience the decision is guided by a determination to help shape the future of the Jewish people and strengthen our congregation. There are presidents who have devoted their two years with focus on Jewish education. There are presidents who worked to build our physical structure, which involves design and fundraising. There are presidents who were in the role when paying bills was easy, others faced the challenge of economic crisis. There are presidents whose goal was engagement of the congregation in important issues. The list is endless, but what unites these leaders is the desire to bring Judaism into each of our homes and to remind us how fortunate we are to be the inheritors of a long and beautiful history.

Our Temple Israel presidents work in partnership with clergy and our professional team. It is not easy to be a leader of a Temple. It is not easy to be a member of the clergy. Remember, our president is a volunteer. Each of us who are clergy; studied, were ordained and were hired by a congregation led by a president. Fortunately, our Temple Israel presidents were talented; creating an outstanding professional team, ready to listen and lead.

TI4ISRAEL

ADULT PROGRAMMING

MARCH 21 - 7:00PM AT TEMPLE ISRAEL ANTISEMITISM ON THE LEFT & RIGHT

Is the antisemitism that posits the Jews are evil capitalists who control the world different from the one that posits that they are evil communists who control the world? Is the antisemitism that forces us to designate ourselves publicly with Jewish stars different from the antisemitism that insists we must not?

Explore the critical issue of the rise of antisemitism on both sides of the political landscape through the lens of Bari Weiss' award winning book, How To Fight Anti-Semitism.

Led by Cantor Michael Smolash.

This event is open to the community.

No cost for Temple members; $5 for non-members.

Advance registration requested at

Questions? Contact Maya at maya@temple-israel.org

APRIL 13 - 7:00PM AT TEMPLE ISRAEL WHAT COMES AFTER ANTISEMITISM?

In response to antisemitism, Bari Weiss presents several options for actionable behaviors of the Jewish community. In our conversation with Rabbi Josh, we will explore a variety of scenarios of a post-antisemitic America. Join us for this creative brainstorming session about how we can respond to the challenges of the day. This conversation will be an insightful balance of history and the future of our congregation.

Led by Rabbi Josh Bennett.

This event is open to the community.

No cost for Temple members; $5 for non-members.

Advance registration requested at

MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR GENEROSITY

You've worked hard to create security for you and your loved ones. Perhaps you even planned for the future by cushioning a retirement nest egg. Did you know that your retirement plan offers a simple, flexible way to support Temple Israel well after your lifetime? This long-term giving option allows you to touch the lives of our congregation with the life you've built.

By simply naming Temple Israel as a beneficiary of your retirement plan assets, you can act on your charitable intentions and avoid giving the government a considerable percentage of your deferred income.

TYNER RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

In Review: Parsha Parade and Pizza

Pre-K through 6th grade Religious School students had the opportunity to celebrate their learning of Torah stories! They enjoyed creating costume and signs to represent their favorite Torah parsha. We marched around the sanctuary singing Torah songs, playing musical instruments, and holding stuffed Torahs. After the parade, families enjoyed a pizza lunch. During the first hour of Religious School, parents engaged in learning with Dr. Jeff London around fostering positive sibling relationships, while students learned about Jacob and Esau in their classrooms.

In Review: Raise Your Yad - Students in grades 5-8 made their own one-of-a-kind beaded yads with local artist, Gail Kaplan. They learned that the word, yad, means "hand" in Hebrew and that we use a yad when reading from the Torah. These special yads will be used at students' upcoming B'nai Mitzvahs.

In Review: Mental Health Magician

Anthony Grupido, The Mental Health Magician, presented 'The Magic of Hope!' to some of our religious school students, clergy & staff. His own struggles as a teen have guided him to address mental health, encourage resilience and provide powerful insight on suicide prevention.

CATERING

NEW CATERING MODEL

We are excited to announce a new catering model at Temple Israel that will feature four catering partners at a variety of price points. Our new partners are Celebrity Catering, Chowhound Gourmet, Forte Belanger, and Platinum Dish. Platinum Dish will also be able to offer Kosher meals under Dish Kosher Cuisine.

Having multiple caterers will maximize options for families and our community in the future, allowing more families to “come on home” for their catered events at Temple Israel.

Contact Claudia Lutman, Manager of Event Services & Planning at 248-661-5700 x133.

THE ROBERT SOSNICK FAMILY LIFE CENTER

A Note from Our Social Worker, Kari K. Provizer, LMSW, ACSW:

It takes a village, and it certainly starts in our own backyard. Every year, I am astounded by the generosity of our Temple Israel members helping to make Chanukah for our families in need, year after year. In my 27 years at Temple Israel, I have never witnessed a more challenging year. The financial dismay that these families have faced, with inflation and the resulting impact on the cost of living, has left them struggling to return to their lives as they knew it before March of 2020. I keep saying, COVID and the pandemic are the gifts that keep on giving.

These families are members of our community, our brothers, sisters, friends, parents, and neighbors. Their children sit next to your children in Sunday School and have Monday night school dinner together. They worship and pray with us on Friday nights. It is important to share that Chanukah is not the only time our families need our help. We have several emergency funds dedicated to helping our members in need. The next time you want to honor or memorialize someone with a tribute, please consider choosing one of these funds to help your fellow Temple Members.

Donna & Alan Asp Emergency Assistance Fund

Barbara and Douglas Bloom Special Needs Fund for Single Mothers

Barbara & Lawrence Millman Family Chanukah Fund

breathe IN stress OUT

with speaker Dr. Matthew Goodman, PhD

Ready to reduce your daily stress levels?

Join us on April 27, 2023 for an evening with Matthew Goodman, Ph.D, who wrote the book Simple Stress-Reduction: Easy and Effective Practices for Kids, Teens, and Adults. Dr. Goodman will guide a discussion on step-by-step practices to reduce stress levels through daily practices, which draw on ancient wisdom and modern science.

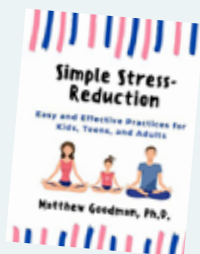

The event is aimed toward adults, but impacts the whole family and the lessons are intentionally designed to be accessible for children as young as 8-years-old.

A welcome reception, featuring wine and snacks will begin at 6:30pm, before Dr. Goodman speaks at 7pm.

Cost: free for Temple members, $18 for non-members.

Make sure to register in advance at www.temple-israel.org/event/breathe for a free copy of Dr. Goodman's book.

This program is supported by the Arnie Goodman Memorial Fund.

Matthew Goodman, Ph.D. is a Licensed Clinical Psychologist and Clinical Assistant Professor of Psychiatry and the Behavioral Sciences at the Keck School of Medicine of USC. Dr. Goodman has been practicing meditation for 15 years and has been teaching mindfulness to children and adults for the past 10 years.
