Wishing you all the joys of Passover
“What is a Jewish man”

In preparing a curriculum for 8th grade boys on the topic of “What is a Jewish man,” Wendy reminded me that I had written this to our son when he was just about that age. Given what is going on in our world today, she thought it was appropriate to share.

What a man is……by Dad

A man never lets his mother carry a burden if he is standing by her.
A man listens to others even as he reserves the right to make his own judgments.
A man is kind to everyone but even kinder to people who are weaker.
A man has the courage to tell his friends no.
A man has the courage to be lonely now and again.
A man never hits his little sister….NEVER!!!
A man uses humor instead of anger to get his way.
A man influences others quietly.
A man rarely raises his voice.
A man realizes that in order to learn, one must be open to learning from one’s mistakes.
A man hears what others are saying, before he formulates his response.
A man is a constant learner.
A man works hard to achieve his goals.
A man shows up on time.
A man allows himself to be teased.
A man is generous and will let you take two bites off his ice cream bar.
A man loves adventure, but takes only calculated risks.
A man knows when it is O.K. not to be cool.
A man contributes to the group.
A man picks up after himself.
A man steps forward when there is a leadership vacuum.
A man steps back when others are filling that vacuum.
A man recognizes how lucky he is.
A man does not begrudge others their good fortunes.
A man allows fun things to be fun; he is a good sport.
A man is creative.
A man knows how to laugh.
A man knows how to laugh at himself.
A man rarely laugh at others.
A man does not allow himself to be drawn into negativity.
A man is a good friend.
A MAN IS…….HOW WOULD YOU FILL IN THE BLANK?

In Review - Mitzvah of Mishloach Manot: Last month Sisterhood members came together to assemble beautiful Purim packages. Truly a labor of love, everyone pitched in and got the job done in no time! The festive boxes were filled with hamantashen, candy, raisins and homemade baked goods donated by our generous members. Once again boxes were distributed to Sisterhood board members along with Temple Clergy and Staff. Individual boxes were also sold to give to family and friends. This year we were excited to expand the opportunity of Mishloach Manot to our ECC families as a lovely way for them to send Purim greetings and thank the hard working ECC teachers and staff. We are so grateful to all the ECC Parents and Sisterhood members who participated! Together we were able to spread lots of Purim cheer while raising money for the needs of our Temple and youth! Another great example of “Stronger Together.”
