Israel at 70 and Me at 70 plus 3

If you are 20 or 30 years old be cautious about reading the beginning of this article. You are at an age where you believe that you are forever young.

If you are 40 – 60 the information, although not prophetic, might guide you to an easier future.

When you are 70, you discover that there are doctors who have medical specialties you never knew existed. You realize that a long night’s sleep is a forgotten memory. You begin taking pills that look more like a meal than the vitamin you took at breakfast with your meal. You are thrilled to have arrived, but recognize that the six-pack you never had, you will never have.

So how does this relate to the celebration of Israel’s 70th birthday? (I am writing this article a day before I will be boarding a flight to Israel, my second visit in one month. Two long journeys, not bad for 73.)

Israel at 70 is simply amazing! Technologically advanced, spiritually inspiring and esthetically beautiful, a nation surviving and prospering in a very dangerous neighborhood.

I recall my first trip to Israel. I was a student at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. The city was divided with barbed wire across a no man’s land. I was able to view a small portion of the Kotel (the Western Wall) from the top of the YMCA building. It was also visible from the back of the King David, but as a student I was not a welcomed guest.

Then 1967 and Jerusalem was united after a difficult battle against an enemy whose goal was to destroy our ancient homeland.

War, intifada, calm; a cycle that refuses to end. For both Israelis and Palestinians implementing a viable and permanent solution has been daunting. This week Gaza is once again a point of confrontation.

I am writing this article during the first week in April. Susan and I are leaving tomorrow and in a few days our Temple Israel Mission will begin in Tel Aviv. By now, your friends are telling you stories and showing you pictures. In Israel, I have always felt a sense of peace and security.

Israel is 70 and I am 73. Israel is an ancient country reborn in 1948. I am an optimist and believe that I will live to see the descendants of the sons of Abraham and Sarah living together in peace.

I recognize that it is difficult to negotiate with those who seek your destruction. I understand that it is destructive for people to live waiting for the next intifada, battle or terrorist attack.

By Israel’s 75th there must be a two state solution or a different miraculous idea leading to peace.

Can we expect anything less from the descendants of the Prophets?

Be a Part of Temple Israel High Holiday Services

Did you know that every year, seventy-six people just like you participate in High Holiday services? Congregants participate in the Torah Service at Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur in the following ways: carrying the Torah, reading an English Haftorah or special blessing, chanting Torah or Haftorah blessings or reading or chanting a Torah portion. Sure, some of these things require a little preparation, but everyone who does it will tell you that it’s worth it!

I felt so honored to read from the Torah on one of our holiest days of the year. It was a wonderful experience!
– Talia Dolgin

Chanting Torah is one of the most fulfilling and satisfying mitzvot a Jew can perform. I absolutely love the experience and can’t wait until I’m asked again.
– Doron Levin

I was thrilled and honored to participate in HHD services. I appreciate the opportunity to share in the beauty and tradition of HHD services at Temple Israel and if my participation helps in any small way- all the better.
– Julie Hantman

I have had the honor of participating in HHD services four times, and each experience has felt very special. I love the connection that the words chanted are the same that our ancestors have recited for thousands of years. My favorite memory was when after I chanted one year, my son told me he wanted to do that too someday. That was the BEST and made it all worth it!!
– Sherrie Singer

Chanting Torah in front of family and friends to celebrate Rosh Hashanah was one of the most meaningful experiences I have had in my lifetime. I will never forget leaving the bimah and holding my daughters in my arms as we listened to the conclusion of the service. I will forever be grateful for the opportunity to have experienced and shared this moment with my loved ones.
– Josh Grant

We like to include as many people as possible in this wonderful honor. But you have to let us know you are interested. Our Service Coordinator, Carolyn Iwrey, looks forward to working with anyone who would like to learn a Hebrew part. But if Hebrew is not your thing, we welcome you to read English or carry the Torah. If you have always wondered, “how do I participate in High Holiday services” and were waiting for your own personal invitation, here it is! Email or call Kim Heraud at 248-661-5700 ext. 125 or kim@temple-israel.org and tell her “I’m in!”

Sincerely,
TI Clergy

EyeGlass Recycling

Temple Israel is pleased to partner with the Lions Club of Novi in an eyeglass recycling program. Lions have been collecting glasses for more than 80 years. Lions have recognized the urgent need for corrective lenses and continue to lend their support to the Lions Recycle for Sight Program. Congregants may drop off eyeglasses in the drop box at the Tyner entrance.

Ink Cartridge Recycling

Temple Israel is part of a cartridge recycling program, which provides an easy method for recycling used ink jet and laser print cartridges. Congregants may drop off their empty ink jet and laser cartridges in the collection bin at Temple’s Tyner entrance. Please remove your cartridges from boxes or bags before placing them in the box. Thank you for your participation!

Pop Tab Collection

Temple Israel will continue to collect pop tabs for the Ronald McDonald House of Detroit on an ongoing basis. Please help by collecting and bringing your pop tabs to the drop box at the Tyner School entrance! Questions? Please contact Miriam Baxter at mbaxter@temple-israel.org or 248-661-5700. Funded by the Lynn & Harvey Rubin Social Action Fund.
VOLUNTEER AT DIXON
Help make a difference in a child’s life! Temple Israel is thrilled to be continuing our partnership with Dixon Educational Learning Academy in Detroit. ---

Happy May! I’m back for my 2nd post and want to use this opportunity to talk about pronouns. Pronouns are the set of words that an individual would like others to use when talking to or about that individual. For example, if you were to talk to someone about my article, I would prefer you use the pronouns she, her, and hers. These are what make me the most comfortable and how I want others to refer to me. Many of you might use the same pronouns or another typical set: he/him/his. However, there are people and communities that express themselves and their gender identities in ways that are more expansive.

She/her/hers and he/him/his may be the most widely accepted pronouns, but they do not have to be the only ones. These pronouns can be limiting to people who may identity as (this is not an exhaustive list): genderfluid (“denoting or relating to a person who does not identify themselves as having a fixed gender”), genderqueer (“a person who does not subscribe to conventional gender distinctions but identifies with neither, both, or a combination of male and female genders”), transgender (denoting or relating to a person whose sense of personal identity and gender does not correspond with their birth sex), and/or non-binary (a catch-all for identity markers that do not fall into the conventional female/male binary).

Imagine you have a preferred name but some people will only call you by your given name. Eventually you might become frustrated as people are not listening to you and not identifying you in the way that you are claiming for yourself. Not only is it limiting, but also it is disrespectful. By not using or assuming someone’s pronouns, you run the risk of creating an environment where people do not feel welcome and negating how they are expressing themselves.

Some examples of pronouns people may use (this list is not exhaustive) are they/them/their’s, ze, hir/hirs, and ey. To know what pronouns you should use, ask! Ask politely for someone to share. It may be awkward when you first do it because most of us (myself included) may not have had to think about it before and making it natural takes time and effort. To help, I have done a little research on best practices for using and understanding pronouns. I am not an expert but I speak from a place of allyship and feeling strongly that I, and the Jewish spaces I navigate, create warm and inclusive spaces for all. You can do this by:

1. Practice using and sharing yours. Say your pronouns when you introduce yourself to an individual or group, adding it the signature of your email, or by adding it to your meeting agendas/icebreakers.
2. Get comfortable being uncomfortable asking people for theirs. It may be scary and awkward to ask, but it is better than misgendering someone! Simply asking people to share their pronouns is an easy way to include others.
3. When you make a mistake, do not over apologize as it places the burden on the other person to make you feel better and that is unfair to them. Apologize, use their correct preferred gender pronouns, and move on.

As always, I am available to chat further. Feel free to email me at staci.rosen@werepair.org. Check out our RTW’s website for upcoming volunteer events: werepair.org/detroit.

The Bikkur Chaverim Fund… Rabbi Kaluzny’s Meaningful Mission

The Bikkur Chaverim Fund, an initiative dear to Rabbi Jennifer Kaluzny’s heart, provides volunteer support for the visitation of nursing homes, assisted living facilities, and senior residences. Loosely translated, it means “friends visiting friends.” The goal is to create meaningful, long term friendships that bring light and love into the lives of those who might otherwise lose their connection to Temple Israel and the world outside of their immediate family.

The Bikkur Chaverim volunteers not only visit with their friends, but also keep in touch with their families. They let the families know when they are visiting, and then, how the visit went. Rabbi Jen is involved with each pairing, and makes sure to help in the case that someone becomes ill or is in need of more services to remain comfortable in their home. She serves as an aide to both the volunteers, the group leaders, and the families.

Rabbi Jen’s Aunt Pauline z’l died in hospice care, as did her grandmother Bessie z’l. Both experiences led her to make pastoral care, hospice care, and devotion to the elderly and ailing the main focus of her rabbinate. Her daughter Bayla is named for both Pauline and Bessie. Rabbi Jen proudly serves the Jewish community in their memory.

It is her desire that the Bikkur Chaverim Fund support the team of volunteers who are creating these invaluable relationships. She also hopes it can provide for seniors in crisis.

We invite you to honor Rabbi Kaluzny on her 13th anniversary at Temple Israel and support her remarkable efforts through a gift to the Bikkur Chaverim Fund. If you would like to make a tribute, please visit her celebration site at rabbikaluznys13th.org.
MUSIC AT TEMPLE

The Composers' Corner is a new feature in the Messenger to let us get to know some of the many composers whose music adds to our services.

Rick Recht is one of the most celebrated Jewish artists of our time playing family concerts, Shabbat Alivel services, religious school concerts, teen concerts, camp concerts, and tot concerts throughout the United States and abroad. Recht is widely recognized as a pioneer of the Jewish rock music genre, elevating the medium of Jewish music as a powerful and effective tool for developing Jewish pride and identity. Of the many songs on his ten hit albums, Temple members are familiar with his Hinei Ma Tov, his soulful Yihyeh Shalom, and his gorgeous setting of v’ahavta.

In Review - Laker Concert: On March 25, The Laker Concert featuring BDN &N, made up of rock stars Josh Nelson and Dan Nichols and Master Cantors Rosalie Boxt and Ellen Dreskin, did not disappoint. This super folk group surpassed all expectations with their beautiful harmonies and engaging performance. Thank you to the Laker family for once again sponsoring this cherished concert in memory of Sarah and Harry Laker.

WE ARE GRATEFUL FOR 25 YEARS!

HOUSE TOUR 2018 - our 25th Anniversary! Can you believe it?! How awe-inspiring this has been in achieving our goals as a successful fundraiser for Sisterhood and Temple year after year. Your participation has allowed us to help Temple send over 200 children to Summer Camp.

We can attest to the fact of how challenging it is, every year, to acquire six unique homes and attain a team of one hundred trained docents. House Tour is a team effort. Many, many make it possible. Chairs, ticket people, House Captains, publicity, ticket design, callers for volunteers, dinner people, computer people, writers, coordinators, docents. They all bring our houses alive.

It is a privilege to tour someone’s home. Our patrons are respectful and fun. Interior designers are professional and eager to participate. And we are so thankful to the home owners who graciously open their homes for touring. As we are guided through each house and learn so much, we truly appreciate how special it is for them to share home and life with us.

We thank anyone and everyone who has had a hand in helping House Tour. There are many volunteers and patrons who have been with us for the entire twenty five years. And all the Presidents and Vice Presidents through the years have stepped up to work. We are grateful for this awesome experience, and most of all, for all the friends that we have made along the way. We thank you and look forward to seeing you on May 30th for another amazing day.

Respectfully,
Janie Roth, Founder
