TEMPLE YOUTH YOU BELONG HERE

Don't do it. Don't make the deal.

You know the one I mean – THE DEAL. The one where you tell your kids that they can stop participating in Religious School and youth group after their bar or bat mitzvah.

I know, I know, they're super busy. There's soccer, and dance, and tennis, and play practice. Student government, and baseball, and poms. Not to mention the homework, which they're doing at night when they should be sleeping.

I get it. Really. Things are different now than they were when we were kids. Kids are overprogrammed and busy and stressed....and did I mention busy?

A few weeks ago, I was with our YFTI leaders as they prepared for the year ahead. These brilliant, talented, kind, loving teens shared stories about being part of our Temple youth community – what an incredible safe space it has been for them, how the relationships they've made through our programs are the deepest and most meaningful, and how they've grown as humans. They talked about being welcomed with open arms, about feeling the most 'themselves' when they're together, and about the role models that they've met and become along the way.

There is something so incredibly special about being part of our youth programs here at Temple Israel. In a time and place when we're running kids ragged, and they're spending much of their down time staring at their phones, we give them this amazing opportunity to BREATHE. To be Jewish. Together. With a safe, warm, welcoming community guided by wonderful mentors and staff.

Your teens (well, most of them) are never going to be professional soccer players or dancers. But given the right foundation and the right opportunities, they will be contentious Jews, good people, and strong leaders for the rest of their lives.

So send us your kids. Let us borrow your teens. We promise they'll love it here.

THE JEWISH PERSONAL TRAINER PROGRAM

Temple's Jewish Personal Trainers (JPTs) are an amazing team of congregants who have been learning with Cantor Smolash for the past year how to share our traditions in a positive impactful way. Our first initiative, sponsored by the Lois & Fred Howard Mezuzah Outreach Program Fund is to help Temple families affix a beautiful, hand-written mezuzah scroll from a certified scribe in their home.

Our trainers are ready to visit your homes with everything required to affix your mezuzah. With their warm, dynamic approach, they will help this Jewish tradition come alive in your families' eyes, and fill the doorways of your home with joy and light. If your child is registered in Temple's ECC, you will receive a phone call and have the opportunity to schedule a visit from your trainer. Anyone else who is interested in this new program, please call Kim at Temple Israel 248-661-5700 to schedule a visit with a JPT who will help you put up your mezuzah.

Goodman Family Judaic & Archival MUSEUM at Temple Israel

Temple Israel's Goodman Family Judaic & Archival is pleased to highlight one of the newest additions to our permanent collection.

Rimonim Menorah by: Gidon Chai

This menorah is made of copper, silver, and brass. Artist, Gidon Chai, has more than fifty years of experience in silversmithing using traditional techniques – cutting, sawing, and hammering. Since 1963 he has done so in his studio at the Artists' Colony of Jerusalem. Gidon's goblets were given as gifts to the King of Jordan and the King of Saudi Arabia on behalf of the director of the ADL. A special Menorah of Chai's was awarded as a Peace Prize on behalf of "Hadassah" to Yitzhak Rabin and Shimon Peres.

Are you looking for a special way to honor someone you love? Consider dedicating a beautiful piece of Judaic artwork. By making a gift to the Museum in honor or in memory of a loved one, or in honor of a life cycle event, you will be part of the continuing legacy of a permanent Judaic collection, which will be enjoyed by Temple Israel for generations to come.

For more information, please contact Tracie Fienman at 248-661-5700 or tracie@temple-israel.org.

▲ In Review - An Evening with Susan Shapiro: A late August evening out for dinner and laughs, brought together two dynamic authors for Temple members and guests to enjoy. Our own Wendy Shanker charmingly interviewed native Detroiters Susan Shapiro about her new book, The Byline Bible, for a delighted crowd of over 100 people. Their candor and humor kept the conversation flowing through a Q&A facilitated by Rabbi Jen Kaluzny.

NEW MEMBER BACKSTAGE PASS

Tuesday, October 16 • 7:30 pm at Temple Israel

As a new member, you are invited to a behind the scenes tour of Temple Israel with some of the most experienced tour guides around - our very own clergy. Explore our newly renovated spaces, as well as other highlights such as the Children's Library &

Media Center, Mikvah and more! Enjoy wine, cheese, coffee and dessert while meeting new friends and chatting with our rabbis and cantors. Discover for yourself why Temple Israel is known as the "largest small congregation" in the country! There is no fee to attend this program. Babysitting is available - please let us know names and ages of children by Friday October 12th. RSVP online at temple-israel.org/backstage.

BRIDGES - CHALLAH BAKING

Thursday, October 25 • 7 - 9 pm at Temple Israel

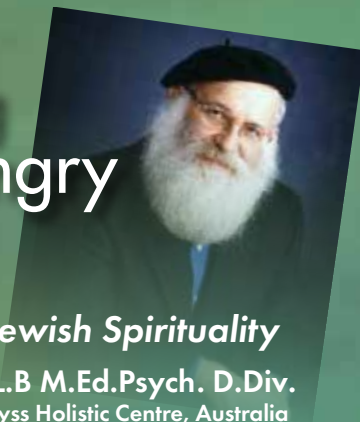

The "Bridges" class of Temple Israel invites you to join us for a Shabbat Workshop and Challah Baking! Bridges is a hands-on Judaism class that welcomes everyone interested in learning more about Judaism - Jewish or not, affiliated or not. This month, we will discuss how Jews celebrate the weekly Sabbath - the how-tos and whys of this wonderful weekly holiday. We will also be baking Challah, the Sabbath egg bread, and each participant will take a loaf home to bake. This event is free and open to the community; however, reservations are required. For more information or to RSVP, contact Carol at cooperena@aol.com.

Healing Anger & Angry People

The 7 Emotions in Jewish Spirituality

Rabbi Dr. Laibl Wolf LL.B M.Ed.Psych. D.Div.
Dean, Spiritgrow - The Josef Kryss Holistic Centre, Australia

Monday, November 5, 2018 • 7:00pm

Is anger a natural emotion? Should one vent anger to release it? Does G-d really get angry? Is there a 'Jewish psychology'?

For the past 32 years Rabbi Laibl Wolf has been a spiritual mentor and a worldwide teacher of the mystical side of Judaism, known as kabbalah. He has lectured in over 350 cities across the globe, and is a sought after speaker, conducting retreats, seminars, master classes and training programs continually throughout the world.

Addressing groups as divergent as the American Psychological Association, the Fortune 500 convention, and Buddhist monks, he is often the keynote speaker at worldwide conferences such as the recent "Argentinean Economy and Psycho/Spiritual Solutions" in Argentina. He has met with many leaders of other spiritual communities including an extensive two hour private session with the Dalai Lama. Melbourne University has appointed Rabbi Wolf as its founding lecturer in Jewish Mysticism and Spirituality.

Laibl has written and produced a highly regarded series of meditation and self-mastery audiovisual materials, which are sold internationally, and is the author of the best-selling book, Practical Kabbalah.

Supported by the Appel Family Concert Fund

CALLING ALL TALENTED SINGERS FROM GRADES 3-6!

The Shabbat Singers choir is recruiting for the coming year. This fun group of kids love singing, leading services, and learning about the joy of Jewish music. Led by Congregational Soloist Emma Trivax, we have sung at Comerica Park, performed with national Jewish rock stars, and led packed services here at Temple. What a great way for a young person to gain confidence singing while making amazing friends! If your child would like to participate, please contact Maya at maya@temple-israel.org or 248-661-5700 to register. Hillel students are also welcome. Rehearsals are during Sunday School at Temple Israel and Conant starting mid-October.

COMPOSERS' CORNER

The Composers' Corner is a new feature in the Messenger to let us get to know some of the many composers who's music adds to our services.

CANTOR DAVID SHUKIAR

David Shukiar is thrilled to serve as the cantor at TAE. He brings his love for music, Judaism, and children to bear on his Cantorial responsibilities. He is a magna cum laude graduate of UCLA, where he developed both his vocal and musical composition skills. The Guild of Temple Musicians has twice selected him as the best young composer. His music is published by Transcontinental Music Publications, the largest publisher of Jewish music, and can be heard in concert halls and synagogues around the country.

The Bittker Gift

In the 1950s, Joe Bittker and his family couldn't seem to find the right spiritual fit at their synagogue. It wasn't anything concrete that was missing. It was a feeling they longed for – one of connection and community. In search of that valuable attribute, Joe met with Rabbi Fram at Temple Israel. An instant connection was established, creating a bridge that would include deep-rooted friendships, service on the board of trustees and a relationship with Temple that has continued to grow for over six decades.

It is extraordinarily fitting that Deanna and Joe Bittker, the family who long ago searched for that vital connection point, recently made a generous gift to Temple to name the Bridge in the new wing of the Early Childhood Center. The Deanna & Joseph Bittker Bridge will provide a very special space for children to play and families to connect, linking the time-honored values that built the ECC with the exciting opportunities of the future.

The Bittkers have been remarkable donors over the course of their membership. Some of their numerous gifts include naming the Rabbis' study and the administrative reception office, as well as donating a substantial gift to the L'Chaim Campaign honoring Susan and Rabbi Harold Loss. In addition, the Bittkers, along with other generous family members, named the L'Dor V'Dor Family Garden Courtyard and co-established the Morris & Esther Bittker Picnic Fund to support the community-wide Labor Day Picnic event. This most recent gift is equally meaningful to Deanna and Joe, as it symbolizes the important bridge that was created with Temple Israel so many years ago.

Although they aren't in Michigan as often now, Joe recently walked the premises to learn more about the ECC's renovation and the role the Bridge would serve. Even after several decades of membership, he was still moved by what he observed during his visit – engaged members, invested leadership and a contagious positive spirit. Joe was so happy to see people experiencing the exact atmosphere he had longed for and found at Temple so long ago, and he was inspired to see that many forms of bridges continue to be built at his congregation.

Deanna and Joe have found the events that honor the rabbis and cantors particularly meaningful because they know that Temple's incredible clergy members never leave. In turn, everyone at Temple Israel is equally grateful that the Bittkers have never left. And according to Joe, they never will. Thank you, Deanna and Joe! Your friendship, generosity and leadership have been instrumental in building Temple Israel into what it is today – a welcoming bridge that connects Temple's amazing history and tradition with new energy, ideas and vision for the future.

◀ ASK: GOD EXPLAINED

November 12 • 12 - 1:30 pm

Author Miles Barnett will present his new book, God Explained: Leaders from Thirty Different Religions Interpret God. Barnett went on a quest to overcome prejudice and was welcomed by leaders across the community. He recorded their stories, in their own words, enabling each of us to have an open and honest discussion about world religions.

GOD EXPLAINED

Making a difference.

TELL YOUR LOVED ONES YOUR STORY

The most cherished thing you leave behind when you pass away won't be a car, house or bank account. When you pass away, make sure you let your loved ones know who you were and what was important to you. A legacy letter can be a touching way to share what is important to you and pass down lessons l'dor v'dor.

Here's how:

- Write a letter. It's the easiest way to create a permanent record of your values.
- Add photos to your letter. Pictures of you, your adventures and your relationships help tell your story.
- Create a website, video or social media post to complement the letter and add dimension to your narrative.

Remember to share your connection to Temple Israel in your letter, and contact us if you would like to include a gift to us as part of your legacy. To learn more, visit temple-israel.planmygift.org. For a personal and confidential conversation, call David Tisdale at (248) 661-5700, or email him at dtisdale@temple-israel.org.

FUNDS IN ACTION

LOIS & FRED HOWARD MEZUZAH OUTREACH PROGRAM FUND

NEW FUND: Supplies Jewish ritual items for the Jewish Personal Trainer program which serves our congregational homes

Connie & Hal Schwartz and family and Cindy & Barry Howard and family created this unique fund, in memory of their parents, to provide Temple's Jewish Personal Trainer (JPT) program with beautiful ritual items for congregants' homes. The JPT program is driven by Cantor Michael Smolash and a team of volunteers who are committed to bringing meaningful rituals and loving traditions into the homes of Temple members. The first JPT initiative will help families affix beautiful, hand-written mezuzah scrolls from a certified scribe in their homes. See page 5 for more information on how to schedule a JPT visit in your home.

NEW FUND: Provides volunteer support and materials for visitation of home bound/nursing home individuals

This fund was created in honor of Isaac <sup>z"l</sup> & Yetta Pann, who, along with their family, generously donated to Temple's new endeavor to bring love and aid to hospice, homebound and nursing home patients. The fund was born out of Rabbi Jennifer Kaluzny's aspiration to build a dedicated team of volunteers to give care to those who need it most. This significant human compassion vastly increases the mental and physical well-being of vulnerable patients. Our incredible volunteers calm fears and bring comfort to patients and their families, reducing emotional stress during these difficult experiences.

MARILYN & WALTER WOLPIN ENDOWMENT FUND

Supports young adult programming

Marilyn and Walter Wolpin have always believed that engaging young people and families is vital to this congregation's future. It was a gift from the heart when the Wolpins established the Marilyn & Walter Wolpin Endowment Fund to support young adult programming. Their generosity has sponsored a host of incredible programs to connect with young adults through entertainment, education and spiritual events and to provide special events for families with young children to worship together - including Shabbat for Tots, Shabbat at the Zoo, PJ's, Pancakes & Prayer and Tents at Temple.

IWREY FAMILY SPECIAL NEEDS/ SENIOR PROGRAMMING FUNDS

Serves the needs of the elderly and people with disabilities and supports programs for seniors

Debbie and Al Iwrey understand the unique challenges seniors and people with disabilities face and wanted to support them through the Iwrey Family Special Needs Fund and the Iwrey Senior Programming Fund. These funds provide hearing devices, limited transportation from senior facilities to Temple services and important programming for seniors. Social and educational events include Senior Shabbat, the ASK program series and various other entertaining concerts and shows. These funds have truly made a difference by helping to keep our seniors socially and spiritually connected.

These are only a few of more than 150 special funds that help Temple Israel achieve its mission. The funds engage our members and connect with the community through creative outreach, compassionate assistance and meaningful celebration. The impact from these funds is remarkable, allowing children to learn, families to heal and people to grow. Many thanks to our fund grantors who recognized a need - and to our donors who continually support Temple's efforts to reach those in need.

Kever Avot*

*The Graves of Our Ancestors

Sunday, October 7, 2018 • 8:30 AM

Temple Israel, in conjunction with its Robert Sosnick Family Life Center, funded by the Ira Kaufman Chapel, presents the 21st Annual Kever Avot. This very special program provides an opportunity for older adults in the community to visit the gravesides of their loved ones. This program serves the residents of assisted living facilities and apartments.
