READY TO PACK YOUR BAGS?

"Extreme Happiness!" "SABABA!!!" These, and other infectious bursts of exuberance were the rallying cries heard from one of our tour guides, Ron Singer, on the Temple Israel Family Mission to Israel this past December.

The 10-day trip took us from Tel Aviv, to the Galilee, and finally to Jerusalem in a culminating moment where we gathered together at Beit Shmuel with the Torah unrolled 360 degrees to hear 33 of our B'nai Mitzvah chant their portions in a gorgeous room overlooking the Old City. Indeed, this was sababa, and truly unforgettable.

Traveling in caravan with a group of people on one of Temple's mission trips is an experience not to be missed.

At first blush the idea of a pre-planned itinerary that is at once part historical, part spiritual, and ALL family camp can seem daunting. It is precisely for this reason why it should be a must. Part of travel should include being pulled out of our comfort zones and from the moment we landed Israel, it was exactly that. There were new people to meet, adventures to pursue, and ancient roots to uncover.

Some highlights:

The wonderful Palmach experiential Museum in Tel Aviv lets you follow the lives and fates of extraordinary individuals from their enlistment in the army to their battle in the War of Independence. What was not expected was actually meeting some of those amazing, 90-year-old heroes in the room above the museum following the tour. Wow!

Sitting at the back of our bus with my guitar in hand, for a "super song sesh" with our incredible youth, voices raised high!

Hiking the new Suspended Trail above the spectacular canyon of Baniyas Stream at the foot of Mount Hermon. I will never forget watching the young and the young-at-heart helping each other navigate the steps and bridges in order to experience this amazing and crucial water source and wonder.

Shabbat in Jerusalem at the Tower of David Museum where the story of Jerusalem from the time of Abraham unfolds, and watching our young people completely engaged and hanging on our guide's every word through exciting exhibitions in an astonishing location.

Standing outside the emotional Yad Vashem complex, our people, swaying arm in arm, singing a stirring rendition of Oseh Shalom.

A gorgeous day at the Dead Sea with Rabbi Josh literally covered head to toe in the fortifying mud of legend. I've never seen him happier.

The views from atop Mount Masada - 'nuf said.

Beyond the experiences themselves, I feel certain the relationships that we forged will last long after the trip itself or, at least, God willing, until our next trip together.

Speaking of our next Temple Trips, Morocco is beckoning in the spring of 2020. Keep an eye out for the dates and particulars.

Perhaps this is the moment where you throw off the bowlines and join us for a once in a lifetime trip that promises to be totally sababa!

Sababa - a word used throughout Israel, derived from the Arabic, to describe something cool or awesome.

Cantor Neil Michaels

THE PERFECT WAY TO HONOR SOMEONE YOU LOVE

If you have a friend or family member whose life has been touched by Temple Israel, consider making a gift to us in his or her name. This is a meaningful way to memorialize some of the most important people in your life, such as your mother, father, spouse, children, mentors or other special loved ones.

By dedicating a gift, you:

- Honor that special person.
- Support our programs and services at Temple Israel.
- Possibly receive personal financial benefits.

Give from the heart

Making an honorary gift is a wonderful way to acknowledge a loved one's vision for the future. Visit temple-israel.planmygift.org to learn more about ways to recognize your honoree at Temple Israel. For a personal and confidential conversation, call David Tisdale at (248) 661-5700, or email him at dtisdale@temple-israel.org.

Housing the South Oakland Shelter: Temple Israel would like to thank our dedicated volunteers who helped with this year's project with the South Oakland Shelter. Your hard work, energy and commitment to this cause truly made a difference in the lives of thirty men, women and children from the South Oakland Shelter. We could not have done it without all of our countless volunteers who donated their time and services.

A special thank you to our dedicated co-chairs: Art Dubin, Jane Schelberg, Andrew Schelberg and Jack Wander. Thank you for everything!!! You truly are the heart of this mitzvah project! Many thanks to our fabulous committee: Mike Anspach, Janice Cherkasky, Beth Kirschner, Marilyn Moss, Randi Richmond, Amy Wander, Michelle Winston, Johannah Schiffer and Talia Dolgin for the outstanding job they did!

"Todah Rabah" to Temple's wonderful affiliate groups: Sisterhood, Brotherhood & YFTI for their help and support. We would also like to thank Temple Israel's Caring Community, Cause We Care, Shoshana Arden and JARC for their help and hard work!

Finally, to the many individuals and businesses who gave so much of their time and services to make this week a success – we thank you for your continued support and generosity!

Special thanks to the Lynn & Harvey Rubin Social Action Fund, Susan & Hanley Yorke Social Action Fund, Lauren & Phillip Fisher Family, and Steven Gotlib Memorial Fund.

Goodman Family Judaic & Archival MUSEUM at Temple Israel

Beginning this winter, Temple Israel's Goodman Family Judaic & Archival Museum is pleased to feature a beautiful exhibit

Kabbalat Shabbat: The Grand Unification by artist, Debra Band

Her work is an illuminated manuscript of the Kabbalat Shabbat liturgy and rituals, a fusion of words and artwork, to interpret and enlighten the beloved traditions in the light of both Jewish mysticism, our understanding of the cosmos and contemporary social awareness. The paintings were done on kosher slunk vellum (calfskin), in ink, gouache and gold in leaf and powder form. This exhibit presents limited edition prints of a portion of the more than 90 original illuminated paintings and paper-cuts at the heart of the forthcoming book, Kabbalat Shabbat: The Grand Unification, the first illuminated book presenting the entire traditional liturgy for synagogue and home.

Are you looking for a special way to honor someone you love? Consider dedicating a beautiful piece of Judaic artwork. By making a gift to the Museum in honor or in memory of a loved one, or in honor of a life cycle event, you will be part of the continuing legacy of a permanent Judaic collection, which will be enjoyed by Temple Israel for generations to come.

For more information, please contact Tracie Fienman at 248-661-5700 or tracie@temple-israel.org.

▲ In Review - Moonbeams for Sweet Dreams: 200+ members of the Temple Israel community joined in the magic of Sweet Dreams and Moonbeams on Christmas Eve at Beaumont Hospital. This special project lights up the night for pediatric patients and their families who are hospitalized over the holiday season. Not even the cold weather could stop the warmth we generated knowing we made a difference for these little ones!

Thank you!
This year Chanukah was celebrated by many Temple

This year Chanukah was celebrated by many Temple families that never thought they would be able to! As always, the Barbara and Lawrence Millman Family Chanukah Fund and the Jackie Unatin Memorial Chanukah Fund, and our amazing Temple Family was ready to step in and assist our families in need. This year you not only came through, but the response, kindness and generosity were overwhelming! We thank you from the bottom of our hearts!

UNDERSTANDING & RESPONDING TO DEMENTIA-RELATED BEHAVIORS

DON'T MISS THIS!

Wednesday, March 13 • 10:30 am - 12 pm

Presented by Peter Ostrow, LMSW, ACSW from the Alzheimer's Association

As older adults with dementia lose language skills to communicate their needs, they often show behavior changes to signal a call for help from others to meet those needs. These behaviors can be acutely stressful for them and their caregivers. This workshop will help attendees understand the challenges that new behaviors present to them and to their family member; identify the needs the person with dementia is trying to satisfy and common triggers and; learn helpful strategies to intervene, such as when to modify the person's environment or adjust the task they are working on and when to seek medical support.

WHAT EVERY COUPLE SHOULD KNOW BEFORE AND AFTER SAYING "I DO"

FUNDS IN ACTION

MORRIS & ESTHER BITTKER PICNIC FUND

Sponsors the annual Labor Day Picnic

Each year as summer draws to a close, Temple Israel members and the surrounding community look forward to an amazing annual Labor Day Picnic. Through the generosity of Deanna & Joe Bittker and Ellie & Allan Bittker, Temple provides an incredible, free event that seems to get bigger and better each year. This multi-generational family celebration, open to the community, draws over 2,500 people each year who come to enjoy rides, games, arts, crafts, entertainment and a wonderful array of fair food.

ARTHUR DUBIN CHILDREN'S SPECIAL NEEDS SCHOOL FUND

Supports families who have children with special needs

Anyone who loves a child with special needs knows that navigating through the numerous and unique educational challenges can be very stressful, not only for the child, but also for the entire family. Recognizing the need to provide support to those families, Susan and Dr. Howard Dubin established the Arthur Dubin Children's Special Needs School Fund. This important fund provides assistance for services that help children succeed in school, resulting in a positive difference at home and in all areas of life.

ESTELLE HURWITZ BAR/BAT MITZVAH MEMORIAL FUND

Assists Bar/Bat Mitzvah celebrants with Bar/Bat Mitzvah expenses at Temple

Ron Hurwitz established this wonderful fund in memory of his wife, Estelle, to ensure all families can manage the expenses involved in the necessary preparation of their Bar/Bat Mitzvah child. Over the years, this fund has helped countless families with the many expenses involved in this very important process and celebration. It has given families the peace of mind that everyone, regardless of finances, will have the ability to become a Bar/Bat Mitzvah.

JUANITA AND GEORGE VICTOR MI SHEBEIRACH BLANKET FUND

Provides Mi Shebeirach blankets to hospital, nursing home and rehab patients

Initially created to provide blankets to children in the hospital, this fund recently expanded to include both children and adults in hospitals, nursing homes and rehab facilities. Linda Brodsky created the fund in memory of her parents to provide healing warmth and comfort to those facing a difficult time. The fund has not only provided more than 200 blankets to children and adults, but it has also created a meaningful volunteer opportunity for members of the community who come together to make the blankets.

These special funds, along with more than 150 others, help Temple Israel achieve its mission. The funds engage our members and connect with the community through creative outreach, compassionate assistance and meaningful celebration. The impact from these funds is remarkable, allowing children to learn, families to heal and people to grow. Many thanks to our fund grantors who recognized a need - and to our donors who continually support Temple's efforts to reach those in need.

TEMPLE YOUTH

In Review - Social Action Day:
Bunk45 spent an amazing day before Winter Break making over 30 blankets for South Oakland Shelter. Yasher Koach to all Bunk45 kids, parents, friends, and family who participated in this amazing and meaningful day of service!

◀ In Review - South Oakland Shelter: Our annual Social Action Night with YFTI was a success, as we had over 80 teens come to volunteer! We served food for 30 individuals from SOS, packaged over 300 Car(e) Packages and learned about economic injustice in and around our community. It was a great way to give back and end the year.
