FOR GOD'S SAKE--DISAGREE!!!

In my Yom Kippur sermon last Fall, I addressed the developing political scene in America. I wrote, "During the past few years, many of our members have challenged us, your clergy, to respond to this changing landscape of the world in various ways. Some of you have looked to your Rabbis for political discourse and a Jewish response to the issues of our times. Others have publicly demanded that the sanctuary be a place reserved ONLY for spiritual development and the Cantors' musical guidance through prayer. Many of you request bi-partisan dialogue while others ask us to leave the politics out of the Temple. A few have invited your clergy to take a stronger stance in defense of Israel as our eternal homeland while many have respectfully asked for a forum to challenge Israel's policies within the framework of our support. This diversity of needs from our members has left us searching for a correct path for deepening the connection between Jewish values and modern life as Americans."

Since those high holidays, the Jewish and American political landscape has only become more interesting. The Mueller Report is now complete. We are already experiencing the beginning of a Presidential Election cycle. Israel has re-elected their Prime Minister, Benjamin Netanyahu. And through all of this, our members continue to represent many viewpoints on the American political spectrum. This has made it challenging to serve the needs of our congregation.

Even so, dialogue, conversation, and even disagreement is a genuine part of our tradition. In the Mishnah, we read that, "Any disagreement that is for the sake of heaven will yield something that lasts. Any disagreement that is not for the sake of heaven will not yield something that lasts". In other words, if we are debating within the framework of Torah, then the disagreement is, as my grandfather said, "good for the Jews." Respectful debate amongst scholars with differing opinions has always been a hallmark of Judaism. The Talmud is filled with stories of rabbis who disagreed. They were not afraid to argue because they only wanted to reach the truth. If we follow this tradition, we can disagree and challenge one another. We need to be careful, however, NOT to belittle each other for our differences of opinion.

Thoughtful disagreement has remained a challenge in the Jewish community, but now, thanks to the generosity of Hilary & Edan King, Temple Israel will embark on a quest to bring relevant and important knowledge and insight to our congregation and community. Beginning on May 21st we will present the first installment of our new Speaker Series called "The Many Shades of Politics—An American Journey at Temple Israel". The purpose of this Speaker Series is to hear the insight of people from both parties and both sides of the political landscape. We want to learn from and challenge each other as we strengthen the Jewish people through the exchange of ideas.

Our first offering will be: "An Evening With Jeffrey Toobin" on TUESDAY, MAY 21, at 7:30 PM with an exciting Patron Pre-Glow at 6 PM. Because of our generous donors, there will be no cost for the event, but you can become a patron and enjoy a strolling dinner and pictures with Mr. Toobin. Check out the advertisement in this Messenger (page 8) or register at temple-israel.org/toobin. I look forward to seeing all of you there so that we can debate in the spirit of 5000 years of Jewish tradition. Please join us for this wonderful opportunity.

SUPPORT THE FUTURE OF TEMPLE ISRAEL

When planning a legacy gift, it's sometimes difficult to determine what size donation will make sense. One flexible option is to give a percentage of your estate. By leaving Temple Israel a percentage of the assets in your will or trust—from 1 to 100 percent—you have a stake in our educational and spiritual goals. This allows your gift to remain proportional to your estate size.

We are thankful for every single gift to Temple Israel, no matter what size. Your generosity strengthens our mission and honors your values, giving you the joy of making a powerful impact on future generations.

We are here to help if you have any questions about extending your impact into the future. Visit temple-israel.planmygift.org to learn more. For a personal and confidential conversation, call David Tisdale at (248) 661-5700, or email him at dtisdale@temple-israel.org.

TIKKUN OLAM HELPING OTHERS

Senior
SHABBAT

Bikkur Chaverim Every day, your rabbis are busy visiting members of our Temple family in the hospital, rehab facilities, assisted living facilities, and private homes. The catch is, we can only visit people, if we know about them! If you have a loved one that you think would benefit from either a friendly visit from a volunteer, or a visit from a rabbi, please call Donna at Temple Israel, 248-661-5700. She will take all of the necessary information, and we can bring Temple Israel to your loved one wherever they might be. We have a dedicated group of volunteers in our Bikkur Chaverim group that have made meaningful, long term connections with people wherever they might be living, and we would love to make even more sacred connections. A visit from a loving volunteer or from your rabbi is just a phone call away.

WE TAKE PRIDE

In Review - AIPAC: Temple's delegation of over thirty people to AIPAC had an amazing time at this year's convention. Joined by Cantor Smolash, we learned about the US-Israel relationship, heard from leading political and academic figures, lobbied our representatives on Capitol Hill, and felt the thrill of joining 18,000 other friends of Israel to make our voices heard.

A special Yashar Koach to Mark Jacobs, who presented a session on the amazing interfaith work he is doing in our city to raise support for the Jewish State.

Please join us next year, which is sure to be an even more spectacular event, as we connect with presidential candidates to hear their positions and insights on the State of Israel.

21ST ANNUAL LENORE MARWIL DETROIT JEWISH FILM FESTIVAL

Tuesday, May 14 • 4 pm at the Berman Center

Join us at the Berman for the film Bal Ej: The Hidden Jews of Ethiopia. Practicing a pre-Talmudic form of Judaism largely in secret, the Bal Ej community of Jews settled near Addis Abbaba, Ethiopia during the broader Beta Israel migration of the 19th century. This film examines the history, traditions, and struggles of the Jews of the North Shewa region of Ethiopia. Rabbi Josh Bennett will be moderating a discussion following the film. For more information about reserving free tickets, contact Lauren Marcus Johnson at 248-661-5700.

Join the Temple Israel Adult Book Clubs!

Our professional facilitators and diverse selections are certain to expand your mind, stimulate your intellect, and make for fun and enjoyable discussions.

Monday, May 13, 9:45 am and Tuesday, May 14, 6:30 pm with a discussion of the book, Waking Lions by Ayelet Gundar-Goshen. The discussion will be facilitated by Edie Broida.

After one night's deadly mistake, a man will go to any lengths to save his family and his reputation. Neurosurgeon Eitan Green has the perfect life - married to a beautiful police officer, and father of two young boys. Then, speeding along a deserted moonlit road after an exhausting hospital shift, he hits someone. Seeing that the man, an African migrant, is beyond help, he flees the scene. When the victim's widow knocks at Eitan's door the next day, holding his wallet and divulging that she knows what happened, Eitan discovers that her price for silence is not money. It is something else entirely, something that will shatter Eitan's safe existence and take him into a world of secrets and lies he could never have anticipated.

Participants are encouraged to read the selected book prior to the meeting. Copies of the books are available from the Weinberg Family Library and from local public libraries and booksellers. All are welcome!

Registration is required. $14/per session.

FUNDS IN ACTION

DONNA & ALLAN APPLE FUND FOR CHILDREN WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

Provides Madrich support for children with special needs

Donna and Allan Apple created their fund in 2003 to help ensure that all children have the resources available for a successful religious school experience. Young people often learn best from other young people, so Temple Israel's madrichim program is a critical component for teachers and students alike. Temple currently has 90 madrichim who help our educators and support students needing extra assistance, creating a positive and meaningful learning environment for everyone.

AVIVA PEARL HERMAN MEMORIAL SHARE FUND

Provides support to those who have experienced miscarriage, stillbirth or infant loss

The loss of a child is a devastating heartache that is impossible to measure. Merle and Ronald Schwartz are painfully aware of this reality, so they created a fund in 2014 after the loss of their precious granddaughter to help families on this overwhelmingly difficult journey. In support of the mission to help families grieve and eventually find some healing amidst immense pain, The Share Support Group was created, providing a safe place for families to come together in sorrow and support.

LES & BOB IWREY CHILDREN'S BEDTIME RITUAL FUND

Supplies gifts to families attending a Bedtime Ritual Program to foster sound religious rituals

Les and Bob Iwrey started this fund 18 years ago because they believe that establishing Jewish rituals early sets the foundation for a child's lifelong connection with Judaism. The fund supplies important ritual gifts to members with infants at the annual Blessing of the Newborns ceremony. In addition to bookplates, the fund typically provides diaper bags filled with useful items such as PJ Library books, ECC coupons, dry erase boards for emergency contact information and hot/cold packs.

BERTHA & HARRY KIFFERSTEIN SENIOR ADULT PROGRAMMING FUND

Supports Temple's Senior Adult Program

In 2006, Rosann Barak created this fund in memory of her parents to provide quality entertainment for seniors to enjoy. The fund has recently sponsored a wide variety of artists at Temple Israel, including the West Bloomfield High School Jazz Band, Matthew Ball, Ron Short, Arbor Opera Theatre and Shawn McDonald. These events at Temple provide senior adults not only with memorable entertainment, but also a supportive, uplifting community and environment in which to share the experience.

These special funds, along with more than 150 others, help Temple Israel achieve its mission. The funds engage our members and connect with the community through creative outreach, compassionate assistance and meaningful celebration. The impact from these funds is remarkable, allowing children to learn, families to heal and people to grow. Many thanks to our fund grantors who recognized a need - and to our donors who continually support Temple's efforts to reach those in need.

Toda Raba!

I feel both honored and privileged to have served as the Temple Israel Brotherhood President for the past four years. During my tenure, I have had the great fortune of working with an Executive Board of men whom I can truly call friends. Together with the men of Brotherhood, we have been able to continue our mission of Tikkun Olam, by helping both those in our Temple family as well as our Jewish Community. With the support of our fund raising activities, some of the events we have sponsored are:

- Tiger Basesball games for residents of JARC & Kadima
- Camp Scholarships
- College Dinners with our Clergy
- Temple Israel Usher Corp
- Kadima Seders
- Red Cross Blood Drives

Thank you again for your support and all you do to make Brotherhood the great organization it has become!

L'Shalom,

Brian Karbel
