New Year Clean Slate...

As you receive this month's Messenger, we are deep into the High Holy Days. We have just celebrated Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur is only a few days away. And even though it is the holy day season, during these 10 days, it is easy to fall back into our daily routine and forget about the fact that these in-between days are special days too. They are called the aseret yamei teshuva—the 10 days of Repentance, and while they are not holidays, per se, there is a purpose to this period. Tradition teaches that the Gates of Heaven are open now, bringing us even closer to God than in normal times. As Maimonides explains, "Even though repentance and prayer are desirable at all times, during the days between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, they are even more desirable and will be accepted immediately." Therefore, we dedicate this time to repairing ourselves and our relationships. It is about wiping the slate clean in order to begin again. Take this time to heal relationships with family and friends. Go to them. Acknowledge the wrongs you have done. Make amends. And most of all, commit to not doing them again. That is the essence of teshuva—which we generally translate as repentance, but literally means return. In making atonement, we return to our essential selves, we return to wholeness, we return to God, Judaism, tradition. It is never too late to fix those things which we have broken—with ourselves, our relationships and of course, with God. In fact, that is the point of this season, and particularly Yom Kippur—as we open ourselves up entirely, allowing ourselves to be vulnerable, recognizing who we are and preparing to start again.

And then we do an absolute 180° turnabout, for break fast doesn't end the season. In fact, we're just getting started. Five days later, it's time for Sukkot, followed by Shemini Atzeret, Yizkor and Simchat Torah. There is a lot to celebrate. Sukkot is called z'man simchateinu—the season of our joy. It is a time to rejoice and delight in our Judaism. I love the fact that the first thing we do after Yom Kippur, after the intensity and solemnity of atonement, is have a party! Check out the pages of the Messenger (pgs. 4-5) for everything that is going on this month—there is literally something for everyone from Sukkah Decorating, Birkat Yeladim, and a Food Truck Rally (pg. 14); to Yizkor services and Simchat Torah.

In the meantime, in case you are concerned that you didn't get enough time for making teshuva during this holiday season, no worries. Some say the Gates of Repentance are actually open all the way through Simchat Torah. (And if that's still not enough time, others say, they are open until Chanukah!).

Wishing you all a happy and sweet new year.

Rabbi Marla Hornsten

FUNDS IN ACTION

SAMSON FAMILY MINYAN FUND

Assists in the expenses of the daily minyan

The Samson Family Minyan Fund was established in 1999 after the passing of Norman Samson's mother, Pauline. Recognizing the healing power of minyan, the Samsons knew the perfect way to honor Pauline's memory was to create a fund to help those navigating the painful experience of losing a loved one.

This lay-led service is open to the community and is considerably more than an opportunity to say kaddish for a loved one. It is a supportive, compassionate environment, surrounding mourners with people who understand the grief process and others who are going through a similar journey. Many thanks to the Samson family and all those who support this important fund that helps congregants and community members find solace at Temple Israel's daily minyan.

SAMUEL TODD LEVINE BABY BOOK FUND

Provides a book to families whose children are blessed through Temple Israel

Paul Levine created this meaningful fund in cherished memory of his son, Samuel. For the past 35 years, the Samuel Todd Levine Baby Book Fund has provided a special keepsake for families when their newborns are blessed through Temple.

Upon a baby naming or bris, a Jewish baby book is presented to the family, welcoming their child into the Jewish faith and our Temple Israel community.

Over the years, hundreds of families have been touched by this wonderful fund and have cherished the books marking this beautiful simcha. It is especially meaningful when a parent who received a book many years ago has their own baby blessed at Temple and is presented with a book, continuing the powerful tradition of this sacred life cycle event.

These are only a few of more than 160 special funds that help Temple Israel achieve its mission. The funds engage our members and connect with the community through creative outreach, compassionate assistance and meaningful celebration. The impact from these funds is remarkable, allowing children to learn, families to heal and people to grow. Many thanks to our fund grantors who recognized a need - and to our donors who continually support Temple's efforts to reach those in need.

WE TAKE PRIDE

Talk about Making a Difference!

We are bursting with pride, as our own Rabbi Harold Loss joined 30 leading Jewish thinkers and activists from six continents in Jerusalem on September 9th – September 11th for a groundbreaking initiative created to strengthen the bonds among Jews worldwide.

This is a generation-defining moment in Jewish history.

This prestigious group will create a joint declaration grounded in the shared set of ethics and values that connect Jews to each other and to Israel across diverse religious and cultural identities.

“Our Common Destiny,” is an initiative held under the auspices of the Genesis Philanthropy Group and the State of Israel; it involves scholars, including the President of Israel, Hon. Reuven Rivlin, Rabbi Sharon Brous and Rabbi Lord Jonathan Sacks.

Rabbi Loss has always been such an inspirational, influential spiritual leader in our community. We are so proud that he is guiding worldwide Jewry through this important work.
