PANDEMIC LIFE

My day began at 7:00am when I woke up to drive to five members' homes to pick up boxes of 'pre-made' sandwiches before delivering them to the NOAH Project in the city. The sandwiches were being made by members of QUEST (our Temple Israel Social Action Middle School Youth Group) and we delivered more than 500 sandwiches to needy families in Detroit.

When I returned home and walked into our dining room, I was greeted by more than 100 "Family Pack" grocery bags donated by members of the Temple Family to support our Free Fresh Food Pantry. Supported primarily by Forgotten Harvest, we are providing food every other week to families in need from our community. While typically we feed 120 families every other week, the crisis has increased our client base to over 250 families lined up in the parking lot to receive "contact-less" deliveries of food to their trunks.

By mid-morning, my wife and daughter (Meg & Maddie) had returned from their adventure delivering the raw materials for PPE kits to an organization in Novi who were re-purposing their factory to support our caregivers.

And in the evening, I jumped on a Conference Call for Do Good Date Night. In our digital version of this pilot program, a few Temple members supported a local restaurant with curbside pick-up followed by a Zoom dinner together with Dr. David Ozog, MD., Chair of the Henry Ford Department of Dermatology. Through the call, we raised more than $8000 for new UVC light technology to aid in the sterilization of masks and other medical devices during this crisis and beyond. With the generosity of the David & Stacy Gordon Family Do Good Fund, we truly lived up to our congregational motto to "Make A Difference"

Just as I was getting ready to go to sleep, I received a text from a friend who shared that her kids and their friends had spontaneously created a yard-sign project where they sold inspirational signs to their neighbors for a charitable donation. In the end, they raised $540 for the community.

I never thought I would live to see such need and I am overwhelmed by the generosity of our congregation to take care of others. Jewish tradition implores us in this week's Torah portion to live by the Golden Rule—V'ahavta L'ray-echa Ka-mocha—Love your neighbor as yourself. While none of us could have imagined being in this position, I am proud to say that the Temple Israel community has risen to the challenge of being there for others.

The projects I mention here are just a few of the ways we are responding to the COVID-19 crisis. Our volunteers are calling older members on a regular basis, our clergy is offering pastoral care to those in need, our financial department is responding to the urgent situations of our members. And we will continue to be there for you in the days, weeks, and months ahead. Please reach out to us if you have a charitable project that you would like to champion. We are here to help you and support you on this journey. And until then...please stay safe and healthy as we weather this storm.
