READ. WATCH. DO.

This summer was the final straw.

George Floyd's murder sparked the protests still on-going in cities around the country now three months later. I was born in 1969—at the tail end of the '60s during the last round of civil unrest and civil rights protests in our country, but for most of my life, the political scene has been fairly quiet. That's not to say that there haven't been protests—I've participated in many of them—but not like the '60s and not like today.

I serve as the co-chair for the Coalition for Black and Jewish Unity together with Reverend Deedee Coleman from Russell Street Baptist Church in Detroit. In these last months, I've tried to learn about what it means to be Black in America. I've engaged in dialogue, in listening sessions, in trainings. One of my favorites was through the Coalition entitled: "Dear White People, Please Listen" (you can find it on the Coalition Facebook page). I have learned that I must watch the news. I must read. I must listen. I must learn. I must act.

On the one hand, it is incredible how much material there is out there including books, podcasts, movies, and articles. There are lists, upon lists of sources to dig into, to learn about the structural racism in this country; and inspiring texts on how to commit ourselves to anti-racist work. I'm so grateful for all these resources. And on the other hand, there is so much material that it is overwhelming: The top 100 books, the top 1000 articles (I'm exaggerating).

In these months, a small group of temple members have gathered over Zoom to begin a conversation about race. The overwhelm of all of these resources has been a common thread among us: Where to start? What conversations should we be having? What can we do to make a difference?

And so, our self-declared, anti-racism task force conceived of Read. Watch. Do.

Starting today, we will post on our Temple social media, one book or article to read, one movie to watch or one podcast to listen to (the verbs might change from post to post), along with an action step: the "Do." And while we will provide several sources, feel free to work at your own pace: engage in one or all—however works best for you. Our goal is to post on the 1st of the month. Each of our suggestions has been recommended by members of this task force—that means we have read the book or listened to the podcast or watched the movie, and that member will moderate the conversation. These aren't random lists that we have taken off the internet. They are meaningful to us and therefore, we hope, to you.

With Read. Watch. Do., our goal is make the task achievable, and in so doing, to encourage healthy discussion via our social media platforms, to foster constructive dialogue with members of our task force; to support our temple members on their individual journeys and to inspire action. We hope to make a small difference in our community, and ultimately, we hope to change our society, and perhaps our world. For Rabbi Tarfon taught in the Pirke Avot: it is not your task to complete the work, but neither are you free to desist from it. There is much to be done, and I hope you will join us!

Chanukah

Chanukah must go on!

Our Chanukah may look a little different this year, however our Temple families need the miracle of Chanukah now more than ever. Adopting a family this year will be easy, completely safe and virtual.

Ways you can help:

1. Adopt a family virtually by making a donation online at www.temple-israel.org/NTFWC
2. Write a check to Temple Israel
c/o No Temple Family Without a Chanukah
3. Purchase a gift card for a family in need
Target Store Gift Cards • Grocery Store Gift Cards • Gas Cards

Due to COVID, this year our families are completing a registry online through Target. To keep the gift giving touchless and safe, we will use the funds you donate to adopt the family through the registry.

Any and all donations will truly “Make a Difference”

All gifts must be received by Monday, November 16th

For additional information, go to www.temple-israel.org/NTFWC or contact
Kate at 248-661-5700 or kate@temple-israel.org

LIFE CYCLE EVENTS

B'NAI MITZVAH

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 2

ELLIOT BLAKE FOREMAN, son of Lezlie and Dr. Eric Foreman; grandchild of Marilyn and Paul Meyer and Anita and Arnold Foreman. He is a student at Orchard Lake Middle School. His hobbies and interests include soccer, basketball, golf and watching and playing sports. Among his many mitzvah projects Elliot found it most meaningful to adopt a family for the holidays. Additional mitzvah projects included packaging Purim parcels for senior citizens in our community and delivering PPE materials at the start of the pandemic.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9

KATE EVELYN GOLDMAN, daughter of Stefanie and Jon Goldman; grandchild of Carol and Gary Kushner, Jill and Steve Seldin and Jane and Budd Goldman. Kate is a student at West Hills Middle School. Her hobbies and interests include figure skating, volleyball, waterskiing, attending summer camp and animals. For her mitzvah project, she volunteered at and donated to Gleaners Community Food Bank. Kate raised and donated enough money to provide 1,950 meals to families in need. In addition, she volunteered at Temple Israel for the housing of the residents of South Oakland Shelter and for the Labor Day Picnic.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 10

BRODY SOL OLESHANSKY, son of Dr. Melissa and Tony Oleshansky; grandchild of Marlene and Bill Oleshansky, Carol and Michael Corman and Ann and Stan Hammerstein. Brody is a student at West Hills Middle School. He is actively involved in tennis and fitness and enjoys writing short stories, drawing, cooking and baking. Brody became certified as a Junior Kindness Ambassador for the non-profit Kindness Matters 365 program. He hosted Kindness meetings during his school's Leadership Cub meetings to help bring awareness to global kindness, community service, and how to be a kind leader. Additional mitzvah projects included volunteering at last year's Temple Israel Labor Day Picnic as well as helping in the Temple Israel Garden of Mitzvot.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 10

ELLAREE LUCILLE ZACK, daughter of Heather and Scott Zack; grandchild of Penny and the late Earl Zack and Bonnie Kaczor. She is a student at The Roeper School. Ellaree loves math, science, gardening and snorkeling. Additional hobbies include skiing, baking, art and adventurous travels. As part of her mitzvah project, Ellaree enjoyed working with the children at the Dream Center. She helped to provide home cooked meals from her kitchen to their facility and engaged in after school athletic activity, followed by one-on-one tutoring with the children.

OLIVIA LUCILLE ZACK, daughter of Heather and Scott Zack; grandchild of Penny and the late Earl Zack and Bonnie Kaczor. She is a student at The Roeper School. Her hobbies and interests include reading, skateboarding, swimming and playing video games. Additionally, she enjoys skiing, baking, art and adventurous travels. For her mitzvah project Olivia gave her time working with the children at the Dream Center. She helped to provide home cooked meals from her kitchen to their facility and engaged in after school athletic activity, followed by one-on-one tutoring with the children.

ARI NATHAN FRIED, son of Randi and Steve Fried; grandchild of Sari and Marc Roland and Barbara and the late Joel Fried; great-grandchild of Seymour Grundy. Ari is a student at Walnut Creek Middle School. His hobbies and interests include guitar, robotics, trombone, architecture and car design. For his mitzvah project, Ari wrote and organized cards of encouragement to homebound seniors and essential workers during the first few months of the COVID crisis. In addition, he donated to the Henry Ford Hospital COVID relief and volunteered at the Crossroads of Michigan Soup Kitchen.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 16

ALEXANDRA MICHELLE ZELMANOV, daughter of Zina and Dmitriy Zelmanov; grandchild of David Shikhman and Anastasiya Shikhman, the late Arkadiy Zelmanov and the late Regina Shargorodskaya. Sasha is a student at West Hills Middle School. She enjoys reading, art, swimming, playing the piano and ice skating. For her mitzvah project, Sasha collected money and supplies for Oakland County Animal Shelter and helped out senior citizens by delivering groceries during Covid19 pandemic.

ZACHARY NATHAN ELBINGER, son of Eden and Kevin Elbinger; grandchild of Rochelle and David Elbinger and Sheri and David Jaffa. He is an 8th grade student at Hillel Day School. His hobbies and interests include collecting sports cards, playing baseball, basketball, golf and soccer, playing the guitar and traveling. For his mitzvah project, Zachary made bookmarks, bag tags and wrote letters for the Project Night

Night Program. This program donates 30,000 nighttime packages a year to homeless children ages 12 and under. He also participated in Hillel Day Schools 7th grade collaboration with JARC.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17

BRIANNA JADE KRONENBERG, daughter of Sandy and Alaina Kronenberg; grandchild of Elisa and Yale Falick, and Nancy and Robert Kronenberg. Brianna attends West Hills Middle School. Her hobbies and interests include tennis, soccer and attending Camp Tanuga during the summer. For her most meaningful mitzvah project, Brianna volunteered in Detroit for the Peer Corps.

JACK WILLIAM BEAVERS, son of Andrea and David Jacobson; grandchild of Sheldon and Rose Rita Goldman and Nancy and Joe Jacobson. Jack is a student at Eton Academy. His hobbies and interests include playing basketball, skateboarding and gaming with friends. For his mitzvah project, Jack volunteered at the Friendship Circle and worked as a volunteer assistant counselor at the Friendship Circle summer camp.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17

JAMIE ALEXANDRA BLOOM, daughter of Carey and Ryan Bloom; grandchild of Janice and Gary Bloom and Barbara and Fred Goldberg. Jamie is a student at Berkshire Middle School. She enjoys tennis, dogs, overnight camp and spending time helping Almost Home Animal Rescue. For her mitzvah project, Jamie volunteers her time to help take care of animals and help find them permanent homes. She also takes in foster dogs with her mom and helps get them adopted. In addition, she adopted families from Orchard Children Services and collected donations due to tough times from Covid Feed the homeless through Temple and SOS.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 23

RILEY IAN AGREST, son of Sandra and Kevin Agrest; grandchild of Maria and Michael Kallen, Irene and Marty Agrest and the late Gary Greenfield. Riley attends Clifford Smart Middle School. He enjoys playing baseball and basketball. As part of his most meaningful mitzvah project, Riley raised funds to donate to No Kid Hungry which supports kids who lost their school lunches due to school closures from the coronavirus.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 24

COLE TYLER WARREN, son of Eileen and Gregg Warren; grandchild of Muriel and the late Richard Warren, Martha Montiel and the late Rafael Montiel. Cole is a student at West Hills Middle School. His hobbies and interests include playing tennis, skiing and skateboarding as well as singing and playing the piano. For his mitzvah project, Cole enjoyed giving his time helping at Temple Israel's Free Fresh Food Pantry. He also enjoyed visiting, playing games and entertaining the residents at Fleishman Senior Living.
