Kehunah Lecture Series Rabbi Ozer Glickman will be delivering a lecture series on Bikdushato Shel Aharon: The Practice of Birkat Kohanim, covering many concepts concerning Kehuna, with a focus on modern-day Avodah. The series will run at Rinat Yisrael at 8:00pm each Tuesday between Pesach & Shavuot (4/25, 5/2, 5/9, 5/16 & 5/23). The first four sessions will be source-based, yeshiva-level style study, examining the Talmudic & halachic process that led to the Birkat Kohanim we know today; the fifth session will be a summary and include practical halachic applications. The series is open to all, men & women, kohanim & non-kohanim, alike. While the series will build from one session to the next, each session can also be understood & appreciated as a self-contained unit. Rabbi Ozer Glickman is a Rosh Yeshiva in RIETS at Yeshiva University, where he has been teaching Talmud, Halakhah, and Jewish Thought for almost two decades.
