COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

KEYLIM MIKVAH AWARENESS MONTH!

Every family in Teaneck, Bergenfield and New Milford benefits from the keylim mikvah all year round, but especially during the busy month before Pesach. Please help us recognize its importance by financially supporting the mikvah during KEYLIM MIKVAH AWARENESS MONTH. Funds collected will be used exclusively for the daily operational expenses of the mikvah including insurance costs, supplies, repairs, and equipment. Suggested amount is $36 per family, but of course, any contribution is appreciated. Payments may be made online at www.teaneckmikvah.com. Thank you!!

This Shabbat at 6:15pm, and continuing at Seuda Shlishit, following Mincha at 7:15pm at Keter Torah, Rabbi Steven Weil will speak on "The 50th Anniversary of the Event that Changed Jewish Destiny: An Analysis of the 6 Day War."

The Ma'ayanot Adult Education Committee invites the community to a shiur series given by Rabbi Jay Goldmintz, on: Praying with Meaning: Shemoneh Esrei part I. The shiur will take place on Thursdays, 11:45 a.m. -12:45 p.m. on the following dates: April 20, 27, May 4, 11, 18. Men and women welcome. For more information or to sponsor a shiur contact Pam Ennis at ennisp@maayanot.org.

On Sunday, April 23, 2017 at 8:00pm, The Adult Education Committee of Cong. Rinat Yisrael will host a special event in honor of Yom Hashoah Vehagvurah. Dr. Irit Felsen, renowned therapist and researcher of the trauma of the Holocaust, will explore: "The Effects of the Holocaust on the Children of Survivors: A Tale of Courage". Dr. Felsen will present case studies highlighting the effects of the Shoah on the second generation from two different perspectives - difficult challenges as well as unusual resilience. Irit Felsen's education includes a PhD from the University of Hamburg, an MA degree from the Hebrew University and postdoctoral training at Yale. She is in private practice in NJ and serves as an Adjunct Professor at Yeshiva University. f, Psychoanalysis and Context and wrote a chapter included in the International Handbook of Multi-Generational Legacies of Trauma. Dr. Felsen is a researcher with the Yale University Trauma Study Group and was the Clinical Coordinator of services for Holocaust survivors at the Jewish Family Services of MetroWest in NJ.

There will be a blood drive at Keter Torah on Sunday, April 30, from 12:00–4:00pm. For information, visit www.communitybloodservices.org.

Project Ezra has recently introduced an Interest Free Loan Program (IFLP). The IFLP is intended to help people with unexpected expenses, (collapsed roof, unusual car repair, i.e.). If interested, please contact Robert Hoenig at robert@ezrah.org

The Hebrew Free Burial Association will hold its annual breakfast this Sunday, April 23 at 9:30 am at Beth Aaron, 950 Queen Anne Rd., Teaneck. Andrew Parver will receive the chesed shel emet award and Rabbi Mordechai Willig will be the guest speaker. To RSVP call 212-239-1662 or go to www.hebrewfreeburial.org/bergen.

The Jewish Community Council of Greater Teaneck invites you to the annual Yom Hashoah Commemoration on Monday, April 24, 2017 at 7:30PM at Teaneck High School. Our keynote speaker this year is Mark Schonwetter. As a young Jewish boy in Poland during World War II, he spent the war years in hiding with his mother and sister in the Polish countryside. After the war, the family stayed in Poland until 1957, when they immigrated to Israel and then later moved to the U.S. in 1961. Within ten years, he owned a jewelry company, Lieberfarb, a successful wedding ring company. Pre-Event Reception for Survivors and their Families 6:00pm: Media Room, Teaneck High School To register for Survivor Reception, please call Felicia Grossman at 201-287-0910. Please attend this important event on Monday, April 24th, at 7:30 at Teaneck High School. This event is free. We appreciate you making every effort to attend yourselves. Your presence will make a strong statement when you attend. Libraries: Holocaust inspired artwork will be at the Teaneck library for the month of April and at the Bergenfield Library for the month of May.

Save the date - April 25th, 8:30 at Beth Abraham. Rena Ariel, mother of Hallel Yaffa, will be speaking about "Living each day in Hashems Ratzon". Though the shiur is free of charge, all donations are welcome and will be used toward a playground that the Ariel family is building in memory of Hallel. Please contact Debby Pfeiffer for more details.

Kehunah Lecture Series Rabbi Ozer Glickman will be delivering a lecture series on Bkdushato Shel Aharon: The Practice of Birkat Kohanim, covering many concepts concerning Kehuna, with a focus on modern-day Avodah. The series will run at Rinat Yisrael at 8:00pm each Tuesday between Pesach and Shavuot (4/25, 5/2, 5/9, 5/16 & 5/23). The first four sessions will be source-based, yeshiva-level style study, examining the Talmudic and halachic process that led to the Birkat Kohanim we know today; the fifth session will be a summary and include practical halachic applications. The series is open to all, men and women, kohanim and non-kohanim, alike. While the series will build from one session to the next, each session can also be understood and appreciated as a self-contained unit; so, anyone interested is welcome to attend one, some or all of the shiurim. Rabbi Ozer Glickman is a Rosh Yeshiva in the Rabbi Isaac Elchanan Theological Seminary at Yeshiva University, where he has been teaching Talmud, Halakhah, and Jewish Thought for almost two decades.

Project S.A.R.A.H 11th Annual Breakfast, Sunday April 30th 2017, 9:30-11:30am, at Cong. Keter Torah. Honorees: Guest of Honor - Dr. David Pelcovitz; Rabbinical Support Award - Rabbi Yaakov Neuburger; Volunteer Recognition Award - Peggy Danishefsky. Keynote Speaker: Dr. David Pelcovitz. The event is free, walk-ins are welcomed. Babysitting is available (please let us know in advance) and free valet parking will be provided. For reservations: www.ProjectSARAH.org

Bikur Cholim Bergen County (BCBC) is proud to announce its inaugural annual "Shabbat Bikur Cholim", May 5-6 Shabbat Parshat Kedoshim, Shabbat of unity during Sefira. The main goal of this event is to create awareness of our many programs and services. There will then be a Melave Malka at the home of Laizer and Dr. Jessica Kornwasser, 393 Edgewood Ave, Teaneck, on that Motzei Shabbat, May 6th, 9:30 pm. We invite the community to partner with us by joining our short program. The evening will feature some words of inspiration from Rabbi Ephraim Simon, a great supporter of BCBC and role model of someone who lives by the motto Kol Yisrael Areivim Zeh Lazeh. You will also have the opportunity to learn more about our programs and services and sign up to volunteer in a way that works with your schedule. Visit our website to see more of what BCBC offers at bikurcholimbergencounty.org. For more information about this event, please email Tsipi Gurell or Meredith Yager at info@bikurcholimbergencounty.org
