Bikur Cholim Bergen County (BCBC) is a volunteer run 501(c)3 organization which provides support, facilities and services to ease the burden of families during trying times. Our goal is to partner with families within the community to relieve some of the stress and effects of illness with confidentiality, care and concern. Some of our services include: medical equipment gemach, rides to and from local medical appointments, meals for families facing medical crises, and taxi service with Shabbat arrangement. In addition, we provide weekday as well as Shabbat sleeping accommodations at and near Hackensack University Medical Center. We can be reached at 201-579-3066 or visit our website at bikurcholimbergencounty.org for a full list of our services.

Making-It-Home, part of the Bergen Volunteer Center, picks up gently-used furniture throughout Bergen County & delivers it to low-income families, & people with disabilities who are moving from emergency shelter to new but unfurnished apartments in the County. If you have items to donate, please contact us All donations are tax-deductible. Christine Schwake-201-289-8444 or email at schwake@bergenvolunteers.org

Project Ezra's Annual Dinner Saturday evening, December 9th at 8:00 pm Congregation Ahavath Torah. For reservations go to: dinner@ezrah.org.

On Sunday, December 10, at 7:30 p.m., at Congregation Beth Aaron, Dr. Shalom Fisch will discuss "Big Bird, Batman, and Bnai Torah: Using TV and Comic Books to Educate and Inspire Children." Decades of research show that, just as negative media can influence kids negatively, positive educational media can make a significant contribution to children's learning, behavior, and growth. Join developmental psychologist Dr. Fisch as he draws on 30 years of experience creating educational TV shows and comic books to discuss children's learning from media, the super-midot of super-heroes, and things parents can do to turn media into an educational tool for their children.

Join Bergen County officials at our Annual Menorah Lighting at One Bergen County Plaza on December 13th at 12:30pm
