CBY Leadership Formalizing Initiative To Serve Retirees and Seniors

Perhaps you're contemplating retirement and are apprehensive about how you'll stay busy and challenged. Maybe you're already retired and want to "get out more" and increase your circle of friends. Based on the community's initial response to the newly-formed Teaneck Orthodox Retiree Association (TORA), you're not alone.

If all goes as planned, TORA will soon be an integral part of Bnai Yeshurun. Several weeks ago, our Executive Committee unanimously approved a proposal to fully integrate TORA into the shul's committee structure. The Board of Directors is expected to endorse that proposal at its November meeting. As is the case with our Beis Medrash Program Committee, TORA will service the needs of the larger community but will formally operate through our flagship shul.

TORA was started just over a year ago when former CBY president Michael Karlin used the TeaneckShuls Website to explore interest in an organization focused on the social and educational needs of our community's retirees. The interest was substantial. There are now over 200 people who have requested to be put on TORA's mailing list. This past year, TORA has held over a half dozen "lunch and learn" events, each of which has drawn between 30 and 70 attendees. Speakers have included local rabbanim, a couple of rebbeztzins, and an expert on legal issues of interest to retirees. The group has hiked on the Palisades and the Tourne and visited the Chihuly art exhibit at the Bronx Botanical Garden.

The newly-formed Bnai Yeshurun committee will be co-chaired by Karlin and Bob Wurzbarger (see photo). They are planning their fall events, lining up interesting "lunch and learn" speakers and exploring a visit to a unique art exhibit at the Jewish Museum. TORA is fully self-funded and has not requested financial support from the shul's budget.

Both Karlin and Wurzbarger are very conservative in their predictions for TORA but both see the possibility for the organization to take on chessed projects and also serve as a kiruv opportunity to attract community residents who are not yet associated with an Orthodox shul.

Anyone seeking more information or wanting to assume a leadership role in this new Bnai Yeshurun initiative are urged to contact Mike Karlin (MKARLIN@aol.com) or Bob Wurzbarger (rjw1300@msn.com).

Youth Fundraiser 5779

We are excited to announce a Youth fundraising campaign to help us renovate our youth wing and further enhance our amazing youth program. Sponsorship categories range from $36 to $10,000 and we hope that all members will participate at a level comfortable for them. To participate please visit www.bnaiyeshurun.org/youth or contact the shul office.

Thanks to our great Simchat Torah Candy Bag packers!

Many of our regular shiurim are resuming, now that the Yamim Tovim have passed. Please stay tuned to the bulletin (see the Beis Medrash Program chart below) and shul emails for all relevant information. We look forward to a new season of growth and Torah learning.
