Seeking 100% Participation For Men's Club Annual IDF Kiddush

100% participation. Simple. That's this year's goal. Many thoughtful observers believe that we have become too dogmatic and polarized, that our opinions have been tribalized, that our speech and writing are unnecessarily divisive. It is, therefore, particularly satisfying when we come upon an issue or opportunity when our minds and hearts can unite us all in common cause. On next Shabbat, פרשת אמור, May 18th, we will hold our Annual Men's Club IDF (Incredibly Delicious Food) Kiddush fundraiser and try to surpass last year's record-breaking total of $57,000. More important, we want to be united at 100% participation.

The Kiddush will honor all of our children and grandchildren who have served in צה"ל in the past and who are currently on active duty. We also remember and memorialize our own Ilan Tokayer, a"h, who served valiantly in an IDF combat unit from 2005-2006. Men's Club President Jon Bendavid recalls that it was Aaron Liberman who first suggested a kiddush to support the IDF and, over the years, the idea and practice has spread to many other congregations. Funds collected this year will be allocated to four outstanding organizations, each focused on a different aspect of supporting the men and women, the boys and girls of the IDF.

Yashar LaChayal (literally, "Straight to the Soldier") brings to IDF soldiers what they need, when they need it. Constantly on the lookout for the best and most effective ways to provide humanitarian support and comfort to our soldiers, Yashar LaChayal thereby reminds them that they have a huge wall of international Jewish support behind them. Bishvil Hamachar ("Path to Tomorrow") helps Israeli combat veterans overcome their "invisible scars," acquired in stressful, sometimes traumatic situations. Through therapeutic treatment, including group journeys in nature, soldiers can go on to live healthy, productive lives, and contribute to and strengthen Israeli society. Friends of the IDF is a non-political, non-military organization,

CBY Celebrates with Rabbi Zahtz Upon his Siyum HaShas

The New Main was filled to near capacity last Shabbat morning as mispalilim from all of our minyanim came together to celebrate with the Zahtz family on the occasion of Rabbi Zahtz's סיום הש"ס.

Speaking after davening, Rabbi Zahtz began by thanking the congregation for the recent extension of his contract in an expanded role. He enthusiastically offered to work with CBY's lay leadership as we transition to a new Mara D'Atra.

Giving special thanks to his parents and his in-laws for their support, to his chavrutas, to the CBY Daf Yomi group, and to Yeshiva University (emphasizing its inordinate contribution to modern Orthodoxy), he dedicated the siyum to his zeide, Rabbi Shmuel Shmidman zt"l. Rabbi Zahtz singled out his wife, Michal, for enabling both the sacrifices he has made to spend time learning as well as any rewards he has accrued. To underscore the extent of their partnership in this accomplishment, he invoked the famous quote of Rabbi Akiva who reminded his students, שלי ושלכם - שלה הוא.

He also mentioned three batei midrash that have played such a key role in his life: the Beis Medrash at YU (for the past twenty years), the one in Yeshivat Kerem B'Yavneh, and our own CBY Beis Medrash.

Rabbi Zahtz received a large expected laugh from the audience when he said, "OK. I know what you're all asking yourselves, "He finished Shas, but how much does he really remember?" " Rabbi Zahtz went on to explain that what one remembers or forgets, while clearly important, is less important than the effort and the מסירת נפש involved. He proceeded to give numerous moving examples that the process and effort of Talmud Torah are more significant than the specific facts that you may or may not remember over time.

Rabbi Zahtz concluded with the last teachings of Masechet Rosh HaShana and invited the entire congregation to join his family in a Men's Club Kiddush in our Social Hall. The celebratory environment was evident as the Kiddush shortly erupted into spontaneous dancing and song.

The excitement has generated many requests to initiate a new Gemara shiur in Shul. Rabbi Zahtz will begin giving that shiur this coming Thursday night at 8:15 pm. Please join!

that works closely with the IDF to provide for the well-being of its soldiers, addressing their educational financial, and emotional needs. Last year alone, FIDF raised over $127 million and touched the lives of over 88,000 soldiers, veterans, and their loved ones.

Lone Soldier Center in Memory of Michael Levin was founded in 2009 by a group of former lone soldiers aware of and concerned with the needs and struggles of about 7,000 lone soldiers serving in the IDF. The Lone Soldier Center is the first and only organization solely dedicated to meeting all of the physical and social needs of lone soldiers.

Sponsorships for this year's Kiddush are as follows: Platinum Sponsor- $1,000; Diamond Sponsor- $500; Gold Sponsor- $360; Sponsor- $180. Please respond generously. But more important: respond. Realistically, we won't get to 100%. Can we get to 95%? 96%? Please support our soldiers and contribute at whatever level you're comfortable. $18? $10? Help the Bnai Yeshurun family unite as one in stating clearly and loudly that we appreciate our soldiers' sacrifice and take pride in their courage and their humanity, that we all stand with our brave men and women, with our boys and girls on the battlefield, בכל מקום שהם.
