Bnot To Host Gala Chagiga To Enhance Simchat Purim

Throughout the centuries and across the world, Jews have marked the anniversary of the events of Purim in novel and sometimes lavish fashion. From the sometimes controversial Purim-Spiels of medieval Europe to the colorful carnivals in modern day Israel, Jews have come together to celebrate our surviving and flourishing in the face of (seemingly) overwhelming odds.

"The Hebrew Purim Ball at the Academy of Music" NYC, circa 1865

Not to be outdone by our ancestors, Bnot will host a gala Chagiga, immediately following the reading of the megilla on Wednesday evening. You are cordially invited (for only $30/family). Included are a fleishig meal (with pareve salads, for those so inclined) and many ways to be entertained.

There will be a DJ and "motivators" to encourage participation in dancing and other activities. Various game booths will add to the carnival atmosphere. And, of course, there will be the costumes, the best of which will be recognized with awards in several categories: best boy, best girl, best couple and best family. Sponsorships for this special event are still available: Shushan- $250, Esther- $180, Mordechai- $100. Sincere thanks to those who have already come forward to sponsor at www.bnaiveshurun.org/bnot.

This year, Bnot assumed full accountability for our annual Mishloach Manot fund-raising project. For the first time, members placed orders using a module of ShulCloud, the software package that we use for all shul administrative and clerical functions. By using ShulCloud, we avoided paying fees for a third-party software package and we accelerated payment into our own financial system.

We follow the customs of those who came before us and recognize that Mishloach Manot packages, with which we do not fulfill our obligation to give Mishloach Manot, nevertheless require a "theme." This year the eclectic package will contain wine, salami, interesting spreads, etc. and has been themed "Picnic." Please do not forget to collect your Picnic on Wednesday night. Volunteers are still being sought to assist in filling the Mishloach Manot packages, which will take place Tuesday evening. Your assistance will be very much appreciated.
