BNOT cordially invites the entire congregation to this year's block party which will take place in front of the shul on Sunday, September 22 from 4:00 – 7:00 pm. This is an opportunity to get together with old friends and create new relationships. But most of all, it is a chance to celebrate the incredible community in which we live.

Our creative Youth Directors, Rivka and Yehoshua Szafranski, have organized a wide range of activities for children including making candy apples and learning how to blow a שופר. There will be a large inflatable slide and play spaces, a balloon maker, a face painter, a Fun Bus, and a video truck. In honor of ראש השנה the children will be dancing and coronating the King.

A DJ will help keep things lively and will inspire everyone to dance. And let's not forget the food! Food trucks from Moishie's Falafel and Chickies will be dishing out delectable treats available for purchase. Last, but certainly not least, there will be a raffle with lots of great prizes. Raffle tickets are on sale online and at the event.

Special thanks go to the tireless efforts of the committee who is coordinating this event including Chaya Schwartz, Sari Sheinfeld, Aviva Vogel, Sara Grinfeld, Susan Heideman, and Sora Grunstein. Thanks also to the Youth Educators for their invaluable assistance at this event.

Come one, come all! The cost is $10 per person, with a $36 per family maximum. Sign up online at bnaiveshurun.org/bnot or just show up on Sunday!

LOST & FOUND:

- * There are machzorim, sefarim, watches, keys and other miscellaneous items that have been lost and are waiting to be claimed in the shul office.
- * A pair of airpods was found near the shul on a Friday morning. Please call the shul office and share distinguishing features to ensure that they are returned to their owner.
- * A tallit was switched in the recent past, on a shabbat in the New Main. Please contact the shul.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- As we approach the Yamim Noraim, there is a heightened sense of security across the area. After discussion with our security advisers the Shul is implementing the following protocols for the upcoming Holidays. All aides, nurses, assistants, and babysitters who will be accompanying members into shul are required to have Shul-issued ID badges at all times while on Shul premises. Please email the shul office at office@bnaiveshurun.org with the individual's name and your name. These badges will be available for pick up from the Shul office during regular business hours.
- If you, or anyone you know, is homebound and in need of having someone come to the home on Rosh Hashana to hear shofar please contact Rabbi Pruzansky this week.
- We will be cleaning out the coat rooms before the Yamim Noraim. Please make sure to clear out any of your personal items from the coat rooms.
- In order to prepare for Rosh Hashana babysitting please note that the CBY Parking Lot will be closed beginning on Wednesday night, September 25th after the 11:00 pm maariv through Thursday, September 26th. Please make alternate arrangements for arriving to CBY and parking on Thursday. As always, please pay attention to all township regulations when parking, and be mindful and considerate of our neighbors' driveways. We also ask that once the parking lot is open that you please not park inside the tents.

The 5780 Kol Nidrei Appeal is underway. Please give generously to support CBY. Donations may be made online at www.bnaiveshurun.org/kolnidrei5780.
