Bnai Yeshurun Comedy Night Sunday, February 17th

A stand-up comedy show and dinner for only $25/person? Sounds like a mistake! It is. It's only $18/person and the comedian is reputed to be really funny! Bnot's Comedy Night is just a week away and reservations are strongly suggested.

Bnot President Chaya Schwartz is promising a "very enjoyable evening" for those attending the event on Sunday, February 17th, in our social hall. The buffet dinner will begin promptly at 7:30, followed by comedian Eli Lebowicz at eight o'clock.

A standup comedian originally from Chicago, Lebowicz now lives in New York City. He started performing standup comedy while attending Yeshiva University. There, he won the school's annual standup comedy contest in 2009 and was the Co-Creator and Head Writer for The Quipster, Yeshiva University's first satire publication.

Since then, Eli has been performing at comedy clubs in New York City, college campuses along the East Coast, synagogue dinners, Passover programs, and Jewish events where there's food. Eli understands the challenges he will face performing at Bnai Yeshurun. First, he will be competing with a Rabbi who takes every opportunity to entertain our membership. Second, Eli recognizes that most members of his audience will be thinking, "How can you expect me to laugh about your stupid observations when I'm paying tens of thousands of dollars in yeshiva tuition?"

"My material can get really deep into Jewish humor," notes Lebowicz. "It's not deep as in profound, but insider knowledge. While other comedians discuss airplane travel and the differences between Los Angeles and New York, I delve into very specific waters, wondering about potentially awkward moments in Tanach (like when an angel changes Jacob's name to Israel, do you think Jacob said, "Okay, but I'm still gonna have to go by Jacob at the bank and doctor's office"?).

Thanks to Chaya Schwartz and her team of Sara Grinfeld, Sora Grunstein, Miriam Kopel, Sari Sheinfeld and Aviva Vogel for planning and managing this event.

If you plan to attend, please register at BnaiYeshurun.org/BNOT until February 14th. After that and at the door, tickets will be $25/person. Sponsorships are available: $180 includes two tickets and 2nd tier seating. $360 includes four tickets and 1st tier VIP seating. Bnot has already begun plans for the annual Purim Chagiga, Mishloach Manot program, and the Pesach Boutique. If you would like to help prepare for these always popular events, please contact Chaya or any of the Bnot team members listed above.

CBY Hosts Aish HaTorah You're Invited to Chizuk Weekend

This Shabbat & Sunday, Bnai Yeshurun will be hosting an Aish HaTorah Chizuk Weekend. Featuring dynamic rabbis on staff at the international kiruv organization, the program includes words of Torah & inspiration at a Friday night lecture, at the Shabbat morning 8:30 (Ashkenaz & Sefard), 9:00 & 9:15 minyanim, at 4:00 pm & following mincha. Please see the schedule details in the adjacent column.

On Sunday morning, the renowned Aish Discovery Seminar will be offered, free of charge, from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm in our Social Hall. It is expected to attract attendees from throughout Bergen County. Keynote speakers on Shabbat & Sunday include Aish rabbis Moshe Zeidman, Nachman Elsan & Miles Kerr-Jarret, as well as Rabbi Steven Burg, director general of Aish.

The event is being organized by Rivka Szafranski, who recently joined the Aish family as a campaign executive. She notes that over 40 young Aish alumni from around the country will be joining the Aish rabbis over Shabbat & sharing their personal Aish experiences & how they have impacted their Jewish lives. Founded in 1974 by the young Rabbi Noach Weinberg & "four backpackers," Aish HaTorah currently includes 35 branches worldwide, sponsors hundreds of missions to Israel & offers vast online learning opportunities. Graduates of Aish HaTorah's many seminars & diversified programs targeting high school youth through professional adults, continue to live more meaningful Jewish lives & inspire others. Rabbis in over 100 communities worldwide are graduates of an Aish program.

The special Chizuk Weekend was made possible through the efforts of Rabbi Pruzansky & Jack Forgash. For more information, please contact Rivka Szafranski at RSzafranski@aish.edu or 646-438-2831.
