

CONTRACT FOR SALE OF CHAMETZ TO THE RABBI

KNOW YE that I, the undersigned, transfer to Rabbi Steven Pruzansky all chametz (including without limitation chametz, doubtful chametz, and all kinds of chametz mixtures) possessed by me, whether knowingly or unknowingly, whether it actually belongs to me or for which I am responsible, as defined by the Torah and Rabbinic Law. Rabbi Steven Pruzansky has the full rights of possession and ownership over this chametz as of 6:00 P.M. (DST) on 13 Nisan 5779, corresponding to Thursday, April 18, 2019. I have transferred all my chametz and chametz mixtures in exchange for $1.00 and other good consideration which I have received from Rabbi Pruzansky.

I am transferring my chametz to Rabbi Pruzansky in contemplation of my forthcoming journey to Israel where I will spend the holiday of Pesach. I then will have fulfilled the mitzva of removing all chametz from my possession on the Yom Tov of Pesach, before the start of Pesach in Israel. I understand that my chametz will be under the ownership of Rabbi Pruzansky, and he then has the right to dispose of it as he would any chametz in his possession, in accordance with the laws of the Torah.

After Pesach, I will accept the return of my chametz from Rabbi Pruzansky as a gift, if he so desires to relinquish his ownership, and have ownership revert to me.

The above given power is in conformity with all Torah and Rabbinical regulations and laws, and also in accordance with the laws of the States of New Jersey and New York and of the United States.

The following is an itemized list of chametz, its location, and approximate value, that I am hereby transferring to the Rabbi.
