

Joshua Levine
Baal Koreh

Since he became a bar mitzvah Joshua Levine has frequently served as chazan and Torah reader in numerous communities as well as at the weddings of friends and family.

Josh was born and raised in Worcester, MA. After attending high school in Providence, RI he went on to learn in the Yeshivas of Tzfat, Israel and the Rabbinical College of America in Morristown, and was subsequently a shliach/mentor to students in Yeshivas Ohr Elchonon Chabad in Los Angeles, CA. He culminated his studies by receiving smicha from Heichal Menachem in Melbourne, Australia. Following Yeshiva he received a bachelor's degree in mathematics from Touro College and currently works in the retirement and finance industry. He lives in Teaneck with his wife Claudia and two children Nash and Audrey.

Josh, also, is a classical pianist/composer and a piano teacher in Teaneck and Bergenfield.
