

Yitzchok (“RebYitz”) Cohen

Under the guidance of his father as well as other teachers of Nusach, Reb Yitz has been leading prayers at Shabbat and holiday services since his bar mitzvah. Locally, he led High Holiday services at Care One in Teaneck for eight years. Reb Yitz served as the acting Spiritual Leader of the Jewish Center of Teaneck for two years prior to the arrival of Rabbi Fridman, and currently serves as the JCT's Ritual Director.

Yitzchok was raised in Staten Island, N.Y. After high school he studied in Jerusalem for a year at Yeshiva Reishit Yerushalayim and continued to study for three more years at Yeshivas Ohr HaChaim in Queens. He holds a master's degree in psychology from Touro College and University. Currently, he teaches Torah at the Gottesman RTW Academy in Randolph, N.J.

He lives in in Teaneck with his wife and three daughters.