THE PRESIDENT'S Perspective

Who is surviving the heat? I'm trying to, but in all honesty, this is hard to handle. It's a good thing that the air conditioning is strong (almost too strong) at Anshai Torah! We have had a busy summer getting things ready for the upcoming High Holy Days and the upcoming school year. We were fortunate enough to have incredible attendance at our Shabbat evening and morning services as well!

You may notice a new face in the building. Gloria Stayman is a familiar face to many of us, and her kind disposition and willingness to help are exactly why we are thrilled to have her part time at Anshai! Please stop by and say hello!

We have some really exciting programs and initiatives coming up. As always, our auxiliaries are busy planning some exciting events for us to enjoy. We are trying to "find something for everyone", and you should definitely look at the weekly emails and our website for these programs. For the first time in a long time, we have a new Grown Up & Me startup for members with babies ages 6 months - 36 months (about 3 years). From our littlest members to our most seasoned ones, we don't want to leave anyone out. Please let us know if there is something you'd like to see or do, and we will see if we can make it happen for you.

We've offered a movie showing for the first time ever, going August 29 to see Golda. The idea of our community experiencing this important film together is a dream come true for us! Between this, a wine & cheese event, a pickleball tournament and so much more, RSVP now to join us and see old friends while making new ones!

Please keep checking your email and the website for all programming and holiday information.

Everything that the office staff and lay leadership do is for every one of us, so mark your calendars!

Stay cool!

Beth

WELCOME GLORIA STAYMAN

Bruchim Habayim to Gloria Stayman who joins the Anshai Torah family this fall as our Religious School administrator. Certain to be a smiling face when our students and parents come to shul, Gloria has been a longtime fan of Anshai and all it encompasses.

"I'm so excited to be here and to be getting to know the Anshai families, to work with Rabbi Weinberg and Rabbi Kushnick both of whom I so admire, with Chris and all of the teachers - some of whom I've known for years," she said.

"I want to welcome the children and be here for them, so they want to be here," she continued. "We were Anshai members many years ago and, while we have deep connections to other shuls in town, I love this shul and it really makes a person feel at home."

Gloria is a native of Miami, Florida who is married to Phil Stayman and the mother of Richard and Aaron and his wife Rachel.

- Deb Silverthorn

"This job wasn't something I sought out but when I was approached, I was honored and just couldn't stop smiling during the interview process," said Gloria.

"Anshai is a very menschlich place with people who care deeply. This is the job I've always wanted, and my heart feels full."

Our B'NAI mitzvot & Other Simchas!

Adam Alkalay was called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah on Shabbat morning, August 5th, 2023. Adam is the son of Avishai and Michele Alkalay and the younger brother of Natalie and Ella. He is the grandson of Marvin and Esther Friedman of Dallas, and Arie and Liora Alkalay of Los Angeles.

Adam will be going into the 8th grade, as an honors student at the Dealey Montessori Magnet Academy. Outside of school, Adam plays competitive soccer and is on three teams, FC Dallas club, ODP (Olympic Development Program), and a recreational team with his friends from Levine Academy's pre-school. He enjoys all sports, including, basketball, tennis and swimming.

For Adam's Mitzvah project, he has collected and donated over 500 items of toys, clothes and shoes to Goodwill, the Salvation Army and to Jewish Family Services.

We would like to extend our thanks and gratitude to all of Adam's teachers at Anshai Torah including his Bar Mitzvah tutor, Warren Rubin, who has gone above and beyond to help prepare Adam for his Bar Mitzvah. Additionally, we would like to thank Rabbi Weinberg and Rabbi Kushnick for their guidance, support, leadership, and influence on Adam's Judaism.

We look forward to sharing this simcha with family and friends as well as the Anshai Torah community.

Benjamin Isaac Shmukler, alongside his father, Boris Shmukler, will be called jointly to the Torah on Saturday, August 12, 2023 for their shared B'Nai Mitzvah.

Benjamin is the son of Boris and Rebecca Shmukler. He is the beloved grandson of Barry Kling, Barbara Walts, and Arik and Bella Shmukler, proud parents of Boris.

Benjamin is headed into 10th grade at Jasper High School. The pandemic foiled his original Bar Mitzvah plans, making his commitment to his Bar Mitzvah as a busy high-schooler that much sweeter! Benjamin excels academically, plays tennis competitively, and is also an award-winning choir singer. He loves traveling, hanging out with friends, and is a budding chef as well. Benjamin also devotes time to tutoring younger students and has been exploring activism on several important social and cultural issues. His mark on our world is going to be huge and we couldn't be more proud.

Boris grew up in the former Soviet Union, which prevented him from fully expressing his Judaism and from the opportunity to have a Bar Mitzvah. The decision to share this occasion with Benjamin was not taken lightly, as Boris had never studied Hebrew and is very busy himself as a Product Manager, active tennis dad of two, and devoted son, nephew, friend, and husband. We know this shared experience will create wonderful meaning and memories for both father and son!

Our family would like to thank Warren Rubin for his patience, flexibility, creativity, motivation, and dedication to preparing Benjamin and Boris for this simcha. We likewise thank Rabbi Weinberg and Rabbi Kushnik for their guidance and support, especially when presented with challenging interpretations from an active, willful, at times rebellious teenage Jewish mind! We are very excited to share this momentous occasion with family, friends, and our congregation.

Sawyer Austin Stern & Bailey Joy Stern will be called to the Torah as a B’Nai Mitzvah on Shabbat morning Saturday, August 26, 2023. Sawyer & Bailey are the children of Jana & Barrett Stern. They are the grandchildren of Steven & Jane Issman of Long Branch New Jersey, Stephen & Harrian Stern of Dallas, Texas, and Cedine Issman of Fort Lee, New Jersey.

Sawyer & Bailey are 8th graders at Robinson Middle School in Plano. Sawyer takes honors classes, plays the saxophone, and runs track & cross country, as well as plays lacrosse for Plano West Lacrosse. Bailey takes honors classes, runs track & cross country, and plays for NTX ECRL FC Dallas Soccer Club. They both spend their summers in Michigan at Tamarack Camps, their second home & Greatest Place on Earth!

For their Mitzvah project, Bailey and Sawyer volunteered their time to feed the homeless at the Salvation Army, and during Christmas they helped feed women and children who were in need of shelter and food. They also experienced giving each child gifts on Christmas Day so they could celebrate with their family.

They both have been so very lucky to have started in the Anshai Torah Preschool in the Mommy and Me class at 12 months old and continue today through our Hebrew High program. We want to thank all their preschool and religious school teachers and staff who have helped them along the way. A big thank you to Rabbi Weinberg and Rabbi Kushnick for always supporting and teaching them throughout their Jewish education. We are lucky to have both of you guiding them. Sawyer and Bailey are so blessed to have had their “Zayde” tutor them and get them fully prepared for their B’nai Mitzvah Day. This was such a special experience that will be cherished by all three forever.

We are so proud of Bailey and Sawyer for all their hard work and dedication in preparing for today. We are so excited to celebrate this milestone event in their lives with our second family, Anshai Torah! We want to thank all of our friends and family who have come from far and near to celebrate this upcoming simcha with Bailey and Sawyer.

Cover Story

“We’re very excited to introduce these new programs for anyone in the Jewish community to participate in. Our doors are wide open.” Registration is open now for each of the offerings which begin in September and run through mid-December.

CAT KIDS CLUB

by Deb Silverthorn

It’s Torah time, crafts, cooking, socializing and fun time, it’s “getting to know you” for parents and lil’ ones from throughout Dallas’ greater Jewish community as Congregation Anshai Torah introduces its Kids Club with programming for children six-months-old through second grade.

"Everyone who walks into Anshai becomes a part of our community and," said Rachel Blum, this year celebrating 10 years as CAT's director of education, "even at the youngest of ages - a part of the goodness we are."

"We're very excited to introduce these new programs for anyone in the Jewish community to participate in. Our doors are wide open, said Blum, who will lead the programs along with longtime and beloved CAT Preschool teachers Talia Maor and Rachel Steinberg. "We'll sing and dance, we'll create and celebrate and have our shul be home base, and a place for the next generation to want to be, is all we can give."

For children six months to three-years-old are invited to GrownUp & Me programs on Wednesday mornings from 10:45 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and on Fridays from 9:30 to 11 a.m. For those who are pre-K through second grade, programming is held from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m.

The GrownUp & Me Programs include engaging projects and playtime, storytime, science, art and physical activities. On Wednesdays, lunch is served and on Fridays there are Shabbat snacks and songs.

"It's about engaging our children and our parents, with one another, about building friendships that we imagine will last for years," said Blum.

Children from three-years-old through second grade are invited to register for CAT's Matzah Ball Family Shabbat and holiday programs with services, stories and songs, friendship-building and more. There will be a sukkah decorating party and a Pancakes in the Sukkah breakfast as well as themed Matzah Ball Family evenings with a menorah lighting, blessing of the animals and "fill in the ark" Shabbat services and dinner for the whole family.

The Wednesday afternoon programs, September 13, October 18, November 15 and December 13 includes Judaic crafts, holiday programming, cooking, an introduction to Hebrew language and dinner as well as inclusion for participants' immediate family members in holiday programs and Matzah Ball Family Shabbat services and dinners.

"We want to help our children and families build their Jewish identities and our children, and their grown-ups, are sure to be touched and, regardless of affiliation, to feel a part of the Anshai Family," said Blum.

See What Our AUXILIARY GROUPS Are Up To...

On Sunday, May 21st we held a Breakfast & More for HAZAK members at Diane Yaris' clubhouse. Hazak had a very successful year because of its great members and a very hard-working BOD committed to its success. This was an opportunity to thank our outgoing board members, welcome our new board members, have a good breakfast, and watch a light-hearted movie, Tango Shalom. There were over 40 members in attendance. Phil Balis presented outgoing president, David Intebi with an inscribed gift - which David said was unexpected and very thoughtful and will be cherished!

As Hazak members look forward to the Fall and some cooler weather, we are preparing for several great events:

On Sunday, August 27 from 4-6pm we will have a Welcome Back Wine and Cheese social where there will be plenty of time to visit with each other and to make new friends. We will be entertained by Andy Corridori. He has played in Las Vegas, on cruise ships, in nightclubs & restaurants, and for senior communities - more than 2000 shows. His musical repertoire includes Standards, Motown, Rock, Country, Blues, Pop, Disco, Beatles, Blues Bros, Billy Joel, and more. Andy's talents range from singer, comic impersonator, and master of ceremonies. This event is free for Hazakers. Bring a non-Hazak friend at $20 per person or, if eligible, they can join Hazak for $20/year and come free!

Sunday, September 10 is the Pickleball Tournament. This event promises to be fun for everyone to engage in this fast-growing sport. There will be opportunities for all levels - from learner to expert! There will be prizes too. Harvey and Cherry Swento are chairing the group and a committee comprised of shul members representing all age groups has been formed. The committee has secured a venue - Chicken N Pickle to host the event. We hope that this can become an ongoing event and a great fun(d) raiser. Profits from this event will be shared with Religious School & Pre-School, and Hazak!

Join Hazak to be part of these and other programs. We're not alte kackers, we're about having fun and learning!
