

Simcha Sharing Policy

Approved by the Board 2 April 2019

Caulfield Hebrew Congregation enjoys joining with families to celebrate their smachot – be they a Bar or Bat Mitzvah, Aufruf, baby naming it is often the case that more than one simcha is celebrated at the Shule on a day.

As a result of a number of competing issues that create uncertainty and quite often angst for affected parties, the Board after a number of discussions resolved to adopt as a rule a “One Simcha Policy”.

The exception to this rule is the case of a shared family barmitzvah such as for twin brothers. A Yahrtzeit or Baby naming may be allocated one Aliyah when there is another Simcha during the service.

Please note our Aliya policy for the number of call-ups available for your Simcha is currently under review.

Should you wish to discuss this please feel free to contact the Shule office.
