Welcome to Mookie's New York Deli! Growing up in the suburbs of New York City, I frequently ate at delis near my neighborhood and in Manhattan. When I left the area I missed the delicious tastes of my youth! I missed the quality and variety that traditional Jewish Delicatessens offered. After settling down in North Carolina, my wife and I decided to open Mookie's NY Deli in Cary. My hope is that our food takes you back and reminds you of home, and brings delicious and comforting memories of the food of your childhood. Growing up Jewish in NY, my family celebrated the holy days and holidays with all the customary culinary treats and traditions. I am delighted to bring those tastes and traditions to Judea Reform Congregation for a traditional kosher-style passover meal. I warmly invite you to Mookie's to experience the best deli south of Houston Street. - Ron Didner, Executive Chef and Owner of Mookie's
