

Judea Reform Congregation, a Reform synagogue in Durham, NC, is hiring teachers for the coming Religious School year, 5780!

YOU bring: passion for students and the subjects, willingness to collaborate, enthusiasm, and patience and ability to connect with others and try new things,

WE bring: partnership, support, encouragement, professional growth, and more.

TOGETHER we are able to make great Jewish learning for an incredible community of learners!

The program takes place on Sundays reflecting the public school calendars:

monthly, Geshet, 0-3 years and an adult, 10am-11am weekly, PreK-2nd graders, 9:30am-11:30am (Judaics, limited Hebrew)

weekly, 3rd – 6th graders, 9:30am-12:30am (Judaics or Hebrew)

We are hiring educators for each of our programs. For more information, to apply, or to ask questions, please connect with our Director of Congregational Learning, Rena Fraade – rfraade@judeareform.org – no phone calls please.
