FROM THE STUDY OF RABBI PETER BERG:

BECOME WHO YOU ARE MEANT TO BE

One of the great teachers of our Jewish tradition is Rabbi Zusya (born 1718 in Hanipol, died 1800). While the rabbi was on his deathbed, he famously cried at the thought of his imminent demise. Surprised by their Rabbi’s reaction, his students who were gathered around tried to calm him, saying that such a righteous man need not be afraid, for the Rabbi would be guaranteed to go straight to Heaven and has no reason to fear the outcome of his Heavenly judgment.

Rabbi Zusya turned to them and explained that he did not fear that when he arrived at the Heavenly Court to account for his actions they would say to him ‘why weren’t you a Moses or why weren’t you a Rabbi Akiva?’ “I am worried,” he said “that they will say to me, why weren’t you a Rabbi Zusya?”

Everyone has individual qualities and strengths that were given to us at birth. There are the unique tools that allow us to become great. By using these talents properly, in the way they were given to us to be used, we are showing appreciation for having received them – and this our way of serving God. Rabbi Zusya was an extraordinary rabbi who was fully aware of is righteous deeds, but he nevertheless feared that he did not live up to the great potential that God had given him, and for that reason he began to cry, because he knew that even someone great has the potential to be greater. The Talmud teaches: The greater a person is, the greater the challenges she faces – meaning that the greater a person is, the more opportunity she has for becoming even greater (Succah 52a).

Can we really say that we are fulfilling our potential in life? Are we becoming the person that God wants us to be? Are we becoming the person that we are able to be? As we conclude Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur and look forward to Sukkot and Simchat Torah – these are the questions that we must answer. When we are honest with ourselves, we will be able to work out what we are missing and where we need to head to in order to become who we were born to be.

Torah Study: A Source of Inspiration and Spiritual Nourishment

Saturday Mornings • 9:00-10:15 AM

The Torah is a body of teachings that instructs us how to live our lives. Every Saturday morning from 9:00 AM to 10:15 AM a diverse group of approximately 30 people meet at The Temple to study the weekly Torah portion. The Temple rabbis rotate in leading the Torah study. There are more discussions by the participants than instructions by the rabbis. Each week I am inspired by Torah and the thoughtful comments of the rabbis and my classmates. I like to write some of the memorable comments in the margins of my personal Torah. I have a collection of wise comments made by Rabbi Salkin, Rabbi Berlin, Rabbi Reeves, the current rabbis and my classmates.

The Torah study group is small “congregation within the congregation”. We have grown to know and respect each other like a second family.

Please join us any Saturday morning for coffee and experience Torah study.

— Ben Shapiro

First Fridays

Friday, October 2 • 8:00 PM

Join Rabbi David Spinrad and musicians Sammy Rosenbaum, Eli Sperling, and Samara Katz for an evening of soulful spirituality as we come together at 8:30 PM on Friday, October 2nd for an evening of prayer and music. We will also be gathering before services at 8:00 PM on the front lawn of The Temple to enjoy some Sukkah Cafe. First Fridays has become known for fun socializing and for services that feel inclusive for people of all levels of familiarity and comfort with the service and with Judaism and is a time to unwind from the week with conversation, inspiring music and meaningful words of prayer. To RSVP email our Engagement Associate Summer Jacobs: sjacobs@the-temple.org and for questions or more information email Rabbi Spinrad: dspinrad@the-temple.org.

Follow us on Twitter: @FirstFridaysATL.

Library News

We now have a library annex located in the coffee shop. You will find books to peruse while sipping your coffee—books that cover a variety of topics. To check one out, just fill out the card and place it in the basket on the shelf. When you are finished, return the book to the Library/Media Center. Stop in either location to explore books on many different subjects. The Library/Media Center is always open.

Temple Book Club

Tuesday, October 13 • 7:30 PM

In October, we will be reading The Betrayers by David Bezmozgis. These incandescent pages give us one momentous day in the life of Baruch Kotler, a disgraced Israeli politician. This engrossing political novel of morals and dilemma was the winner of the National Jewish Book Award. The book will be facilitated by Gary Hirsch. We look forward to seeing you there.

Sandwich Salon: Women Connecting & Learning

As the summer heat continues, the Sandwich Salon committee is looking ahead to cooler fall breezes and a couple of wonderful programs. Bring your lunch, bring a friend and enjoy conversation with women of all ages. Mark your calendars with the dates below and join us for some exciting discussions this fall and winter. Watch for information about great Sandwich Salon dates in 2016!

ASK THE CLERGY!

Tuesday, October 13, 2015 • 11:45am-1:15pm

This is your opportunity to ask the wonderful Temple clergy team ANYTHING! Want to know when Rabbi Spinrad became interested in the rabbinate—just ask! Did Rabbi Berg go to summer camp—just ask! How does Cantor Hartman keep her voice healthy and strong during the High Holy Days—just ask! Come prepared with your questions—whether they are light hearted or related to more serious issues of the day. This will be a great opportunity to get to know these wonderful, dedicated members of The Temple family.

Support The Temple When You Shop at Kroger

Enroll your Kroger Plus card in the Kroger Community Rewards Program. Enrollment is easy and does not impact your savings. Visit www.kroger.com to sign in to your account and enroll using our NPO number: 75313.

You must go through the online enrollment process. Have your Kroger Plus card handy. Once you have created an account, scroll down to the bottom of the page to the Community Rewards section. Put your information in and the search for the NPO number. The name you will see will be listed as “The Temple: THE HEBREW BENEVOLENT CONGREGATION”.

Every time you shop for groceries and swipe your card, The Temple automatically starts earning a rebate. You must swipe your registered Kroger Plus card or use the phone number that is related to the registered Kroger Plus card when shopping for each purchase to count.

To verify you are enrolled correctly, you will see The Temple’s name on the right side of your information page when applying the NPO number. Enrollment takes up to 7 days to start earning money towards The Temple community rewards.

Caring at The Temple

Our Caring at The Temple program reaches out to fellow congregants during times of hardship or pastoral need, providing homemade chicken soup and challah to members who are bereaved, ill, recently discharged from the hospital, or are celebrating the arrival of a new child. We have delivered more than 500 soups, and nearly every step of the program—from soup preparation, to delivery (within your zip code), to letting us know about fellow congregants in need—is led by members of our congregation.

To be a part of this program and to fulfill the mitzvah of bikkur cholim (visiting the sick) or to let us know who needs soup, please contact Rabbi David Spinrad at dspinrad@the-temple.org or 404-873-1731.
URJ – Repairing the World
At the end of August, Rabbi Berg had the opportunity to speak at a URJ special event for civil rights. The event, Repairing the World: The Struggle for Justice in an Often Unjust World, brought together speakers and activists from across the region to explore Atlanta’s new Center for Civil and Human Rights and hear prominent voices on contemporary civil rights issues. Janice Rothschild Blumberg and Rev. Gerald Durley were two featured speakers alongside Rabbi Peter Berg at the event. Thank you to everyone who came and supported URJ and The Temple! Keep an eye out for more URJ events in the future, including Biennial in November.

Save the Date: Commemorating Leo Frank’s Death
Sunday, November 22 • 4:00 PM • The Temple Sanctuary
Kennesaw State University will present a concert version of the show “Parade”—book by Alfred Uhry, music by Jason Robert Brown. The show presents the story of Leo and Lucille Frank leading up to the lynching in Marietta, and is the final part of a series of presentations commemorating the 100 year anniversary of this event. It is a free event, and is musically directed by our own staff pianist, Judy Cole. Please plan to attend!

Get Ready for Super Sunday!
One Day, One Call, One Community. Jewish Federation of Greater Atlanta’s Super Sunday will take place on Sunday, October 18, 2015 at The Alfred and Adele Davis Academy from 8:30 AM - 7 PM. This annual event is a highlight of the Community Campaign for participants and contributors alike. Super Sunday has moved from December to October to better plan for Federation’s allocations to 60+ affiliates and partners who care for Jews in need and build strong Jewish community in Atlanta and around the world.

As part of the excitement, Federation will offer the Community Incentive program and the Golden Phone Award again this year:
- Community Incentive Program: Every volunteer can choose one organization to represent on Super Sunday. Fifty Percent (50%) of new gifts and net increase amounts up to $1,000 raised by that volunteer will go to the represented organization upon donor payment
- Golden Phone Award: $1,000 will be awarded to the Day School, Synagogue, and non-Day School Affiliate with the most volunteers in attendance throughout the day on Super Sunday

Super Sunday has gone wireless…volunteers bring your cell phone! Visit www.jewishatlanta.org/supersunday for more information and for volunteer sign up. For questions, please call Lisa Lebovitz at 678-222-3721.

Daytime Discussion Group
The Daytime Discussion Group is meeting on Wednesday, October 21, 10:30-11:45, in the Library/Media Center, to be followed by Lunch and Learn. Come make a morning of it! This month marks the continuation of our discussion of the development of Jewish commerce in the south and across the country, and how it brought together Jews of diverse backgrounds and means. If this touches on your family history, come and share, and if not, come listen and learn with us.

Atlanta Pride Weekend
Sunday, October 10 & 11, 2015 • 1:00 PM
The Temple is excited to join with SOJOURN and the Jewish community for our 5th year at Pride. The parade will take place at 1:00 PM on Sunday, October 11th, and all are encouraged to “pray with their feet” and walk with us (the parade is stroller-friendly and family friendly). We are also in need of volunteers to represent The Temple in one or two-hour shifts at the SOJOURN/Jewish Community booth in Piedmont Park on Saturday, October 10th and Sunday, October 11th from 10:00 AM to 7:00 PM. If you are interested in walking and/or volunteering, please contact Rabbi Lydia Medwin at lmedwin@the-temple.org or Amy Sue Mann at amysue1117@comcast.com.

Fred A. Toomer Elementary School Volunteer Readers and Tutors
Make a difference in a child’s academic success in 5776 by volunteering as a tutor to help elementary school students. Our partner school Fred A. Toomer Elementary (FATE) is located at 65 Rogers Street in Atlanta and is currently seeking volunteers to assist students in grades 3-5 with reading, writing, and math during the school hours. Additionally, volunteers and needed and welcomed for an upcoming “Reading is Fundamental” event on October 16th between 12-2pm. To volunteer or for questions contact our FATE liaison Ms. Tishy Vincent at 404-802-3450 ext. 3460 and 336-383-864.

Congratulations Boys Maccabi Basketball Champions!
The Atlanta boys 14-and-under Maccabi basketball team went straight for the gold at the championships in Dallas on August 6th. Sam Bronfman and David Perchik were both on the team. Way to go Sam and David!

SHABBAT GUEST SPEAKERS
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 2: PROFESSOR JONATHAN ADELMAN
Development Corporation for Israel/Israel Bonds will be sponsoring Friday night services at The Temple on October 2nd. Guest speaker will be Professor Jonathan Adelman of Josef Korbel School of International Studies at the University of Denver.

The Israel Bonds organization, established in 1951, has provided over $38 billion in funds worldwide helping strengthen every aspect of Israel’s economy. Israel has repaid principal and interest on Israel Bonds on time and in full. Following back-to-back years (2013-14) in which Israel Bonds exceeded $1.1 billion in US sales alone, we are on track to do it again in 2015 domestic sales.

Significantly, these sales comprise a wide spectrum of investors, including individuals, states and municipalities, financial institutions, endowment funds, universities and more. Despite their diversity, each Israel bond investor shares the commonality of acquiring a strong investment, helping Israel’s economy remain resilient and delivering a resounding “NO” to those who look to undermine Israel’s success with calls for boycotts, divestment and sanctions.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 16: RABBI DON BERLIN
Welcome back to The Temple, Rabbi Don Berlin. Join us at our 6:00 PM service to greet our Interim Senior Rabbi (2008-2009) as Rabbi Berlin delivers the sermon, “Proof and Promise—50 Years of Reform Judaism” at our Friday evening service.
For almost three decades, Ambassador Dennis Ross has been a leading figure in the diplomatic world of Soviet and Middle East policy. During the Reagan administration, he served as director of Near East and South Asian affairs on the National Security Council staff and as deputy director of the Pentagon’s Office of Net Assessment. In the first Bush administration, he served as director of the State Department’s Policy Planning Office, where he played a prominent role in developing U.S. policy toward the former Soviet Union, the unification of Germany and its integration into NATO, arms control negotiations, and the development of the 1991 Gulf War Coalition.

Under President Clinton, he was a special Middle East coordinator. As a point person in America’s ongoing role in the Middle Eastern peace process, Ross was instrumental in assisting Israelis and Palestinians in reaching the 1995 Interim Agreement. He successfully brokered the Hebron Accord in 1997, facilitated the 1994 Israel-Jordan peace treaty, and worked to bring Israel and Syria together. Speaking of Ross, President Clinton said “No one worked harder for peace than Dennis. He gave it everything he had and served our nation very well.”

Now, Ross provides a comprehensive account of America’s complicated history with Israel in his new book, Doomed to Succeed: The U.S.-Israel Relationship from Truman to Obama. Beginning with Israel’s inception and working forward administration by administration, Ross chronicles the tense back-and-forth that has existed between our two countries for nearly three-quarters of a century. In clear, direct prose, Ross describes how often America was forced to view Israel as a chess piece in a larger game with forces like the Soviet Union, pan-Arabism, and post-9/11 anti-terror strategy. Indeed, Ross shows how the study of America’s bond with Israel can serve as an outline of American foreign policy in general from 1948 to present. Written with historical precision and exhaustive detail, Doomed to Succeed is a timely, important, and necessary recounting of one of our most significant alliances.

Ambassador Dennis Ross is the Counselor and Davidson Fellow at the Washington Institute for Near East Policy and a Distinguished Professor in the Practice of Diplomacy at Georgetown. He was the director of policy planning in the State Department for George H. W. Bush, Bill Clinton’s Middle East Peace envoy, and a special assistant to the president under Barack Obama.
