YOU WON’T BELIEVE THIS!

In Atlanta today there are about 100,000 Jews. The number is often disputed—some say there are as few as 80,000 Jews, and others say as many as 130,000. I suspect that we are somewhere right in the middle. That makes us the ninth largest Jewish city in America. We have over thirty thriving synagogues, a strong Jewish Federation, multiple social service agencies serving the Jewish community, and robust Jewish schools. Also living in the Atlanta metro area—somewhere between downtown and Alpharetta—are 250 Holocaust Survivors.

Of course, I knew there were a few hundred survivors living in our midst, as I have had the unique privilege to meet and interview many of them. But, nothing could have prepared me for the statistic I recently learned. Today, at least 130 of the more than 250 Greater Atlanta Holocaust survivors in Atlanta are in severe, critical financial need. More than half receive financial, social, or support services. The average survivor age is 84, and more than 38% of those receiving financial and support services have annual incomes that fall below the Federal Poverty Level. As needs increase each year, so do the funding gaps.

We live in one of the most successful Jewish communities in America, and almost half of the Holocaust survivors who reside here cannot pay their medical bills or put food on the table. Hilda, for example, escaped after the war and is now in deteriorating health. She requires assistance with home care, house cleaning, prescription drug coverage, and transportation. Hilda is given tremendous support from Jewish Family and Career Services through the Claims Conference funding. However, these dollars are insufficient to meet the needs she and the other survivors have in our community.

It is predicted that, $2.5 million—or $500,000 annually—will be needed over the next five years, to cover the cost of these fundamental services and assistance. These survivors, our brothers and sisters, don’t have many years left, and it is incumbent upon us to take care of them.

The price of service needs, support, and financial assistance such as home care, medical needs, medical equipment, prescription drugs, dental care, meals, emergency financial assistance, adult day care, assisted living housing support (with partial scholarships), hospice, and funeral arrangements will outpace available funding.

Your help is needed. We must take care of the final generation of survivors as our responsibility to the Jewish community. If you would like to learn more or make a donation to the Holocaust Survivors Fund, please visit JewishAtlanta.org/holocaustsurvivorsfund.

Together, we can meet the critical requirements of the Holocaust survivors in our community and ensure that those who lived through the atrocities of Nazi Germany complete their final days in comfort and dignity. I, for one, will not stand idly by.

Children who enroll in the Half Day Program may utilize the Boker Tov Club (starting at 8:30AM); children ages 2-5 may attend More Mac (until 3:00PM); and toddlers may stay in the More MINI-Mac program (until 1:30PM).

Our Extended Day Program continues through Camp Minimac so that children may attend from 7:30AM-6:00PM. You may enroll in different programs each week to meet your scheduling needs.

As we have done for the past several years, Camp Minimac will accept recent preschool graduates. Instead of having one more transition before Kindergarten, the children can enjoy the summer with us before heading off to a new school in the fall.

If you register before April 15th for 8 weeks, you get 2 weeks FREE! That means your child will attend all 10 weeks for the price of 8. Additionally, we waive the Camp Minimac Registration fee if you apply by April 15th (it’s our way of giving you a break in preparation for tax day).
Young Professionals Programs

_The Well • Friday, April 1 • 8:00 PM_

We will see you on Friday, April 1, for The Well, our Young Professionals monthly, late Shabbat service. Inspired by the power of the well in the Jewish tradition as a nexus for community and for physical, spiritual, and emotional nourishment, Shabbat services at The Well at The Temple aspire to be the same. Join Rabbi David Spinrad, singer/songwriter Sammy Rosenbaum, and other musicians for an evening of soulful spirituality, fun socializing, and services that feel inclusive for people of all levels of familiarity and comfort with Judaism. To RSVP, email Cherie Winsett (cwinsett@the-temple.org) and for questions or for more information email Rabbi Spinrad: dspinrad@the-temple.org.

Temple Book Club

_Tuesday, April 12 • 7:30pm_

We will be reading _Violins of Hope_ by James A. Grymes and led by Lynne Keating. A stirring testament to the strength of the human spirit and the peer of music, _Violins of Hope_ tells the remarkable stories of violins played by Jewish musicians during the Holocaust, and the Israeli violin maker dedicated to bringing these inspirational instruments back to life. Winner of the 2014 National Jewish Book Award. A great book, I could not put it down!

Library News

At Passover we gather together to tell the story of our exodus from Egypt and how we became a people who accepted the Torah. You can find that story in the many beautiful Haggadahs in the 262.5 area of our library.

Of course, when we Jews get together, we eat. Check out our cookbook section, 641.5, for many delicious recipes. And have a great Seder.

FURNITURE DONATION:

Local Wellspring Treasures boutiques are foundational pieces of anti-domestic minor sex trafficking partner Wellspring Living’s approach. These upscale, resale stores support the Wellspring mission through community awareness, and all of their profits go directly back to their girls’ and women’s programs. They survive solely on donations of furniture, home décor and clothing.

Here is where The Temple can help: The Toco Hills store desperately needs furniture and home décor and are able to pick up your donations. Their location and phone number:

We will share how racism impacts us in our own communities; explore how our understanding of racism has deepened over the two years, and learn new ways to raise this topic within our congregations and act effectively for change. We are bringing our hearts and minds to conversation and action on race in America and we want you to be a part of this discussion. While the material guiding the content of each session will be the same, the conversation on Monday, April 11, is for young professionals only. All others should attend a session on either Sunday, April 17, or Monday, April 18. For more information, email Rabbi Spinrad. To RSVP, email Cherie Winsett: cwinsett@the-temple.org.

Havdalah Ceremony for Yom Ha’Zikaron to Yom Ha’Atzmaut with Rabbi Esteban Gottfried

WEDNESDAY, MAY 11
7 PM • COVENANT CHAPEL

One of the most challenging moments in the Jewish-Israeli calendar year is the moment of transition from Yom Ha’Zikaron (Memorial Day) to Yom Ha’Atzmaut (Independence Day). Each year, these important and momentous days take place one day after the other, forcing Israelis to grapple with the stark transition from solemn and somber, to jubilation and celebration.

This stark transition captures the intensity of modern Israeli life, however, many Israelis feel alienated by the official commemorations that emphasize nationalism or religion. Rabbi Esteban Gottfried at Beit Tefilah Israeli in Tel Aviv recognized a number of years ago the need for a sensitive ceremony that celebrates Israel’s national triumph, yet expresses the sorrow for a dream of peace, still unfulfilled.

This Havdalah service has been replicated in dozens congregations of all the denominations in Israel and also in New York, Philadelphia, Koeln, Barcelona, Sao Paulo, Buenos Aires, and more. This Year we are proud to bring this special ceremony, in this special day, to The Temple in Atlanta.
The Consulate General of Israel to the Southeast and the Israeli House Atlanta invite you to

Zaban Couples Center
A big thank you from the Zaban Couples Center
As the residential season draws to a close at the end of April, we want to thank all of our Temple volunteers. From October to April, the Center serves nearly 6,000 dinners made by members of churches, synagogues, schools and social organizations from across the city. Approximately 1,000 individuals volunteer their time making and serving meals, including lunch and dinner, donating and sorting gently used clothing for residents, as well as providing expertise and coaching on life/professional skills.

This season, we also had a number of bar/bat mitzvah aged students who volunteered time and raised funds for the Center as part of their 13x13 mitzvah projects.

If you are interested in volunteering at the Zaban Couples Center, please reach out at info@zabancouplescenter.org. Please also consider making a financial contribution to the Center at www.zabancouplescenter.org.

Caring at The Temple
Our Caring at The Temple program reaches out to fellow congregants during times of hardship or pastoral need, providing homemade chicken soup and challah to members who are bereaved, ill, recently discharged from the hospital, or are celebrating the arrival of a new child. We have delivered more than 500 soups, and nearly every step of the program—from soup preparation, to delivery (within your zip code), to letting us know about fellow congregants in need—is led by members of our congregation.

Thank you to our Caring at The Temple volunteers who delivered soup this month: Sandy Cox, Duane Cox, Billie Guthman, Debbie Shelton, Jill Spasser, and Lara Geller Church.

To be a part of this program and to fulfill the mitzvah of bikkur cholim (visiting the sick) or to let us know who needs soup, please contact Rabbi David Spinrad at dspinrad@the-temple.org or 404-873-1731.
