The first time I ran the Peachtree Road Race, I remember the great build up during training before the race. As I was increasing my running ability for the three months leading up to it, I imagined what it would be like to slowly get a glimpse of the great expanse of Atlanta as I was running from Buckhead to Piedmont Park. But despite what I imagined, during those six miles of running I did not notice the beauty of the landscape, nature and architecture around me. Rather, my mind was so focused on the end goal that I seemed to miss the moments in between.

If you are like me, the months between August and December are like a great race. We stand at the starting line as the calendar switches from July to August and before we have a chance to look back, the race has begun. After our kids settle into the routine of school, the High Holy Days bring about a break from the race and look inward once again. In Judaism, we teach that the Torah is our Tree of Life—that the words contained within it sustain us from generation to generation as a people and as individuals. Study of Torah (which translates as “that which teaches”) does not only mean the study of the stories of Genesis and the Exodus from Egypt that we may have learned as children in religious school. Rather, as our sage Ben Bag Bag taught in Pirke Avot, “Turn it, and turn it, for everything is in it.” From this we learn that the study of Torah encompasses almost every subject of learning in this world.

As we start this New Year, I invite you to join me and the other two hundred or so adults in our congregation who have chosen to take time to look inward for spiritual renewal through adult study at The Temple. Even if you have not sat in a Jewish classroom since you were in elementary school, it is not too late. There is some type of learning for everyone here at Temple.

When people tell me that they are too old to begin their study or they feel like they would just be starting from the beginning, I remind them that they are in good company. The Hebrew Bible teaches us that our ancestors who were living through the Bible! This should serve as a lesson to us all that it is never too late to learn and rediscover Judaism... We should not be overwhelmed by what we think we do not know. As rabbis and teachers, we are most overjoyed when we sit at the same table and learn with adults who are exploring a Jewish text for the first time in decades or as they first learn a letter of the Hebrew alphabet.

The new semester of Tamid (adult learning) at Temple begins February 15. In this bulletin, you will learn of the new classes that begin this spring. From classes about managing conflict to learning about Jewish customs from around the world, there is something for our newest and oldest learners. Additionally, we have many ongoing classes like Torah study on Saturday mornings, Lunch and Learn during the week, and our once-a-month Temple book club. If you don’t know where to begin, please call or email me (404.873.1734 or srau@the-temple.org) or Kara Hoffman (khoffman@the-temple.org) and let’s talk about the right entry point to begin nourishing your Jewish soul.

So before you begin your sprint to the summer, let’s join together in a resolution to slow down and give back to ourselves in 2016. From our families to yours, may 2016 bring you much health and happiness in life, and most of all a renewed sense of peace through spiritual learning.

—Steven

Mini Shabbat Morning

Saturday, January 9 • 9:30 AM
Looking for a fun indoor activity? Join us for Mini Shabbat Morning! Infants through preschoolers and their families are invited to join us on the second Saturday of every month at 9:30 AM in the Covenant Chapel for music and a story with our puppets. We’ll then have a bagel snack and time on the WELC’s two indoor playgrounds. Please come dressed casually. There is no fee or RSVP required. Questions? Please contact either Rabbi Loren Filson Lapidus at llapidus@the-temple.org or Rabbi Lydia Medwin at lmedwin@the-temple.org.

TAMID Spring 2016 Semester

Featuring: JEWS AROUND THE WORLD

March 14: Rabbi Esteban Gottfried will kick-off this series with a general oversight of Jews of Color, Israeli and more
March 21: Rabbi Esteban Gottfried will focus on Jews of Argentina
March 28: Remy Ilona will give a unique insight on Jews of Nigeria
April 4: Ana Hazanov and Jews of Belarus/Eastern Europe
April 11: Anat Revai and Jews of Venezuela
April 18: Dawn Siegel and Jews of South Africa

ADDITIONAL TAMID SPRING 2016 SEMESTER COURSES:

February 5–6: Brockey-Rothschild Institute 2016
Kicking off the spring theme of Jews from around the world, we are honored to welcome Rabbi Daniel Freelander, President of the World Union for Progressive Judaism. He’ll help us understand trends such as the rise in anti-Semitism in France and the reinvigoration of Jewish life in eastern Europe and Russia. Join us for Erev Shabbat services, Shabbat morning Torah study, and Shabbat Morning Services and understand world Jewry in a new light.

February 15: Jewtowns of the US and the World
We will discuss place names and a gazetteer (geographic index) of selected Jewtowns. The itinerary of Rabbi Benjamin of Tudella, 12th century Spain, the first extensively recorded Jewish travel chronicler, will serve as a reference.

February 15 – May 23: Sinai to Seinfeld: A History of Jewish Humor
Treating Jewish jokes as text, the course invites students to analyze and interpret the evolving concerns, styles, rhythms, preoccupations, and values of the Jewish people that lie buried deep in words that make us laugh as Jews, and that bond us as a people. Cost: $150.

February 15 – May 23: Judaism 101
A basic overview of the many facets of Judaism and Jewish practice. Cost: $150.

February 15 – May 23: Hebrew 101
For the Hebrew novice, participants will learn consonants and vowels, then to read Hebrew aloud. Cost: $100.

February 22, March 7 & 21, April 4 & 18, May 9: Judaism 102
This class is for those who are converting to Judaism.

February 22 & 29, March 7: Taking the (Ritual) Plunge: Mikveh in the Traditional and Contemporary Practice
We’ll learn about the traditional use of water and mikvah (ritual bath) in Judaism, and then discover the many possibilities mikvah can be used for healing, celebration, and other transitional moments.

May 2 & 9: Conflict Management and Resolution in Jewish Texts
Our tradition contains some of the most profound conversations about conflict, its resolution and its management. We delve into the texts for thoughts on dealing with the greatest conflicts of our time.

CONTACT KARA HOFFMAN (KHOFFMAN@THE-TEMPLE.ORG) FOR QUESTIONS AND REGISTRATION INFORMATION.

The 6th Annual MAFTY Merry Mitzvah is in the books! We would like to thank: Zaban Couples Center for being a great partner for this program; everyone who donated items for the MAFTY Mall; our MAFTY teens led by Lenore Alexander; and all of our adult volunteers who wrapped gifts and worked in the kitchen.
Gather at The Well

Friday, January 8 • 8:00 PM
First Fridays is now The Well, a more evocative and accurate name for our monthly late Shabbat service for young professionals. In the Jewish tradition, the well is a nexus for community, for physical, spiritual, and emotional nourishment, and for sacred encounters with the divine. The Well best describes what Rabbi David Spinrad and musicians Sammy Rosenbaum and Eli Sperling endeavor to create: an evening of soulful spirituality, fun socializing, and services that feel inclusive for people of all levels of familiarity and comfort with Judaism. To RSVP, email our Engagement Associate Summer Jacobs: sjacobs@the-temple.org and for questions for more information email Rabbi Spinrad: dspinrad@the-temple.org.

Temple Book Club

Tuesday, January 12 • 7:30 PM
We’re reading The Prophet’s Wife by Milton Steinberg. Yes, we read Milton Steinberg’s As a Driven Leaf but this is the long-lost novel by the same author, and he didn’t even have time to finish this because of his sudden and untimely death. Infidelity, faith and power all come together in a gripping story of the prophet Hosea and his wife Gomer. This extraordinary literary find includes a forward by Ari Goldman and commentaries by Harold Kushner and Norma Rosen.

Daytime Discussion Group

Wednesday, January 20 • 10:30 AM
This month’s topic: The Jewish influence on cinema. What was it? When was it okay to be Jewish in cinema? How did politics and world events influence the portrayal of Jews, during the years preceding World War II and after it? Come join us for the discussion.

Plant Trees for Tu B’Shvat with Trees Atlanta

Sunday, January 24 • 9:30 AM–12:30 PM
Trees Atlanta has once again offered to sponsor a special Sunday planting for the Atlanta Jewish community. Meet at the corner of Delano Drive NE and Rocky Ford Road, in Kirkwood. There’s ample street parking nearby. Hot coffee, juice and snacks are provided throughout the planting. While this planting is open to all, Trees Atlanta expects participants to be willing to participate, rain or shine, and for the full three hours.

Upcoming Events for Interfaith Couples & Families:

COOK DINNER FOR ZCC
Monday, Jan 25 • 6:30-8:30 pm
The Interfaith Committee is cooking dinner for the Zaban Couples’ Center at The Temple. It’s perfect for families with teens, singles and couples. Come enjoy vegetable lasagna, beer, wine, & soft drinks while we do a great Mitzvah for The ZCC. It’s a great casual way to meet other interfaith members, make connections and have some engaging conversations. Please RSVP to Cherie Winsett at cwinsett@the-temple.org by Friday, January 15th. Space is limited!

SERVE DINNER AT ZCC
Wednesday, Jan 27 • 6:00-7:45 pm
The Interfaith Committee needs volunteers to serve dinner at the Zaban Couples’ Center, so start the New Year by giving back to your community! Please RSVP to Cherie Winsett at cwinsett@the-temple.org by Friday, January 15th. Space is limited!

Caring at The Temple

Our Caring at The Temple program reaches out to fellow congregants during times of hardship or pastoral need, providing homemade chicken soup and challah to members who are bereaved, ill, recently discharged from the hospital, or are celebrating the arrival of a new child. We have delivered more than 500 soups, and nearly every step of the program – from soup preparation, to delivery (within your zip code), to letting us know about fellow congregants in need – is led by members of our congregation.

Thank you to our Caring at The Temple volunteers who delivered soup this month: Sandy Cox, Duane Cox, Lisa Katz, Jill Spasser.

Library News

We’re excited to announce the inception of the Library/Media Center’s movie collection. We have an assortment of dramas and documentaries, many of which were shown at the Jewish Festival in recent years. We even have a few audiobooks.

You can check out the DVDs and audiobooks for 14 days at a time. Remember to fill out the card and leave it on the cabinet at the front of the library.

Support The Temple When You Shop at Kroger

Enroll your Kroger Plus card in the Kroger Community Rewards Program. Enrollment is easy and does not impact your savings. Visit www.kroger.com to sign in to your account and enroll using our NPO number: 75313.

You must go through the online enrollment process. Have your Kroger Plus card handy. Once you have created an account, scroll down to the bottom of the page to the Community Rewards section. Put your information in and the search for the NPO number. The name you will see will be listed as “The Temple: THE HEBREW BENEVOLENT CONGREGATION”.

Every time you shop for groceries and swipe your card, The Temple automatically starts earning a rebate. You must swipe your registered Kroger Plus card or use the phone number that is related to the registered Kroger Plus card when shopping for each purchase to count.

To verify you are enrolled correctly, you will see The Temple’s name on the right side of your information page when applying the NPO number. Enrollment takes up to 7 days to start earning money towards The Temple community rewards.

Zaban Couples Center

2016 is the year of full-time employment for many of the residents of the Zaban Couples Center. Many came to the center unemployed and without some of the critical skills and know-how to go in search of a job. After numerous sessions including resume writing and other professional skills coaching, these residents are prepared to look for full time jobs.

Temple members who work for companies in need of housekeeping/janitorial staff, cooks and kitchen workers should contact Karyn Woods at the ZCC, kwoods.zabancc@gmail.com.

Help make 2016 a year to remember for residents of the Zaban Couples Center as they transition from homelessness to independent living.
TEMPLE SECURITY UPDATE
FROM JON AMSLER

As always, in 2015 the Temple did quite a lot with respect to security measures. In light of the turmoil in the world today, we thought an update on a few of the measure might be helpful.

In February 2015, the Temple’s Security Committee met to analyze current security measures and to make recommendations to enhance current protocols and equipment. The Committee met on several occasions through the year and also held meetings with security experts. As a result of those meetings, the Temple Board approved a number of additional actions. Among other things, the added measures include the placement of signage in the parking lots, enhanced lighting in the parking lots, an additional full-time security officer, increased communication and coordination with the Atlanta Police Department, and an extensively updated security camera system. The new signage and lighting have been installed, the new security officer has started, and we are in the process of reviewing proposals for the camera system.

There are also a number of security measures and protocols that have been, and will continue to be, in place. However, the Security Committee believes it is best not to disclose the full extent of the Temple’s security protocol. That said, please know that the Temple clergy, professional staff, and lay leadership are vigilant and focused in maintaining a robust security program that is also balanced against the desire to maintain and open Temple community and the promotion of the Temple’s mission of religious, civic and social engagement.

Finally, one major attribute of this, or any, security program is that every member of the Temple community should be observant and vigilant in notifying Temple security, including Mark Jacobson, Executive Director and Sergeant Smith and his staff, of anything that could be a potential security concern.

We wish everyone a happy, healthy and safe 2016!

John Amsler

Hot Topics in Women's Health:
Familial Breast and Ovarian Cancer
Brought to you by Sandwich Salon and the WELC
Tuesday, February 2, 2016 • 11:45 AM–1:15 PM
The Sandwich Salon and the Weinberg Early Learning Center, along with the Friends of Winship, team up for the first time to learn about one of the most important topics of our day – women’s health and cancer. There are few of us untouched by this critical issue, and it’s our obligation to learn about the risks and treatments available to us. Join us as we hear from a panel of specialists in the field, moderated by our very own WELC parent, Dr. Jane Meisel, an Assistant Professor in the Department of Hematology and Medical Oncology at Emory University School of Medicine. There is no better place to do yourself this favor than with your Temple family, the group of women who will be here to support and love you, no matter what.

Box Lunch Sponsored by the Friends of Winship Cancer Institute. Babysitting available upon request. RSVP to Joya Schmidt at jschmidt@the-temple.org.
