With May, my heart goes to the East. Not only does my husband head off to Israel with the Davis Academy 8th grade, but we as a Jewish community turn our hearts towards Israel with the celebration of Yom HaZikaron, Israeli Memorial Day, and Yom HaAtzmaut, Israeli Independence Day. From thousands of miles away, we as American Jews acknowledge these sacred days as our own.

This period of mourning and celebration resonates powerfully because the State of Israel is still so young. Many people reading this can point in their lifetimes to a period when there was no Israel, the years leading up to 1948 when we so desperately needed our homeland, or can recall 1967 or 1973, when Israel successfully defended herself in the face of overwhelming odds. We have seen recent wars and terrorist attacks and are continually reminded of the sacrifices made to ensure Israel's survival.

I would offer that this season is powerful for another reason: it is an opportunity for all of the Jewish community to unite around ahavat Yisrael, love of Israel. We know that there are many divisions when it comes to Israel's policies and advocacy; this is a moment for all of us to rise above the divisions and unite as Jews. Anti-Israel rhetoric continues around the world, Israel continues to be held to a double-standard, and thus now more than ever we need to unite in care and concern for our homeland. Let us take two days to share in our love of Israel and our commitment to her survival and peace. We can mourn the thousands who have lost their lives through wars and terrorist attacks and we can celebrate the miracle that is our Jewish state.

We are all increasingly worn by the debates and politics, the growing divide among Jews' attitudes and advocacy for Israel. My prayer is that we pause this Yom HaZikaron to remember that the Israel about which we speak and debate exists because of the continuing service and sacrifice of young men and women, sons and daughters, and pause this Yom HaAtzmaut to remember that Israel's independence is a blessing to be nurtured and never taken for granted. May we then emerge from these days renewed in our love of Israel and our willingness to talk and work together for her future.

We are delighted that Rabbi Esteban Gottfried of Beit TefilahYisraeli in Tel Aviv will be joining us on Wednesday, May 11, at 7:00 PM to lead a special havdalah service at The Temple to transition from Yom HaZikaron to Yom HaAtzmaut. This service is open to the community and we hope you will attend.

CHIEF RABBI LORD JONATHAN SACKS AND IRA FLATROW: SCIENCE, RELIGION, AND THE SEARCH FOR MEANING

Sunday, May 1 • 2:00 PM

There have been ages when religion tried to dominate science, and there have been ages when science tried to dominate religion. Take a fascinating look at the interdependence of religion and science with former Chief Rabbi Lord Jonathan Sacks and the host of NPR’s popular “Science Friday,” Ira Flatrow, as they explore the ways in which they complement each other in our lives.

Young Professionals Programs

The Well- Friday, May 6 • 8:00 PM

This month, we welcome the song stylings and vocals of the incredibly talented Hannah Zale! We will see you on Friday, May 6, for The Well, our Young Professionals monthly, late Shabbat service. Inspired by the power of the well in the Jewish tradition as a nexus for community and for physical, spiritual, and emotional nourishment, Shabbat services at The Well at The Temple aspire to be the same. Join Rabbi David Spinrad for an evening of soulful spirituality, fun socializing, and services that feel inclusive for people of all levels of familiarity and comfort with Judaism. To RSVP, email Cherie Winsett (cwinsett@the-temple.org) and for questions or for more information email Rabbi Spinrad: dspinrad@the-temple.org.

Temple Book Club

Tuesday, May 10, 2016 • 7:30pm

We will be reading Uncovered. Leah Lax tells her story beginning as a young teen who left her liberal, secular home for life as a Hasidic Jew, and ending as a forty-something woman who has to abandon the only world she has known for thirty years. In crystalline prose, Lax details her experiences with arranged marriage, cult-like faith, and motherhood. Led by Sally Stanhope.

Library News

The holidays of May remind us of our ties to Israel. Our Temple library has books that tell of its rebirth in 1948, its struggle for survival and its growth to become the nation it is today. Here is a sample of books that tell our tale.

- To the House of Their Fathers: A History of Zionism, Litvinoff (951 LIT)
- From Beirut to Jerusalem, Friedman (950.25 FRI)
- The Balfour Declaration, Scheer (950 SCH)
- Everyday Life in Bible Times (950 NAT) and other books on the archeology of Israel (955) go way back before 1948.
- To go back even further, see our Torah.
- Check out our Biography section for books on Teddy Kolleck, Golda Meir, Abba Eban and others who were involved in shaping the government.

Support The Temple When You Shop at Kroger
Enroll your Kroger Plus card in the Kroger Community Rewards Program. Enrollment is easy and does not impact your savings. Visit www.kroger.com to sign in to your account and enroll using our NPO number: 75313.

You must go through the online enrollment process. Have your Kroger Plus card handy. Once you have created an account, scroll down to the bottom of the page to the Community Rewards section. Put your information in and the search for the NPO number. The name you will see will be listed as “The Temple: THE HEBREW BENEVOLENT CONGREGATION”.

Every time you shop for groceries and swipe your card, The Temple automatically starts earning a rebate. You must swipe your registered Kroger Plus card or use the phone number that is related to the registered Kroger Plus card when shopping for each purchase to count.

To verify you are enrolled correctly, you will see The Temple’s name on the right side of your information page when applying the NPO number. Enrollment takes up to 7 days to start earning money towards The Temple community rewards.

Caring at The Temple
Our Caring at The Temple program reaches out to fellow congregants during times of hardship or pastoral need, providing homemade chicken soup and challah to members who are bereaved, ill, recently discharged from the hospital, or are celebrating the arrival of a new child. We have delivered more than 500 soups, and nearly every step of the program—from soup preparation, to delivery (within your zip code), to letting us know about fellow congregants in need—is led by members of our congregation.

Thank you to our Caring at The Temple volunteers who delivered soup this month: Sandy Cox, Duane Cox, Esther Zells, Debbie Shelton.

To be a part of this program and to fulfill the mitzvah of bikkur cholim (visiting the sick) or to let us know who needs soup, please contact Rabbi David Spinrad at dspinrad@the-temple.org or 404-873-1731.

MINI SHABBAT MORNING
Saturday, May 14 • 9:30 AM
Join us for Mini Shabbat morning where we’ll be taking a trip to Israel! Wear your best blue and white and learn about this very special place. Infants through preschoolers and their families are invited to join us on the second Saturday of every month: at 9:30 AM in the Covenant Chapel for music and a story with our puppets. We’ll then have a bagel snack and time on the WELC’s two indoor playgrounds (or outside if the weather cooperates). Please come dressed casually. There is no fee or RSVP required. Questions? Please contact either Rabbi Loren Filson Lapidus at llapidus@the-temple.org or Rabbi Lydia Medwin at lmedwin@the-temple.org.

Havdalah Ceremony for Yom Ha’Zikaron to Yom Ha’Atzmaut with Rabbi Esteban Gottfried

Wednesday, May 11 • 7 PM • Covenant Chapel

One of the most challenging moments in the Jewish-Israeli calendar year is the moment of transition from Yom Ha’Zikaron (Memorial Day) to Yom Ha’Atzmaut (Independence Day). Each year, these important and momentous days take place one day after the other, forcing Israelis to grapple with the stark transition from solemn and somber, to jubilation and celebration.

This stark transition captures the intensity of modern Israeli life, however, many Israelis feel alienated by the official commemorations that emphasize nationalism and religion. Rabbi Esteban Gottfried at Beit Tefilah Israel in Tel Aviv recognized a number of years ago the need for a sensitive ceremony that celebrates Israel’s national triumph, yet expresses the sorrow for a dream of peace, still unfulfilled.

This Havdalah service has been replicated in dozens congregations of all the denominations in Israel and also in New York, Philadelphia, Koln, Barcelona, Sao Paulo, Buenos Aires, and more. This Year we are proud to bring this special ceremony, in this special day, to The Temple in Atlanta.

Zaban Couples Center

The residential season at the Zaban Couples Center came to a close at the end of April. A huge thank you to all of the volunteers from the Temple family who contributed to a successful year.

At the graduation ceremony in early April, three former residents came back to speak. Their stories were truly inspiring and illustrative of just how much the work that the Center does can change the lives of its residents. In one case a resident who had lost his job and custody of his son due to alcoholism spoke about how being at the Zaban Couples Center helped him quit drinking and prepared him to get a job and regain custody of his child.

This year’s graduating class of residents put together a yearbook of what the center has meant to them. Yearbooks are available for purchase by contacting Marc Green at marc.green@zabancouplescenter.org. Opportunities to support the Zaban Couples Center ready for its next residential season abound. Please contact info@zabancouplescenter.org if you are interested in volunteering or visit the website www.zabancouplescenter.org to make a financial contribution.

As we wrap up this year of Temple’s programmatic life, there are two groups of people who deserve special recognition. These groups launched two new programs with us this year: Temple Connect and Age and Stage. To our Engagement Co-Chairs, our Temple Connect Core Team and Coaches, our Temple Connect Group Leaders, and our Age and Stage Roshim: Thank you. Thank you for helping us learn and grow. Thank you for helping others to experience meaning and inspiration. Thank you for your healing and for your hope. You live the vision of this synagogue every day and we are only great because of your time, passion, and energy. To all of our participants in these groups this year—a special thanks to you too, for trusting in us and each other to create an experience of inspiration and transformation.

We have only just begun but we’ve done so much already—here’s to another great year ahead!
