What Next

BY RABBI LOREN FILSON LAPIDUS

Because of the nature of printing deadlines, I'm writing this article the day after Rosh Hashanah as well as the day after the vice presidential debate (and recovering from both). By the time this article is being read, we will have finished all of the chagim (holidays) from Rosh Hashanah through Simchat Torah, and we will be approaching the end of the 2016 election season. I am asking myself one question: What next?

We conclude the High Holy Day season, empowered with the promise of God’s forgiveness and inspired by the feeling of a fresh start. Then, we re-enter the regular year. Swept into the rhythms of work, school, life, the new start can be quickly forgotten. The commitments we made to ourselves for 5777 are harder to keep in the forefront of our minds.

So what next? I hope that all who came to The Temple during Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, will use this as the first of many opportunities to be connected to our Temple family this year. Come to a Shabbat service—they're more relaxed than the Holy Days!—or try out a TAMID: Adult Education class. Join a Temple Connect group and meet others with similar interests, or attend an Age and Stage event to meet others of similar ages. Pursue justice in our community through any number of initiatives around education, racial justice, homelessness, LGBTQ rights, and more. Please consider using the High Holy Days as just one point of connection, not the only point of connection, to The Temple. As our “Vision and Values” reminds us, we need each other as we try to make meaning in our world.

I would offer that we will need each other even more come November 9th. Whatever the outcome of this 2016 election, we will need healing. The rhetoric has been strong, the divisions deep, and a significant portion of our country will be disappointed and anxious after the election is completed. So, what next?

We have the opportunity to use our Jewish traditions and our community as a place of comfort and healing. Our pursuit of justice is commanded by Torah, not political parties. Our concern for others is born out of the wisdom of our tradition, not social media. Our belief in our role in being partners with God in making this world better than we found it is rooted in our faith, not something easily swayed by the outcomes of an election. Here at The Temple we are looking at our world and our roles in it, guided by Judaism and its teachings. We believe that each person is made in the image of God, worthy of our respect and our concern, and act on that belief. With that in our minds, we can use our Temple family as a place to make meaning and come together after months of an election cycle that sought to divide us. I urge us all to have compassion for one another, understanding that not everyone believes the same things about our country or votes for the same people, and to focus our attention on the prophetic call of Judaism, the values that transcend this moment and offer us comfort and guidance.

So what next? Perhaps something even better. Moments of transition are special, but the days following them are full of potential for growth, healing, discovery, and connections. Together, as a community, we can help each other to find meaning in our days and put our beliefs into action.

One Happy Camper
Your kids will definitely be thankful for a summer at Jewish overnight camp! Plus, if they’re first time campers, they might even be eligible for up to $1,000 off! 2nd Year grants are available for up to $500 off. Needs Based Scholarships are also available. Check out all the ways to make Jewish overnight camp affordable at: www.the-temple.org/jewishcamp.
Contact Elizabeth Foster, Camp Ambassador, at 404-873-1734 for more information.

New TAMID Offering:
Mussar: Everyday Holiness • November 7 through April 3 @ 6:30pm • Cost: $95
Through discussion of one middah (soul traits) each meeting, based on a well-tested set of readings and questions, participants explore their own personal soul curriculum within the safety and support of a group of like-minded learners.

Project Merry Mitzvah
Project Connect (our high school youth program) is gearing up for our annual social action initiative! Each December our teens host a Shabbat dinner and shopping evening for the residents of the Zaban Paradies Center for Couples. Teens will serve dinner, celebrate with the residents, and then give them an opportunity to go shopping in the “mall” for a gift for their spouse or partner. This can’t happen without help from you.

We need donations of the items listed below. Bring items to The Temple from November 1st-December 5th. Items should be brand new.

- Robe
- Slippers (mens and womens)
- New picture frames
- Boxed/packaged bed linens (queen)
- New neck ties
- New boxed costume jewelry
- Throw blankets, snuggies
- Pillows and pillowcases
- Boxed alarm clocks, clock radios
- Boxed iron
- Boxed set of water glasses (not wine or alcohol related)
- Kitchen serving utensils (boxed sets)
- Boxed blender
- Boxed table lamps or floor lamps
- Boxed tool sets
- Boxed/packaged bath accessories (bathmats, shower curtains and rings)

For more information, please contact Rabbi Steven Rau (srau@the-temple.org) or Elizabeth Foster (efoster@the-temple.org).
Young Professionals Programs

THE WELL

THE WELL

Friday, November 4 @ 8:00 PM

We will see you on Friday, November 4, for The Well, our Young Professionals’ monthly, late Shabbat service. Inspired by the power of the well in the Jewish tradition as a nexus for community and for physical, spiritual, and emotional nourishment, Shabbat services at The Well aspire to be the same. Join Rabbi David Spinrad for an evening of soulful spirituality, fun socializing, and services that feel inclusive for people of all levels of familiarity and comfort with Judaism. To RSVP email Summer Jacobs (sjacobs@the-temple.org) and for questions or for more information email Rabbi Spinrad: dspinrad@the-temple.org.

STORYWELL: DESIRE

Wednesday, November 16 @ 7:00 PM • The Porter (1156 Euclid Ave)

Desire is the theme of the third installment of our Young Professionals’ StoryWell series and we invite you to join us as either a storyteller or as a part of the audience for what promises to be an unforgettable evening of stories of desire. StoryWell has moved to a new location, a hidden speakeasy at The Porter in Little Five Points (1156 Euclid Ave NE). $10 entry. For more information or to RSVP, email Engagement Associate Summer Jacobs: sjacobs@the-temple.org.

YOUNG PROFESSIONALS ISRAEL UNITY DAY SEDER AT THE WELL

Friday, December 2 @ 8PM

Gather us at The Well for a special Israel Unity Seder as we welcome Shabbat in a new way, celebrating our Diasporic connection to the Land of Israel. With our partner the Atlanta Jewish Music Festival and through food and drink as well as song and conversation fostered by a special Haggadah created by the Israeli Movement for Progressive Judaism, we will explore this eternal Land and to our fellow Jews everywhere while also affirming our identity in the places we choose to call home. For young professionals. To RSVP: sjacobs@the-temple.org. Questions: dspinrad@the-temple.org.

Support The Temple When You Shop at Kroger

Enroll your Kroger Plus card in the Kroger Community Rewards Program. Enrollment is easy and does not impact your savings. Visit www.kroger.com to sign in to your account and enroll using your NPO number: 75313.

You must go through the online enrollment process. Have your Kroger Plus card handy. Once you have created an account, scroll down to the bottom of the page to the Community Rewards section. Put your information in and the search for the NPO number. The name you will see will be listed as “The Temple: THE HEBREW BENEVOLENT CONGREGATION”.

Every time you shop for groceries and swipes your card, The Temple automatically starts earning a rebate. You must swipe your registered Kroger Plus card or use the phone number that is related to the registered Kroger Plus card when shopping for each purchase to count.

To verify you are enrolled correctly, you will see The Temple’s name on the right side of your information page when applying the NPO number. Enrollment takes up to 7 days to start earning money towards The Temple community rewards.

Shabbat Worship Service Celebrating Our New Members

Friday, November 18 @ 6:00 PM Services, 7:30 PM Dinner

This is a special Shabbat to honor you who’ve chosen The Temple as your Jewish home. Let us host you for a private dinner and get to know you better as we dine together with our clergy and Temple leadership and enjoy home baked goods offered by our Temple family. RSVP by November 16th to Joya Schmidt (jschmidt@the-temple.org). The whole family is invited, but babysitting is available for those who would like it (RSVP required). Vegetarian options available.

Beineinu: The Two of Us

A RETREAT FOR YOUNG MARRIED COUPLES

Friday, March 31 to Saturday, April 1, 2017 • Lanier Islands Resort

This retreat, facilitated by Rabbis Lapidus and Medwin, is for couples who have been married within the last three years and do not have children. Subsidies are available for interfaith couples. For more information about the program and registration, please contact Rabbi Lapidus at llapidus@the-temple.org. We are also gauging interest in a parallel track for those married within the last seven years (attending without children)—if you would be interested, please email Rabbi Lapidus.

Sandwich Salon

Tuesday, December 6, 2016 • 11:45AM-1:15PM

We Need “Good” News! Certainly we can all agree that there is plenty going on in the world that has us worried, concerned and, maybe, frightened. Join us for Sandwich Salon and celebrate the good news that is all around us! Daryn Kagan is a journalist—a former CNN news anchor and correspondent. Now, through her column and website, she shares ‘positive and uplifting stories that show the world’s what’s possible’! Daryn will have her recent book available for purchase and autographs. Please bring your lunch and your friends. RSVP by November 29 to Joya at jschmidt@the-temple.org.

Infant-Toddler Programs at The Temple

MINI SHABBAT MORNING

Saturday, November 12 @ 9:30 AM

Join us on Saturday, November 12th at 9:30 AM for Shabbat fun as we get onboard Noah’s Ark and discover how all those animals got along together! Come dressed as your favorite animal! Following services, we’ll have a bagel snack and time on the WELC’s amazing outdoor playground (or the indoor playrooms if the weather doesn’t cooperate).

Infants through preschoolers and their families are invited to join us on the second Saturday of every month at 9:30 AM in the Covenant Chapel for music and a story with our puppets.

There is no fee or RSVP required. Questions? Please contact either Rabbi Loren Filson Lapidus at llapidus@the-temple.org or Rabbi Lydia Medwin at lmedwin@the-temple.org.

We look forward to seeing you on Shabbat!
Post B’nei Mitzvah

SHABBAT SIP-AND-STROLL ON THE BELTLINE—ADULTS ONLY

Friday, November 4 @ 6:00 PM
Join your Roshim (Scott Edlein, Mark and Amy Adelman, Terri Cohen) for some cocktails and appetizers as we stroll from Krog Street Market to Venkmans, with a stop at LadyBird for Shabbat prayers on their patio! This is a wonderful opportunity to connect with other Post B’nei Mitzvah Age and Stage parents while enjoying some delicious food and drinks.

Please RSVP to Mark and Amy Adelman at adelmanm@bellsouth.net. For further questions, please contact Summer Jacobs at sjacobs@the-temple.org.

To sign up, a $5 deposit per person is required to pay for appetizers at Venkmans and to hold your place. Registration can be found online.

Kulanu

BROOKHAVEN BRUNCH FEST

Saturday, November 12 @ 12:00 PM • Brookhaven Park
Atlanta and Brookhaven loves brunch, so join Kulanu (led by your Roshim, Barbara Lenoble and Susan Gordon) for the first festival to celebrate some of the best restaurants in the brunch game serving up tasting size portions of the brunch items they do best! The festival will also feature the brunch beverages we all know and love—Bloody Marys, Mimosas, beer, and wine. We will plan to eat, have a drink, and be merry!

Tickets: General Admission (includes entry, 1 food ticket) $20 advance, $25 after Nov. 3*, $30 day of event* (*unless sold out). Additional food tastings can be paid $3 to restaurant vendor.

If you are planning to join us, please RSVP by November 10 to Barbara Lenoble at lenoblebarbara@gmail.com. Tickets can be purchased online at: www.brookhavenbrunchfest.com

Young Families

MR. MICHAEL CONCERT: “MAKE NEW FRIENDS!”

Sunday, November 13 @ 4:30-6:00 PM • Motor Lobby
Our Young Families Age and Stage group is for those of us experiencing life with children 5 years of age and younger. Our goal is to create meaningful connections for you within and outside of The Temple. Family events and activities for this age group will be planned throughout the year. We would like to extend a warm invitation for you and your children to join us at The Temple for pizza, beverages, and a fun and interactive concert with the legendary musician Mr. Michael (also contributor to Pete the Cat books). Kindly RSVP to Caroline Wainright at carolinewainright@gmail.com by November 7th so that we can ensure that we have enough food. For further questions, please contact Summer Jacobs in the Engagement Office at sjacobs@the-temple.org or 404-873-1731. This group is headed up by your Roshim—Caroline Wainright, Lindsay Borenstein, Brooke Capolino, and Jill Malino. Please introduce yourself and say hello!

3rd-5th grade Families

BLESSING BOXES

Sunday, November 13 @ 1:00 PM
Action Ministries Feed the Hungry Warehouse: 2160 Hills Ave, Suite F, Atlanta, GA 30318
Cost: $10.00 per family to cover administrative costs
Join your Temple community of parents with children in grades 3-5 as we make an impact on hunger, a root cause of modern day slavery and trafficking. This Blessing Box program follows best practices as laid out by our partner organizations, who recommend boxes of non-perishable food rather than bags. This is an acknowledgement that those who are food recipients come from homes where all residents living may be food insecure. We will also be partnering with other 3rd-5th grade families from Toomer Elementary. This program is made possible by your Roshim, Cindy Lourie and Amy Lettes. An RSVP is required to participate. Please RSVP to Amy Lettes at amylettes@yahoo.com by no later than November 10th. For further questions, please contact Summer Jacobs in the Engagement Office at sjacobs@the-temple.org or 404-873-1731.

92Y Broadcast

ELIE WIESEL – “OPEN HEART”

NEW DAY AND TIME:
Wednesday, November 16 @ 10:00 AM-12:00 PM
With Elie Wiesel’s passing, one of the great people of our time takes his leave, and the radiance of human decency and greatness dims a bit. When asked what he had done with his life, Elie Wiesel answered “I have tried to keep memory alive…. I have tried to fight those who would forget. Because if we forget, we are guilty, we are accomplices.” To RSVP, please contact Joya Schmidt at jschmidt@the-temple.org or 404-873-1731.

Sages

CDC WALKING TOUR AND LUNCH WITH RABBI PETER BERG

Friday, November 18 @ 10:30 AM • Bus will meet at The Temple
Must bring a government issued photo ID or passport
Upon arrival to the David J. Sencer CDC Museum, the group will be greeted and oriented to CDC on the Global Symphony platform. The Global Symphony is a media installation featuring four, three–minute stories that describe in depth CDC’s contributions to the elimination of polio, the investigation of Legionnaires disease, the battle to stem the rise of obesity in the United States, and the study of how humans, animals, and the environment interact in the spread of Ebola. Following the orientation, the group will tour the current temporary exhibition and The Story of CDC exhibit. Following the guided tour, visitors will have the opportunity to explore the exhibit area independently. Following the museum, we will get lunch at The General Muir and then make our way back to The Temple. Space is limited to 25 people. To RSVP, please contact Joya Schmidt at jschmidt@the-temple.org or 404-873-1731.

LGBTQ

FAMILY DAY OF SERVICE AT JERUSALEM HOUSE

Saturday, November 19 @ 9:30 AM–1:00 PM
Embracing and supporting families of all kinds, Jerusalem House helps homeless and low-income people affected by HIV/AIDS get healthy and stable by providing permanent supportive housing. We invite members of our LGBTQ group at The Temple, as well as our Temple families with children ages 2-15. We will be raking, mulching, and planting. Lunch will be provided as well as entertainment for our littlest ones. To RSVP, please contact your Rosh, Daniel Brennan, at danatl75@hotmail.com by November 15. For further questions, please contact Summer Jacobs at sjacobs@the-temple.org.
Interfaith Programs

COOKING AND SERVING DINNER AT ZABAN-PARADIES CENTER FOR HOMELESS COUPLES

Tuesday, November 1 and Wednesday, November 2 in the evening

Tuesday evening we will cook in The Temple kitchen and share conversation over our own dinner. Wednesday evening we will serve and share dinner with the residents of the ZPC. Please RSVP by Tuesday, October 25, to Martin Maslia at mmaslia@gmail.com.

HOW-TO CHANUKAH AT THE ATLANTA BOTANICAL GARDEN

Tuesday, December 6 in the evening

Learn about Chanukah with fun activities for all ages and stages throughout the evening, while enjoying the festive garden lights with your Temple family. This is open to the entire Temple family and we particularly encourage interfaith couples and families to join us. To receive complimentary ticket (one per family, quantities limited), please email Laurie Simon at lsimon@the-temple.org.

Caring at The Temple

Our Caring at The Temple program reaches out to fellow congregants during times of hardship or pastoral need, providing homemade chicken soup and challah to members who are bereaved, ill, recently discharged from the hospital, or are celebrating the arrival of a new child. We have delivered more than 500 soups, and nearly every step of the program – from soup preparation, to delivery (within your zip code), to letting us know about fellow congregants in need – is led by members of our congregation.

Thank you to our Caring at The Temple volunteers who delivered soup this month: Sandy & Duane Cox, Brooke Dickerson, Ellen Frauenthal, Elaine Koenig, Louis Lettes, Leah Long, Denny Marcus, Sharyn Mulqueen, Debbie Shelton, Jenna Shulman, Ronnie van Gelder, Jessica Williams.

To be a part of this program and to fulfill the mitzvah of bikkur cholim (visiting the sick) or to let us know who needs soup, please contact Rabbi Lydia Medwin at lmedwin@the-temple.org.
