Spring 2017 marks the 150th anniversary of our beloved Temple. Join us for an exciting year of enriching cultural events, substantive programs, fun-filled family activities, and meaningful Shabbat experiences to engage every age and stage!

On February 28, 2017, Atlanta's Tony-Award-winning Alliance Theatre will debut on the main stage an adaptation of Melissa Fay Green's The Temple Bombing. Susan Booth, artistic director of the Alliance, has contracted with the Tectonic Theater Project in New York City to write and direct this docudrama that resonates so deeply within our Temple family and the entire Atlanta community. We will have the opportunity to reflect on and review our history of promoting social justice and its meaning in the 21st century.

Harkening back to our 125th celebration, we again will gather in Symphony Hall for an evening of music by Jewish composers. On April 19, 2017, Robert Spano, conductor of the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, has planned a program that will highlight the career of Leonard Bernstein. The program will conclude with a festive seated dinner in the Taylor Lobby of the High Museum of Art.

For our religious school families, we will celebrate fall 2017 with a fun-filled birthday bash—including games, surprises, and, of course, a big cake! These events will be a source of pride in our rich history and strengthen our ties within the Temple family. All Temple events scheduled throughout the year, including Brockey-Rothschild Institute, MLK Shabbat, etc., will have a special connection to our 150th celebration. Stay tuned for our closing celebration events in the spring of 2018.

Helping Others In The New Year

BY RABBI PETER S. BERG

Life is meant to be lived. No excuses. No reservations. No holding back.

I recently heard the story about violinist Fritz Kreisler, who once came across a beautiful instrument that he wanted to acquire. When he finally raised the money for the violin, he returned to buy it and learned that it had already been sold to a prominent collector.

Kreisler went to the new owner’s home in order to try and persuade him to sell the violin. But the collector said it was one of his prized possessions and he could not let it go. The disappointed Kreisler turned to leave, but then asked a favor. "May I play the instrument once before it is consigned to silence?"

Permission was granted and the great musician began to play. The violin sang out a quality of music so beautiful that the collector himself could only listen in wonderment. "I have no right to keep that to myself," he said after the musician finished. "The violin is yours, Mr. Kreisler. Take it into the world and let people hear it."

William Arthur Ward once said, "If you believe in prayer, pray; if you believe in serving, serve; if you believe in giving, give." The message of the New Year is that you and I are exquisite violins – our music is meant to be heard. Happiness is never found in excessive busyness. Rather, it is found in investing our lives in others. This year, say YES when asked for a hand. Volunteer some time for a cause you care about. Spend an hour with a lonely friend or relative.

Happiness is never about ability or inability. Happiness is about availability. Life is meant to be lived.

Wishing you a shannah tovah u’metukah, from home to home.

High Holy Day Food Drive & Help Unload the Truck
Sunday, October 16
Meet At The Temple @ 12:30 PM
Or... Go Directly To Midtown Assistance Center
(30 Porter Place, Atlanta, GA 30308) @ 1:00 PM
As always, we continue to collect food on the High Holy Days in order to meet the critical hunger needs in our community. This expression of our unwavering commitment to social justice is a part of our proud Temple tradition. Each year, our donations stock MAC’s entire food pantry for a month, but we know we can do more. In addition to bringing food and other goods, help us unload the truck and sort and stack all of the food we collect. RSVP by emailing Mitchell Wirth at mmwemail-temple@yahoo.com or Rabbi Lydia Medwin at lmedwin@the-temple.org or by calling The Temple at 404-873-1731.

“The US-IsRAEL RELATIONSHIPS: WHAT COMES AHEAD?”
Arne Christenson - Managing Director for Policy and Politics at AIPAC
Wednesday, October 12 @ 2:00 PM
This year we welcome Arne Christenson, lifelong political activist and executive expert. As the Managing Director, Christenson is responsible for leading all policy and political activities at AIPAC, including lobbying, research, political outreach, press, and AIPAC’s Jerusalem office as well as serving on AIPAC’s Senior Executive Team.

The Temple at Pride
Sunday, October 9
Parade begins at 12:00 PM at Civic Center MARTA
note the earlier start time
Join The Temple as we march with SOJOURN and the Jewish community at the Atlanta Pride Parade. All ages are welcome to join! You can either meet us at the parade or leave from The Temple to walk to MARTA at 11:15 PM. If you are planning to participate in the parade, please email Daniel Brennan (danatl75@hotmail.com) or Amy Sue Mann (amy-sue1117@comcast.net) so we can arrange to get you a Temple t-shirt and make sure to email you exact instructions for the parade day.

THE WELL
Friday, October 7 @ 8:00 PM
We will see you on Friday, October 7, for The Well, our Young Professional’s monthly, late Shabbat service. Inspired by the power of the well in the Jewish tradition as a nexus for community and for physical, spiritual, and emotional nourishment, Shabbat services at The Well at The Temple aspire to be the same. Join Rabbi David Spinrad for an evening of soulful spirituality, fun socializing, and services that feel inclusive for people of all levels of familiarity and comfort with Judaism. To RSVP, email Summer Jacobs (sjacobs@the-temple.org) and for questions or for more information email Rabbi Spinrad: dspinrad@the-temple.org.

Tikkun Olam & Social Justice Opportunities

READING RACE: STANDING AS WITNESS AND ALLY
Tuesday, October 25, 7-9 PM
In August and September we held gatherings for those who care deeply about racial injustice and who want to work together as Jews to create a more just society. Our first two group discussions have generated wonderful conversations. Join us for the last group discussion of this series centered on: The New Jim Crow by Michelle Alexander.
Before this discussion, participants will be required to purchase and read the book in advance. Small group discussions are led by trained lay facilitators and the evening will open and close with your clergy in the Covenant Chapel.
For more information or questions, please email Rabbi David Spinrad: dspinrad@the-temple.org. To participate in this series, RSVP to Joya Schmidt: jschmidt@the-temple.org.

Support The Temple When You Shop at Kroger
Enroll your Kroger Plus card in the Kroger Community Rewards Program. Enrollment is easy and does not impact your savings. Visit www.kroger.com to sign in to your account and enroll using our NPO number: 75313
You must go through the online enrollment process. Have your Kroger Plus card handy. Once you have created an account, scroll down to the bottom of the page to the Community Rewards section. Put your information in, then search for the NPO number. The name you will see will be listed as “The Temple: THE HEBREW BENEVOLENT CONGREGATION”.
Every time you shop for groceries and swipe your card, The Temple automatically starts earning a rebate. You must swipe your registered Kroger Plus card or use the phone number that is related to the registered Kroger Plus card when shopping for each purchase to count.
To verify you are enrolled correctly, you will see The Temple’s name on the right side of your information page when applying the NPO number. Enrollment takes up to 7 days to start earning money towards The Temple community rewards.

Wednesday, October 19 @ 6:45 PM
Tickets are SOLD OUT

We are honored to welcome Ta-Nehisi (Ta-nuh-ha-see) Coates, one of the nation’s foremost thinkers about race and racial issues in America. Coates is the best-selling author of Between the World and Me and Senior Editor and National Correspondent for The Atlantic. This is a very exciting opportunity for The Temple to host such a prominent figure. Only those with tickets will be admitted.

Caring at The Temple

Our Caring at The Temple program reaches out to fellow congregants during times of hardship or pastoral need, providing homemade chicken soup and challah to members who are bereaved, ill, recently discharged from the hospital, or are celebrating the arrival of a new child. We have delivered more than 500 soups, and nearly every step of the program – from soup preparation, to delivery (within your zip code), to letting us know about fellow congregants in need – is led by members of our congregation.

Thank you to our Caring at The Temple volunteers who delivered soup this month: Amanda Abrams, Susan Banner, Laura Geller Church, Sandy & Duane Cox, Robyn Ripps, Stanley Romanstein, Jonathan Serebin, Debbie Shelton, Harold Shumacher, Jill Slavin, Jill Spassier, Rabbi David Spinrad, Mia Spolan, Shayna Steinfeld, Ronnie van Gelder, Jessica Landsman Williams.

To be a part of this program and to fulfill the mitzvah of bikkur cholim (visiting the sick) or to let us know who needs soup, please contact Rabbi Lydia Medwin at lmedwin@the-temple.org or 404-873-1731.

If you’ve ever wondered what it was like to receive soup from The Temple, here’s what others are saying:

Penny Posel’s family was so thrilled to get the soup & challah! Thank you so much.

Temple Family,
The delicious soup and challah speeded my recovery and was a treat for my family. Thank you so much for including me in this wonderful caring program and for making me feel very special.

Temple Family,
Thank you for the Challah and soup. It was delicious. Receiving them made me feel special and appreciate that I belong to a Temple full of people who care about others.

A Day for Dementia Caregivers

Sunday, October 30 @ 10:00 AM

You’ve seen the movies and read the books—families everywhere are dealing with Alzheimer’s and other types of memory loss. Spouses, parents, and other relatives are getting diagnosed. If this is happening to someone close to you, we’re here to help. The Temple, in partnership with Sixty Plus Services from Piedmont Hospital, will offer resources to guide you in making important decisions concerning your loved one. Join Rabbi David Spinrad and Moira Keller, LCSW, with Sixty Plus Services, for this comprehensive workshop where you will learn about dementia, the community resources that you’ll need, and how to take care of yourself.

Cost: $25 includes continental breakfast, lunch, and educational materials. RSVP to Joya Schmidt at jschmidt@the-temple.org. Space is limited. Advanced registration is required.

Library News

Although our library has changed, you can still find books and DVDs on Judaica, customs, history, fiction, biography, art, poetry and ways to live a rich Jewish life. Come in and check out the books and DVDs any time The Temple is open.

PLEASE RETURN THE BOOKS AND DVDS YOU BORROWED BEFORE THE RENOVATION BEGAN.

We need help keeping our Library collection of books and DVDs up to date. We will teach you what we learned when we became volunteers. If you are interested, call Rochelle Friedman at 770-938-4320 and leave a message. She will get back to you as soon as possible.

WALKING TOUR OF PONCE CITY MARKET AND LUNCH, WITH CANTOR DEBORAH HARTMAN

Wednesday, October 19th @ 9:45 AM

Known as one of the most important landmarks of Old Fourth Ward, Ponce City Market has become a notable place for the Atlanta community to meet, eat, shop and play. Learn all about the history of Ponce City Market with an educational walking tour.

This guided tour will take you through Ponce City Market where you will get a behind-the-scenes look at historic spaces inside the building not often seen by the public. Make sure to wear comfortable shoes.

Cost: $25/pp. Bus departs from The Temple at 10:00am. Please arrive no later than 9:45am. To RSVP contact Joya Schmidt at jschmidt@the-temple.org or 404-873-1731. For any further questions contact Summer Jacobs at sjacobs@the-temple.org.

Find your Tribe Event

Sunday, October 30 • 9:30-11:00 AM

Do you want to know more about our Temple’s small groups? Are you searching for the perfect Temple Connect group to join? Come on Sunday morning, October 30th, for the matching event that will set you up for a wonderful year of community and friends. Check out all the groups, meet their leaders, and find a group that inspires you. Religious school families should check out the Find Your Tribe event as they walk in for Sunday School; others should avoid the Sunday traffic by coming at 10:00 am instead of 9:30 am.
