FROM THE DESK OF RABBI DAVID SPINRAD:

WE ARE ALL IN THIS TOGETHER

Our Vision and Values opens “We are The Temple: Inspiring Lives, Transforming Our World” and offers six simple statements of purpose: We seek meaning. We need each other. We are our history, our future. God needs us and we need God. We all have gifts to offer. Our doors are open to all.

While these six statements are simple, they are not easy. For starters, these values call on every single one of us to play a part in a collective destiny. Without us seeking meaning together, without us honoring our history by building a bridge to the future, without us sharing our gifts and working to bring a greater sense of God and holiness into the world, and without us diligently creating a Jewish home for all, The Temple cannot fulfill its purpose. Further, the fruits of our labors will not be ours to enjoy. If we place these words upon our hearts and if we allow them to permeate our every word and deed, we will have created and affirmed a priceless Jewish inheritance for our children and grandchildren. The congregation, the community, the city, the county, and the world that they inherit will be better for our devotion.

There are many ways to live our Vision and Values, but at The Temple tikkun olam, the healing of our fractured world, occupies a central place in our collective Jewish identity. Under the auspices of the Jacob M. Rothschild Institute for Social Justice, we are fortunate to have the capacity to focus on the major social issues of our day and we look to you to help fulfill the Vision and Values through several major initiatives. As we turn toward the High Holy Days of 5777 and reflect on meaning making in our lives, we invite you to reaffirm your commitment in these ways:

Zaban-Paradies Couples Center: The Temple’s long-running response to poverty and economic injustice, join us at Shabbat services at 6:00 PM Friday, September 9th, for a special Shabbat service with a focus on the Zaban Paradies Center. Join ZPCC leadership and program graduates at an information table both before and after services to learn more about the Center and how to get involved. In addition to an ongoing need for donations of meals and clothing and helping to serve dinner, the ZPCC now offers a Job Readiness Program to its participants. Under the guidance of Temple member Nadine Winter, the program helps prepare participants with coaching, mentoring, and job readiness training. The time commitment with each opportunity is reasonable and you will receive guidance and support. To tour the Zaban-Paradies Couples Center Monday through Friday between 9AM-6PM or for information or to volunteer, contact Marc Green marc.green@zabancouplescenter.org.

Fred A. Toomer Elementary School (FATE): FATE is an Atlanta Public School in the Kirkwood neighborhood, a mere 8-mile, 15-minute drive from The Temple. Our commitment to partner with FATE dates back to 2012 and I invite you to join me at FATE (65 Rogers St. Atlanta, 30317) at 8:30AM on Tuesday, September 13th for an Open House and school tour. We have the opportunity for more robust participation at FATE and, following a series of conversations with leading Atlanta educators including APS Superintendent Meria Carstarphen, we are looking to increase our presence in the FATE community. Superintendent Carstarphen confirmed that if we want to make a positive impact in public education that FATE is the place to do it, and the school welcomes us with a wide range of participation. From weekly or biweekly one-on-one mentoring or tutoring to more occasional volunteering with special projects and classroom activities to helping the school to meet specific needs around clothing, non-perishable food, and school supplies for students, there is something for everyone. If you are considering becoming a volunteer, the first time you visit I will be happy to accompany you. Email me for more information: dspinrad@the-temple.org.

“Reading Race: Standing as Witness and Ally:” Finally, our reflective racial justice work continues. While we are also working on deepening our relationships outside of The Temple and are moving into action on voter enfranchisement (unfortunately, details were not available by deadline), we also believe that much internal work is needed in order to bring ourselves up to speed on complex issues. Even if you missed our first Reading Race session on August 29th, we invite you to participate in the upcoming small group discussions of America’s Original Sin by Jim Wallis on Monday, September 26th at 6PM and The New Jim Crow by Michelle Alexander on Tuesday, October 25th at 6PM. To attend, please read each book in advance and come prepared to participate in conversations with our wonderful group of trained lay facilitators as well as join with all participants and your clergy at the outset and conclusion of each session. To RSVP: jschmidt@the-temple.org. For more information: dspinrad@the-temple.org.

Our Vision and Values live through us as an expression of who we aspire to be. May 5777 bring them to life through our commitments to tikkan olam as together we fulfill their aspirations and create a better world and brighter future for all.

Project Connect
Pick Your Project! Stay Connected!

We are excited to announce a redesign of our “youth groups” at The Temple. The Education Team, in partnership with the Youth Engagement Committee, are rolling out “Project Connect,” an umbrella group that will help connect teens (9th-12th grade) to their various interests. There are numerous opportunities, some existing and some new, for teens to be involved with Temple in ways that appeal to them. Teens can belong to as many Projects as they wish or even create and lead their own. Tania Yegelwel will continue to play a critical role as our Project Connect advisor. We would also like to introduce Jonathan Winston to serve as the Assistant Project Connect advisor.

NEW GROUPS FORMING:

- Project Justice: Discuss important issues such as racial justice, inter-faith relations, gun violence, hunger, and LGBTQ rights and more. We will learn from community leaders, Temple clergy and have the opportunity to participate in activities related to these issues like the Pride Parade and Hunger Walk.

- Project Create: Engage with other teens who are interested in creative activities, dance, music, Jewish cooking and more!

- Project Fit: Join other athletic or fit teens interested in connecting with other Temple youth as they explore activities, such as, Israeli dance, gaga, krav maga, etc.

- Project Engage: This group participates in regular social programs throughout the year, such as attending a Hawks game, the Main Event, a pool party, etc.

Special Thank You:

Judy and Richard Musicer for another incredible donation to The Temple Breman Religious School. Two new Mac computers, a laminator, and two rolling TV/DVD carts will be enjoyed by our students this year.

THE WELL

Friday, September 9 @ 8:00 PM

We will see you on Friday, September 9, for The Well, our Young Professional’s monthly, late Shabbat service. Inspired by the power of the well in the Jewish tradition as a nexus for community and for physical, spiritual, and emotional nourishment, Shabbat services at The Well at The Temple aspire to be the same. Join Rabbi David Spinrad for an evening of soulful spirituality, fun socializing, and services that feel inclusive for people of all levels of familiarity and comfort with Judaism. To RSVP, email Summer Jacobs (sjacobsthe-temple.org) and for questions or for more information email Rabbi Spinrad: dspinrad@the-temple.org.

IMPORTANT OPPORTUNITY TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

Take a stand for the victims of sex trafficking by voting YES for the Safe Harbor for Sexually Exploited Children Fund Amendment. It will be toward the bottom of the ballot.

This Amendment will create a dedicated source of funding that will not raise or create new taxes and will never rotate back to the general fund. It will be managed and distributed by an oversight commission. These funds are to provide restorative services such as a safe house, trauma counseling and medical treatment to child victims of sex trafficking. The revenue will come from two sources: 1) penalties against convicted traffickers including a fine of $2,500 and 2) fees assessed against adult entertainment establishments of $5,000 or 1% of their previous calendars gross revenue. The fees alone will generate over $2 million annually. The oversight commission will adopt and manage a state-wide protocol for eligibility for the funds.

If this amendment is not passed in this election it will never get another chance and many victims will not receive the help so critically needed!!

Temple Connect Groups Forming Today!

These groups of 8-12 people meet monthly to learn something new, develop a talent or passion, or talk about the issues most important to our daily lives. We have over 40 different groups to choose from—there is literally something for everyone. If you don’t see something you like or a group is already full, you can always become the leader of your own group! If you are interested in finding out more, contact Rabbi Lydia Medwin, Director of Engagement at lmedwin@the-temple.org or call 404-873-1731.

To see a full listing of our Temple Connect groups, go to Temple-Connect.com or our website www.the-temple.org/getconnect/templeconnect.

To sign up for your Temple Connect group, simply go to Temple-Connect.com or email Joya at jschmidt@the-temple.org with your group preference.

Tikkun Olam and Social Justice Opportunities

FRED A. TOOMER ELEMENTARY OPEN HOUSE

Tuesday, September 13 @ 8:30 AM • 65 Rogers St. Atlanta, 30317

We have the opportunity to create deeper connections at FATE and we are looking to increase our presence in the FATE community. Superintendent Meria Carstarphen confirmed that if we want to make a positive impact in public education that FATE is the place to do it, and the school welcomes us with a wide range of opportunities: weekly mentoring, biweekly tutoring, volunteering with special projects, donating clothing, school supplies, and non-perishable foods, there is something for everyone! If you are considering becoming a volunteer, the first time you visit I will be happy to accompany to FATE. Contact Rabbi David Spinrad for more information: dspinrad@the-temple.org.

READING RACE: STANDING AS WITNESS AND ALLY

Monday, September 26 • 6-8 PM • America’s Original Sin by Jim Wallis
Tuesday, October 25 • 6-8 PM • The New Jim Crow by Michelle Alexander

The Temple’s recent “Hearts and Minds” conversations on racism and race revealed a considerable number of people in our congregation who care deeply about racial injustice and who want to work together as Jews to create a more just society. These conversations also demonstrated that, while our intentions are good, to become capable witnesses and competent allies first necessitates further internal learning and reflection. For those reasons, our next logical steps are small group discussions on the titles listed, along with the meeting dates, above.

Before each discussion, participants will be required to purchase and read the book in advance. Small group discussions will be led by trained lay facilitators and each evening will open and close with your clergy in the Covenant Chapel.

For more information or questions, please email Rabbi David Spinrad: dspinrad@the-temple.org. To participate in this series, RSVP to Joya Schmidt: jschmidt@the-temple.org.

SHABBAT SERVICE FEATURING ZABAN-PARADIES CENTER

Friday, September 9 • 5-9 PM in the Temple lobby

Join us for Shabbat services to learn more about a new volunteer opportunity at the Zaban Paradies Center—our Job Readiness Program. Representatives of the Zaban Paradies Center will be available to help you identify how you can participate by helping homeless couples create resumes and prepare for job interviews.

If you are interested in other volunteer opportunities, please email info@zabancouplescenter.org.

And, mark your calendars for a Zaban Paradies Center celebration on the evening of October 29th. This festive event will celebrate the center’s success and mark the beginning of a new chapter thanks to the generous contribution from Rick Paradies in loving memory of his father Dan.

Library News

The décor of the library has changed, but our collection of books still includes extensive sections on Judaica as well as fiction, biographies, histories, anthologies, art, poetry and cookbooks. In addition, our media collection is growing. Come in and check out the library. You can take out books or DVDs any time.

WE NEED VOLUNTEERS TO HELP IN THE LIBRARY

If you have a few free hours, we could use your help. We will teach you everything we learned when we became volunteers. If you can help, please contact Rochelle Friedman at 770-938-4320, friedmanrochelle09@comcast.net or Leona Young at 404-803-0964, leonagy@gmail.com
Support The Temple When You Shop at Kroger
Enroll your Kroger Plus card in the Kroger Community Rewards Program. Enrollment is easy and does not impact your savings. Visit www.kroger.com to sign in to your account and enroll using our NPO number: 75313.
You must go through the online enrollment process. Have your Kroger Plus card handy. Once you have created an account, scroll down to the bottom of the page to the Community Rewards section. Put your information in, then search for the NPO number. The name you will see will be listed as “The Temple: THE HEBREW BENEVOLENT CONGREGATION.”
Every time you shop for groceries and swipe your card, The Temple automatically starts earning a rebate. You must swipe your registered Kroger Plus card or use the phone number that is related to the registered Kroger Plus card when shopping for each purchase to count.
To verify you are enrolled correctly, you will see The Temple’s name on the right side of your information page when applying the NPO number. Enrollment takes up to 7 days to start earning money towards The Temple community rewards.

Volunteer at the Breman Jewish Home
Wednesday, September 21 @ 7:30 PM
Perfect for B’nei Mitzvah students looking for volunteer opportunities! Facilitate a bingo game at the Breman Jewish Home, and connect with Temple families and members of the greater Atlanta Jewish Community. All ages can participate. If you’re interested please contact Barbara Abend at barabara.abend@gmail.com or call 770-955-7008.

Sandwich Salon
AFTER THE CONVENTIONS…. WHAT NEXT?
Tuesday, September 27, 2016 • 11:45AM-1:15PM
It was a long, interesting primary season and the conventions have provided even more drama. Bill Nigut, political analyst and radio host will lead our discussion of local and national races and the intense political climate in America today. This is a repeat visit with Bill and he is looking forward to being part of Sandwich Salon again! Bring your friends and your lunch. RSVP by September 20 to Joya at jschmidt@the-temple.org.

Interfaith Programs
SCAVENGER HUNT THROUGH THE TEMPLE
Sunday, September 18
Toddlers and Pre-K families meet at 11:30 AM
K-5th Grade Families meet at 12:00 PM
Meet other interfaith families and learn more about The Temple (architecture, history, and fun facts) during a short scavenger hunt. Pizza will be available at 12:00 PM for all participants. RSVP by Wednesday, September 14 to Amy Lettes (amylettes@yahoo.com).

Caring at The Temple
Our Caring at The Temple program reaches out to fellow congregants during times of hardship or pastoral need, providing homemade chicken soup and challah to members who are bereaved, ill, recently discharged from the hospital, or are celebrating the arrival of a new child. We have delivered more than 500 containers of soup, and nearly every step of the program—from soup preparation, to delivery (within your zip code), to letting us know about fellow congregants in need—is led by members of our congregation.
Thank you to our Caring at The Temple volunteers who delivered soup this month: Jon Amsler, Laura Geller Church, Sandy and Duane Cox, Cyndee Dubrof, Ellen Frauenthal, Mary Anne Fry, Cantor Deborah Hartman, Elaine Koenig, Robbie Levin, Cindy Lourie, Judy Maziar, Robyn and Scott Rippes, Debbie Shelton, Jill Spasser, Sid Stein, Lisa Vayle, Ronnie van Gelder, and Jessica Landisman Williams.
To be a part of this program and to fulfill the mitzvah of bikkur cholim (visiting the sick) or to let us know who needs soup, please contact Rabbi Lydia Medwin at lmedwin@the-temple.org or 404-873-1731.

Infant-Toddler Programs at The Temple
MINI SHABBAT MORNING
Saturday, September 10 @ 9:30 AM
Join us for Shabbat fun as we journey in our imaginations to The Land of Kindness, where we begin our preparations for Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur! Following services, we’ll have a bagel snack and time on the WELC’s amazing outdoor playground (or the indoor playgrounds if the weather doesn’t cooperate). Please come dressed casually!
Infants through preschoolers and their families are invited to join us on the second Saturday of every month at 9:30 AM in the Covenant Chapel for music and a story with our puppets. There is no fee or RSVP required. Questions? Please contact either Rabbi Loren Filson Lapidus at llapidus@the-temple.org or Rabbi Lydia Medwin at lmedwin@the-temple.org.

A Selichot and Shabbat Experience
S’LACH LANU: FORGIVE US
Friday, September 23 from 6-8 PM • Snacks and appetizers will be served
Join us for an exciting program and once-in-a-lifetime experience theatre dybbuk, Southern California’s premiere Jewish theatrical arts and education company, comes to The Temple to take us on a journey through our own personal connections to forgiveness. The evening culminates with a reading, by professional actors, of the community’s stories. This is a wonderful opportunity to prepare, emotionally and spiritually, for the High Holy Days. Our regular Shabbat service will be woven into the experience. We will also prepare for the holy days by changing the Torah covers to white.
(Note: This year, there will be no Selichot service on Saturday night.)

POST B’NEI MITZVAH (for parents with children who are about to have a B’nei Mitzvah or have celebrated a B’nei Mitzvah):

Sunday, September 11th at 9:45am

Please join us during religious school where we explore the topic of “What Now?” with renowned Life Coach, Julie Zeff. We’ll discuss our evolving relationships with our teens, as well as what we can do to maximize our chances of a strong, healthy relationship with them? How can we ween ourselves from a child-centered existence? We will schmooze before and after in Schwartz Goldstein Hall, and a bagel breakfast will be provided.

SELCIHOT PAJAMA PARTY (K-2)

Saturday, September 24 @ 5:30-7:30 PM

K-2 will be having a Selichot Pajama Party in Schwartz Goldstein. Bring your sleeping bag to lounge on and your pjs, for an evening of entertainment with your family that's not to miss. Come make new friends and enjoy a lively evening. For questions and RSVP, please contact Summer Jacobs (sjacobs@the-temple.org).

Boy, we could tell you some stories:
Stories of being in the forefront of the civil rights movement 50 years ago to advocating for LGBTQ rights today; stories about members whose families have been here for five generations and stories of the 500+ preschool and religious school families who have chosen to make this their home; stories about cutting edge thinking and a dynamic senior rabbi who was ranked in the top 50 rabbis in our nation; stories about what we imagine our community to be in the next 150 years. But what we care most about is your story: who you are, what’s most important to you, how we can help you make this YOUR home. If you are interested in a deep sense of community, a way to engage in meaningful, relevant Jewish learning, a team with which you can change the world, or just a place to call your Jewish home, we are here for you.
