For more than three thousand years, Jews have turned towards Jerusalem as the symbol of our civilization. When King David conquered the city, it became far more than the capital of an ancient kingdom. Jerusalem became then—and still is today—the center of our faith, the very heart of the Jewish people. While other faith traditions have holy sites, for Jews, Jerusalem itself is holy. Jews have long believed that Jerusalem is not only a city of bricks and mortar, but it is also the very gateway to heaven.

Despite the plundering of Jerusalem over the years, no nation could ever destroy it, for it lives in the hopes and prayers of generations of Jews. The Talmud teaches that Judaism requires the restoration of Jerusalem in every generation. And in every generation of exile, pogrom, Holocaust, and Crusade, we have always known that we could return home.

Three thousand years ago, as today, Jerusalem is the embodiment of our faith, culture, history, and destiny as a Jewish people. As the Bible teaches, “Set Jerusalem above your highest joy.”

Jerusalem has always been the capital city. When King David unified the tribes of Israel, captured Jerusalem from the Jebusites, he proclaimed this already distinctive settlement the capital of Israel. David’s son, King Solomon, built Beit HaMikdash (God’s Temple) in Jerusalem. The growing city became the national center of the Jewish people. But Jerusalem is not only of our past. Since 1948, when Israel was reborn as a modern nation, the “city of Peace” has been its capital. It has been targeted by numerous armies and terrorists. At the same time, it has witnessed tremendous advances in industry, science, agriculture, education, medicine, and technology. As the capital of a democratic religious state, Jerusalem plays a central role in the middle east and world politics. Jerusalem proudly lives up to her promise to provide an open-door home to Jews from all over the world. Jerusalem is Israel, and Israel is Jerusalem.

This is not to deny that others consider Jerusalem holy. It is not to deny that the Palestinians seek Jerusalem as their capital. I am a staunch supporter of the two-state solution, and for that to be attained, there will have to be some kind of accommodation regarding Jerusalem.

But, we should never forget that American policy for many years has been to move its embassy to Jerusalem, Israel’s capital. Of course, the embassy will be in West Jerusalem. This move in no way pre-empts the eventual borders of Jerusalem nor does it preclude a permanent status agreement. There is no other nation that declares a capital which is unrecognized by the nations of the world.

To be a Jew is to feel its past, understand its stones, and dream about its future.

In the coming year, we will provide educational and spiritual opportunities to get to know Jerusalem more intimately. This is a personal invitation—study its poetry, contemplate its history, sing its songs, wrestle with its politics. We all have roots in Jerusalem—her stories are our stories. The real meaning of Jerusalem is not in its past or present but in its future.

Beineinu: The Two of Us

The Temple’s Marriage Retreat

Friday, April 13 at 5:00 PM to Saturday, April 14 at 5:00 PM • Chateau Elan
Join us for the 3rd year of The Temple’s marriage retreat. Primarily designed for interfaith couples and couples within their first 5-7 years of marriage, this is an opportunity to take a pause from the usual routine, reflect as a couple, and connect with others in The Temple community. Rabbis Lapidus and Medwin, along with their husbands (also rabbis) will facilitate the retreat. The price is $400/couple for Temple members (with a $50 additional subsidy for interfaith couples), and $450/couple for nonmembers, which includes the room, resort fee, and all meals. Space is limited so to register, please email Rabbi Lapidus at llapidus@the-temple.org.

Interfaith Couples

The Temple strives to be a warm and welcoming home for all who seek an inclusive Jewish community. Our Interfaith Committee seeks to create opportunities for connection and education for interfaith couples and families, those in the conversion process, and parents of children who are in interfaith relationships. For more information or to be added to our email list, please contact Rabbi Loren Filson Lapidus (llapidus@the-temple.org) or our co-chairs Martin Maslia (mmasliagrs@gmail.com) and Amy Lettes (amylettes@yahoo.com). Please join us for the following events (more information on The Temple’s website):

- How-To Holiday Classes (see the TAMID brochure for more information)

We are also starting Temple Connect small groups for those who are part of interfaith couples or families. We have groups forming for young interfaith couples (no kids yet), interfaith couples with young children, interfaith couples who are empty nesters/no children, and “supportive spouses/moms” (women who are in interfaith relationships but did not grow up Jewish). If you are interested, please let Rabbi Medwin (lmedwin@the-temple.org) know.
Caring at The Temple
Our Caring at The Temple program reaches out to fellow congregants during times of hardship or pastoral need, providing homemade chicken soup and challah to members who are bereaved, ill, recently discharged from the hospital, or are celebrating the arrival of a new child. We have delivered more than 500 soups, and nearly every step of the program—from soup preparation, to delivery (within your zip code), to letting us know about fellow congregants in need—is led by members of our congregation.

Thank you to our Caring at The Temple volunteers who delivered soup this month: Barbara Abend, Susan Banner, Ariela Ehrens, EllenFrauental, Elaine Koenig, Amy Lettes, Barbara & Ron Lipp, Judy Maziar, Rabbi Lydia Medwin, Fran Putney, Ellen Rafshoon, Dianne Ratowsky, Debbie Shelton, Claudia Shorr, Harold Shumacher, Jill Slavin.

To be a part of this program and to fulfill the mitzvah of bikkur cholim (visiting the sick) or to let us know who needs soup, please contact Rabbi Lydia Medwin at lmedwin@the-temple.org or 404-873-1731.

Zaban Paradies Center
The ZPC welcomes new talent to the evening group classes. If you have a particular area of expertise that would benefit the lives of people in transition we welcome you to join the team. Evening groups are held Monday through Thursday from 8pm to 9pm in the ZPC multipurpose room.

Topics range from Relationship, health and wellness, life skills, conflict resolution anger management, finance, housing and employment.

If you are interested in volunteering your time and talent to our program please contact Dr. Karyn Woods at 404-872-2915 ext. 15 or Karyn.woods@zabanparadiescenter.org.

Social Justice
On December 10, 2017 volunteers braved the icy roads and arrived at Zaban Paradies Couples Center to join the nearly 40 residents for a morning of service in celebration of Rothschild Social Justice Institute kickoff. The Poverty and Homelessness Committee in combination with the Kulanu (Empty Nesters) Small Group prepared and served a delicious brunch. But more importantly, volunteers and residents spent time getting to know each other and shared in some holiday fellowship. Due to the frozen ground, the group and one of the residents returned the following Sunday to landscape the ZPCC with 120 pansies. A much needed solar powered flood light will be installed in January and a rebuild of the Clothes Closet will be completed in the spring.

There are still some open slots for lunches and dinners. You can contact our fabulous volunteers. For dinners, Bea Feiman, Sue Lubin and Bobbi Wilson, ensure that there are dinners provided and served each evening. Robyn Ripps has taken on the lunch program and making sure there are lunches for residents. To volunteer you can go online to www.zabanparadiescenter.org for more information, or contact Randy Gorod at randy.gorod@zabanparadiescenter.org.
