Rise Up Together

The year was 2013. I was having an informal chat with Rabbi Micah Lapidus (now The Temple's composer-in-residence), about our widely known MLK Jr. Shabbat service. We were deep in conversation about choosing the right music for the right moment in a worship setting when out of the blue, Micah casually mentioned he had written a song he believed would work well in that service. Upon hearing this, even though I outwardly expressed a keen interest in listening, I was inwardly dreading the moment I would inevitably have to tell Micah that his song was not a good fit for our MLK worship service.

Within the hour, the song recording appeared in my inbox. I let it sit there for a while, and eventually summoned the courage to push "play." As I listened, my trepidation quickly turned to excitement and joy. From the moment Rise Up began to play and its melody and message came to life, not only did I know it would find its way into the heart of our MLK service, but also that it would define my musical choices for many years to come!

Since 2014, we have been using Rise Up to begin our MLK service. The combined choirs of The Temple and Ebenezer Baptist Church march in from the Peachtree Street lobby, singing through the rows of the sanctuary, to take their place in front of our congregation. Throughout the sanctuary, the sense of eager anticipation and energy is palpable and when the first chords of Rise Up are sounded, the joint communities of The Temple and Ebenezer unite in joy, fellowship, and prayer.

Throughout the succeeding years, Micah has written several other iconic pieces created expressly for our worship with Ebenezer. They define the spirit of friendship, unity, and our shared vision to make the world more just, more equal, and more righteous for all.

Although we were not able to come together in person yet again this year to rejoice in the legacy of Martin Luther King, Jr., our choirs did have an opportunity to make music together in a safe and artistically fulfilling way! Over the course of last November, forty-three members of our combined choirs came together in dedicated solo sound booths to add their voices to seven of the most loved Lapidus compositions. Gallop recording studio owner Will Robertson, Micah's longtime choral arranger and collaborator, sat at the recording controls as each singer donned a headset and sang their heart out to an instrumental track newly recorded by Micah, Will, drummer Bob Michek, and Temple pianist Judy Cole.

The result of this endeavor is an incredible recording entitled Rise Up Together, which contains the seven quintessential Micah Lapidus songs that make the music of our MLK Shabbat service so engaging, transformative, and memorable. Micah, Will and I want to express our deep appreciation to all those involved in the process, especially the choir members of Ebenezer's The J.L. Roberts Men's Choir and The Singing Sisters, and The Temple Singers. Together, we were able to preserve The Temple's MLK musical legacy so it can be enjoyed by all for many years to come!

I am so pleased to tell you that The Temple is generously providing one copy of this remarkable CD to every Temple family. The CD itself can be picked up at The Temple—simply call us and reserve your copy! If you prefer to receive the CD digitally, you can download via the QR code (see below) or use the following link to The Temple's YouTube page: <https://tinyurl.com/2p8zyckd>.

Caste: The Origins of Our Discontents* by Isabel Wilkerson

Sunday, January 23 • 7:00-8:30pm • Parts 1-3 (Chapters 1-9)

Sunday, February 20 • 7:00-8:30pm • Parts 4-5 (Chapters 10-24)

Sunday, March 20 • 7:00-8:30pm • Parts 6-7 (Chapter 25-Epilogue)

In this brilliant book, Isabel Wilkerson gives us a masterful portrait of an unseen phenomenon in America as she explores, through an immersive, deeply researched narrative and stories about real people, how America today and throughout its history has been shaped by a hidden caste system, a rigid hierarchy of human rankings. Beyond race, class, or other factors, there is a powerful caste system influencing people's lives and behavior and the nation's fate. Linking the caste systems of America, India, and Nazi Germany, Wilkerson explores eight pillars that underlie caste systems across civilizations, including divine will, bloodlines, stigma, and more. As a Temple community, we are looking forward to understanding how this history intertwines and diverges with our own. We are delighted to join the Fulton County Libraries, along with dozens of book clubs across Atlanta, to read and digest this important book. We'll break the book into 3 sections and discuss each section over the next 3 months.

Listening Party

At a backyard or Zoom link near you.

This winter, The Temple community is going to take the time to reflect on all the changes we've experienced in our lives, and how they relate to our Temple and Jewish community. We want to listen, to hear what you think must be included in our next chapter. And we want to party, to celebrate with you as precious friends and community members. That's why we are rolling out our Listening Parties, small gatherings of 10 or so friends, hosted by your peers, who will lead us in an intentional conversation that relates to new ways to engage with this historical and dynamic community. We urge you to visit The Gathering (www.thegathering.the-temple.com) to find a group meeting near you. Or, be in touch with us here (jschmidt@the-temple.org) with your interested in joining a conversation, and we'll find one for you. We can't wait to hear what you have to say!

Zaban Paradies Center

Keeping Connected with Our Community!

First, we want to acknowledge Project Connect, The Temple's youth group, who wowed us in mid-December with their fantastic Merry Mitzvah event! The residents were blown away by the delicious meal, games, gifts, and kindness of the group. We are grateful to Project Connect for working diligently to provide an opportunity for our residents to connect with the spirit of giving. What a great tradition!

Second, as a precaution, our Blue Jeans, Bow Ties & Bling event scheduled for Sunday, February 27, is postponed due to Covid. The event committee is working on the plans for a future event that will showcase the rich history of ZPC and the legacy of its founding volunteers and donors. Stay tuned for our announcement of the rescheduled date. If you are interested in being a sponsor, donating something for the mystery boxes/silent auction, or getting involved in the decorating and planning, please email Mary Wesley at mary.wesley@zabanparadiescenter.org or call 404.872.2915.

Temple Connect

Lead a Group Today!

Do you have a hobby that you'd like to share like hiking, theatre, or golf? Do you want to join with friends for a great conversation? Do you hope to meet some new people who live in your neighborhood for Shabbat Happy Hours? You could be a Temple Connect group leader! Especially with all the uncertainty of the year ahead, connecting with your own small group could be a vital step for a healthy and happy Jewish New Year. All you need to start is an idea and then email Rabbi Lydia Medwin at lmedwin@the-temple.org. We will help you organize the rest. Create community for yourself and your Temple with a Temple Connect group this year!

Join a Group!

Joining a Temple Connect group is the best way to get to know a small group of people well. Formed around interests, needs, geography, demographic or profession, group meetings take place in the home, in an office, or anywhere in the city. Groups meet regularly (usually monthly), are led by your fellow Temple members, and consist of anywhere between 3-18 people. Temple Connect is designed to inspire us and transform our lives and the world around us. We want to help you get connected. For a complete listing of Temple Connect groups, visit www.temple-connect.com.

JF&CS Synagogue Support

Through a generous grant, JF&CS is partnering with The Temple and other synagogues to provide direct support to our members. By calling 770-677-9480, you can get in touch with dedicated JF&CS staff members to access counseling and clinical services, geriatric care managers, and emergency financial support. While your Temple clergy continue to be a resource in making these connections, this special synagogue support phone number allows you to access JF&CS on your own as well.

Prevent Cancer and Genetic Diseases in your Family!

JScreen, an at-home genetic screening program based out of Emory University, now has a new screening option called CancerGEN. This state-of-the-art test analyzes the BRCA genes and over 60 other cancer-susceptibility genes to determine genetic risk for different types of cancer. This information can save lives! If testing shows there is a mutation in a cancer gene, action can be taken to help prevent cancer. As always, JScreen's ReproGEN test (for diseases like Tay-Sachs, cystic fibrosis and over 200 others) is available to those who are planning to start or expand their families. Both tests are done from the comfort of home on saliva, and telehealth genetic counseling is included. Thanks to the Jewish Federation of Greater Atlanta's Propel Innovation and NextGen divisions, Atlanta residents can now get $100 off of the already low program fee by entering the code ScreenATLat the JScreen.org checkout page.

Caring at The Temple

Our Caring at The Temple program reaches out to fellow congregants during times of hardship or pastoral need, providing homemade chicken soup and challah to members who are bereaved, ill, recently discharged from the hospital, or are celebrating the arrival of a new child. We have delivered more than 500 soups, and nearly every step of the program—from soup preparation, to delivery (within your zip code), to letting us know about fellow congregants in need—is led by members of our congregation.

Thank you to our Caring at The Temple volunteers who delivered soup this month.

To be a part of this program and to fulfill the mitzvah of bikkur cholim (visiting the sick) or to let us know who needs soup, please contact Rabbi Lydia Medwin at lmedwin@the-temple.org or 404-873-1731.

Bereavement Groups

We all know that we are living through unprecedented times. But we are also experiencing unprecedented grief. If you are dealing with loss in your life, these groups can help. Please don't hesitate to be in touch with any of our clergy for guidance towards what might be right for you.

Temple Connect Bereavement Group with the Drs. Greene

"Death ends a life not a relationship." We are so blessed that Temple members Dr. Robert Greene MD, a retired surgical oncologist and hospice director, and Dr. Barbara Greene PhD, a psychologist who specializes in grief groups, are offering a free, bimonthly bereavement group to help deal with the loss of a loved one and to honor the experiences of the bereaved. Whether you have recently experienced a loss or there's more distance in time from your loved ones passing; whether you need just one session or many; whether you want to schedule ahead of time or wake up that day discovering a need to talk about your experience – coming to this group will be an act of love for yourself and others, and way to honor of your loved ones. Available on Zoom. Email them directly at rjgbbg@yahoo.com.
