Our Yavneh Moment

Frantz Kafka once wrote a parable called The Animal in The Synagogue. He recounts the story of a wild, ferocious beast, ravenous with giant teeth. The beast makes a home in the balcony of the sanctuary, only nobody pays any attention to it.

One generation points it out to the next. The beast has been seen repeatedly, and nobody even glances at it. Children who walk into the sanctuary for the very first time hardly show any amazement. It has simply become “that animal that belongs on the balcony in the sanctuary.” Why shouldn’t the synagogue have a special domestic animal not found anywhere else?

Of course, Kafka’s wild beast is none other than the message of Judaism. Sometimes, we become so routinized that we forget our Reform mission – to change and adapt and mold to the world in which we live. That is our Reform way.

Studies have emerged recently reminding us that only synagogues able to respond to this new moment in time—Judaism in the pandemic age—will flourish and survive. Some have even referred to this moment as our “Yavneh Moment,” reminding us that in the first century, in the aftermath of the destruction of the Second Temple, Rabbi Yochanan Ben Zakkai and his disciples relocated to Yavneh where he would be instrumental in reframing Judaism for a new moment in time.

This “new normal” in secular society means there must also be a new normal in Jewish and Temple life. We are beginning the process of undergoing an historic recalibration. It is my fervent belief that our ability to embrace these new structural expressions and operational outcomes will define our success in the many years to come.

One of the many ways we are changing and adapting is by using technology. Being together in sacred community is always the optimal choice. But we have learned over these past two years, that, through Zoom, more Jews are participating in Jewish life, by engaging in Jewish learning and worship, than at any other moment in history. Recent Gallup and Pew findings even suggest a deep return to religion and revival because of technology. And so, it becomes imperative now for us to provide outstanding classes and worship services that are available both in-person and virtually. We call this new mode multi-access, for there are many ways to access Judaism at our Temple during this time.

The Temple is in the process of designing a $1.2 million dollar technology renovation. This includes a beautifully designed technology booth in the back of the Sanctuary that looks like it has always been there. This will allow technicians to control the sound and manipulate multiple camera angles. Additionally, we are putting in state of the art speakers

About Rabbi Berg:

Peter Berg became the fifth senior rabbi of The Temple since 1895 in July 2008. He is thrilled to serve this diverse and multi-generational congregation as a spiritual leader. Rabbi Berg is passionate about Jewish learning and meaningful worship, and he is an advocate for social change. A native of Ocean Township, New Jersey, Rabbi Berg holds a degree in Education and Human Development, with a focus in human services, counseling and Judaic Studies from George Washington University in Washington, D.C. He earned his M.A. in Hebrew Literature and his rabbinic ordination from Hebrew Union College – Jewish Institute of Religion in New York and Jerusalem, where he was a Steinhardt Fellow. Rabbi Berg also holds a certificate in Chemical Dependency and Spiritual Counseling and is a trained Disaster, Fire and Police Chaplain.

TAMID Tuesdays: The Temple's Adult Education

For more details on each class and to register visit www.the-temple.org/tamid.

ACCESS KEY:

Virtually Only

Antisemitism and the BDS (Boycott, Divestment, and Sanctions) Movement 📺

This class is a continuation of our October/November elective. These four weeks will focus on the BDS movement.

4 weeks beginning Tuesday, November 16 • 7:00-8:00pm

Instructors: Rabbi Peter Berg & Dr. Shelley Buxbaum

As Rabbi Berg shared in his Yom Kippur sermon, the winds of antisemitism are blowing from many directions. We will begin with a brief history of antisemitism and then turn to some of the challenges we face today. The focus of this course will be the intersection between antisemitism and BDS. We will learn together about the history of this movement, why it is so ill informed and counter-productive, and its deep roots in Jew hatred.

WELC PRESCHOOL

Thankful November

As always, every November we start to think about what we are thankful for, so this year we thought we would share what some of our WELC students are thankful for...

Weinberg Early
Learning Center
at The Temple

Andy (3) is thankful for his dad and mom.
Benji (2) is thankful for playing.
Ben (2) is thankful for his teacher.
Emma (4) is thankful for (her brother) Max giving her hugs.
Greyson (4) is thankful for his mom buying him clothes.
Jules (4) is thankful for her big sister playing with her.
Parker (3) is thankful for a rainbow toy.
Sophie (5) is thankful for being able to help her Poppy.
Wyatt (3) is thankful for a bounce house.

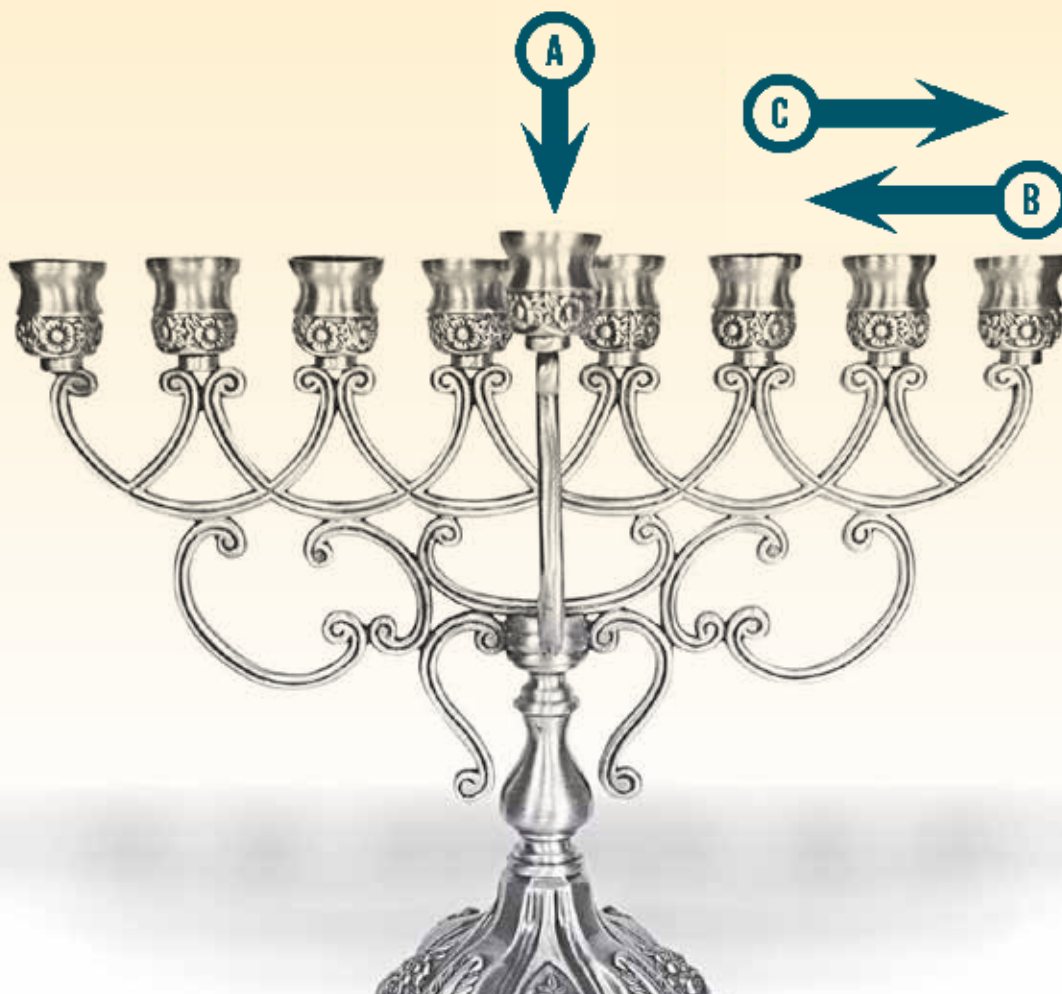

And of course, all of us at the WELC are thankful for our amazing families, teachers, and staff! Happy Thanksgiving!

CHANUKAH 2021

Lighting the Chanukiah

The lighting of the Chanukiah, or menorah, takes place soon after nightfall, or as soon as the household is together. On Friday night, the Chanukah candles are lit first, followed by the Shabbat candles, as traditionally fire is not created on the Sabbath itself. The lights should not be used for any practical purpose. They should last for at least half an hour, during which time no work should be done. The menorah is placed on a windowsill or table facing the street to publicize the two miracles of Chanukah: the miracle of the cruse of oil and the miracle of Jewish survival.

A. The shamash, which on most menorahs is set apart from the other candles, is always lit first. It is then used to light all other candles.

B. As you face the menorah, place the candles from right to left, starting with the first night, then two on the second, and so on. By the eighth night, you'll have a full menorah.

C. Still facing the menorah, use the shamash to light the candles from left to right. This allows the current night's light to be lit first.

Chanukah begins on Sunday night, November 28, 2021.

Watch your mailboxes, inboxes, and the December Bulletin for more info about Chanukah events and activities with your Temple family.

Chanukah Blessings

Each night, two blessings are recited:

*Ba-ruch a-ta Adonai, Eh-lo-hei-nu meh-lech ha-o-lam a-she-ki-d'sha-nu b'mitz-vo-tav v'tzi-va-nu
l'had-lik ner shel Chanukah*

ברוך אתה יי
אלהינו מלך העולם.
אשר קדשנו במצוותיו
וצונו להדליק נר של חנוכה.

We praise You, Eternal God, Sovereign of the universe: You hallow us with Your Mitzvot, and command us to kindle the Chanukah lights.

*Ba-ruch a-ta Adonai, Eh-lo-hei-nu
meh-lech ha-o-lam, sheh-a-sa ni-sim
la-a-vo-tei-nu
ba-ya-mim ha-heim ba-z'man ha-zeh.*

ברוך אתה יי
אלהינו מלך העולם.
שעשה נסים לאבותינו
במים קדש בזמן הזה.

We praise You, Eternal God, Sovereign
of the universe: You showed wonders to our fathers and mothers in the days of old, at this season.

Recited on the first night only:

*Ba-ruch a-ta Adonai, Eh-lo-hei-nu
meh-lech ha-o-lam, she-hecheyanu, v'ki-y'manu, v'higi-anu
la-z'man ha-zeh.*

ברוך אתה יי
אלהינו מלך העולם.
שהחיינו וקיימנו והגיענו
לזמן הזה.

We praise You, Eternal God, Sovereign
of the universe, for giving us life, for sustaining us, and for enabling us to reach this season.

Mishnah Mondays

Most Mondays at 1:00pm, starting October 4

The Wisdom of the Fathers, Pirkei Avot, is one of the most accessible and quotable sections of rabbinic literature. Come and study in a fun, informal, and friendly way with Rabbi Kaye. Learn about the world of the Rabbis, explore the roots of our Jewish tradition, and start this year off with a little more Jewish wisdom. Join us on Zoom at <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/85612379006>, Meeting ID: 856 1237 9006, Passcode: 473028.

Mini Shabbat

Saturday, November 13 • 9:30 am

Join us for this Shabbat of celebration with our puppet friends as we give thanks for the people who love us. As we approach Thanksgiving, we see that Judaism has so many ways to say THANK YOU! We will start together with our Mini friends outside in the circle, and then enjoy some yummy treats and the playground! We'll meet in The Temple's Circular Drive near the outdoor playground. Questions? Email Rabbi Lydia Medwin at lmedwin@the-temple.org.

Listening Party

November–December at a backyard near you or via Zoom

This winter, The Temple community is going to take the time to reflect on all the changes we've experienced in our lives, and how they relate to our Temple and Jewish community. We want to listen, to hear what you think must be included in our next chapter. And we want to party, to celebrate with you as precious friends and community members. That's why we are rolling out our Listening Parties, small gatherings of 10 or so friends, hosted by your peers, who will lead us in an intentional conversation that relates to new ways to engage with this historical and dynamic community. We urge you to visit The Gathering, www.thegathering.the-temple.com, to find a group meeting near you. Or, be in touch with us here jschmidt@the-temple.org with your interested in joining a conversation, and we'll find one for you. We can't wait to hear what you have to say!

Mornings with Bob Bahr: Streisand—The Making of A Legend

Wednesdays, November 3, 10, 17, and December 1 • 10-11:30am

Location: SG-C • Cost: 4-class series: $49.00 • Age & Stage: Kulanu and Sages

From her debut in 1962 on Broadway at the age of 19 in "I Can Get For You Wholesale" to her Hollywood triumph as the producer, director, and star of "Yentl" Barbra Streisand has pursued a very personal path to stardom. This four part series examines her meteoric rise and her phenomenal staying power as a world class entertainer.

RSVP to Joya Schmidt at jschmidt@the-temple.org or 404-873-1731. Questions? Contact Summer Jacobs at sjacobs@the-temple.org.

World Aids Day

Just because we couldn't celebrate Atlanta Pride this year, doesn't mean the RSJI's LGBTQIA+ group doesn't have valuable and exciting programming coming up! We look forward to commemorating World AIDS Day with the Temple community this December. Programming is still being finalized and more communications will be forthcoming.

EVENTS & NEWS

Bereavement Groups

We all know that we are living through unprecedented times. But we are also experiencing unprecedented grief. If you are dealing with loss in your life, these groups can help. Please don't hesitate to be in touch with any of our clergy for guidance towards what might be right for you.

Temple Connect Bereavement Group with the Drs. Greene

"Death ends a life not a relationship." We are so blessed that Temple members Dr. Robert Greene MD, a retired surgical oncologist and hospice director, and Dr. Barbara Greene PhD, a psychologist who specializes in grief groups, are offering a free, bimonthly bereavement group to help deal with the loss of a loved one and to honor the experiences of the bereaved. Whether you have recently experienced a loss or there's more distance in time from your loved ones passing; whether you need just one session or many; whether you want to schedule ahead of time or wake up that day discovering a need to talk about your experience – coming to this group will be an act of love for yourself and others, and way to honor of your loved ones. Available on Zoom. Email them directly at rjgbbg@yahoo.com.

JF&CS Synagogue Support

Through a generous grant, JF&CS is partnering with The Temple and other synagogues to provide direct support to our members. By calling 770-677-9480, you can get in touch with dedicated JF&CS staff members to access counseling and clinical services, geriatric care managers, and emergency financial support. While your Temple clergy continue to be a resource in making these connections, this special synagogue support phone number allows you to access JF&CS on your own as well.

Temple Connect

Lead a Group Today!

Do you have a hobby that you'd like to share like hiking, theatre, or golf? Do you want to join with friends for a great conversation? Do you hope to meet some new people who live in your neighborhood for Shabbat Happy Hours? You could be a Temple Connect group leader! Especially with all the uncertainty of the year ahead, connecting with your own small group could be a vital step for a healthy and happy Jewish New Year. All you need to start is an idea and then email Rabbi Lydia Medwin at lmedwin@the-temple.org. We will help you organize the rest. Create community for yourself and your Temple with a Temple Connect group this year!

Join a Group!

Joining a Temple Connect group is the best way to get to know a small group of people well. Formed around interests, needs, geography, demographic or profession, group meetings take place in the home, in an office, or anywhere in the city. Groups meet regularly (usually monthly), are led by your fellow Temple members, and consist of anywhere between 3-18 people. Temple Connect is designed to inspire us and transform our lives and the world around us. We want to help you get connected. For a complete listing of Temple Connect groups, visit www.temple-connect.com.

and carefully placed video screens and acoustic panels. The LED screens will allow the in-person worshipper to see what is happening on the bema up close. It will also allow speakers and those celebrating simchas from out of town to join the congregation via Zoom. This same technology will allow those at home, on vacation, or in the hospital to view and participate in services as if you were sitting in the sanctuary.

Other enhancements will include a video and podcast studio and audiovisual control rooms so that The Temple can provide well-produced content, right to your screens.

We have not abandoned being together in person. This is a sacred community in which being together matters. Yet, there will always be times when we cannot be together. We are blessed to belong to a forward-thinking community that is embracing this moment instead of pushing against the tide.

Welcome to our Yavneh moment.

l'shalom,

Rabbi Peter Berg

Caring at The Temple

Our Caring at The Temple program reaches out to fellow congregants during times of hardship or pastoral need, providing homemade chicken soup and challah to members who are bereaved, ill, recently discharged from the hospital, or are celebrating the arrival of a new child. We have delivered more than 500 soups, and nearly every step of the program—from soup preparation, to delivery (within your zip code), to letting us know about fellow congregants in need—is led by members of our congregation.

Thank you to our Caring at The Temple volunteers who delivered soup & helped unload the truck at MAC this month: Seth Bader, Ana Bader, Brynne Goncher, Harrison Goncher, Talan, Goncher, Jenny Horrigan, Ian Horrigan, Anjali Kastorf, Soren Kastorf, Madison Kedme, Daniel Kedme, Kay Levine, Megan Levine, Charlie Levine, Sylvia Murphy, Samantha Murphy, Ellie Murphy, Jenny Reiner, Mitch Reiner, Micah Reiner, Ayla Reiner, Jenna Lyn Roman, Joshua Roman, Alissa Schor & Julia Segal.

To be a part of this program and to fulfill the mitzvah of bikkur cholim (visiting the sick) or to let us know who needs soup, please contact Rabbi Lydia Medwin at Imedwin@the-temple.org or 404-873-1731.

Activities at ZPC

Our Residential Services Program began September 15. We continue to focus on improving our ability to be a compassionate resource for unhoused couples and families, and being an organization dedicated to measurable success outcomes for those we serve. Our program utilizes evening case managers to walk alongside our residents as they work towards their goals for employment, housing, and well-being. We also have community partners—who are facilitating practical evening workshops in the areas of employment readiness, effective communication, computer literacy, healthy relationships, and budgeting/credit repair—including American Consumer Credit Counseling, Men Stopping Violence, Partnership Against Domestic Violence, WrightNowSolutions (technology training), and Human Resources Consultant, Chad Renegar.

We are grateful to our many volunteers for the delicious meals provided, and the meal servers and coordinators who have come in to assist. Our couples look forward to dinner every night.

Several ZPC supporters have contacted us to ask about additional volunteer opportunities. We're always looking for ways to bring some fun into the center on Friday or Saturday evenings. If you would like to host a game or movie night, please sign up at: <https://tinyurl.com/jck9ey8>. If you are interested in offering a service such as haircuts or other activities such as crafts night, please reach out to volunteer@zabanparadiescenter.org.

With the giving season just around the corner, we would love to see you share your excitement about Zaban Paradies Center. We are open during the holidays to serve our residents and families in the community. If you would like to adopt a family or a couple, contact us for details at volunteer@zabanparadiescenter.org.

Happy Thanksgiving, Jeanette Bowden
