THE TEMPLE
What happens at the end of Yom Kippur?

In my adult life, I have had to leave some concerts, sporting events, parties, and other events early. It’s usually because of fussy kids or babysitter curfews (and occasionally because of my love of an early bedtime). Each time, I wonder what I will be missing by leaving early. There’s a little bit of FOMO (that’s “fear of missing out” for those not on social media) and, when I hear people talking about it the next day, I particularly am sorry to have missed out.

On Yom Kippur day, we have an entire day of worship and study opportunities. From services beginning at 9:00 or 11:30, to a program with our new Consul General from the State of Israel at 2:00 PM, to our afternoon services that begin at 3:30 PM, continue with Yizkor (memorial services), into Ne’elah, the closing service. The vast majority of our congregation does not stay to the very end, to Ne’elah. As someone who has left early from things, I get it. There are plenty of reasons to leave after morning services or after Yizkor is done. And, I want to offer three reasons to consider staying this year:

Ne’elah is the fastest of the worship services. It is about 35 minutes in which we are getting in our final prayers. But even more than the actual time, the liturgy moves with urgency. Throughout Ne’elah is the feeling that the gates of repentance are almost closed and this is our last opportunity to ask God to seal us for a good year. With the final Avinu Malkeinu, the final Vidui confession, and then the final recitations of Shema, we feel that we have done what we can to begin the year aware of our shortcomings and also aware of our responsibility to do our best in the days ahead.

Ne’elah is like crossing the finish line of a marathon. Have you ever run 26 miles? Me neither, but I think the feeling of accomplishment and endorphins might be similar. About 2 minutes before the end of Ne’elah, we sing Kaddish Shalem in a special upbeat melody for this occasion. You’ll see the rabbis’ shoulders relax (if you can tell under the voluminous white robes) and hear Cantor Hartman’s voice gain new momentum as she leads us. When the shofar sounds for the final time, everyone breathes a sigh knowing we’ve made it to the end of Yom Kippur. Even though we might be fasting, we feel refreshed and have renewed energy for the year ahead.

We’ll give you snacks! Did you know there are cookies after services on Yom Kippur? After we end the service, we all walk out to the front steps of the sanctuary, where orange juice, cookies, and challah await. Traditionally this is a time when we begin building the sukkah to get ready for the festival of Sukkot that begins 5 days later. We will have our Unity Sukkah already up, with the opportunity to add to it if you haven’t participated already.

Contrary to what you might think, neither God nor clergy take attendance at High Holy Day services. When we talk about services as I am in this article, it is intended as an invitation to join in, to create a tiny bit of FOMO, but not to induce guilt for opting out. Yom Kippur, whether you come for one service or all five, is an impactful and awe-inducing day. It is our annual reminder of our mortality and frailty, while also a reminder of the power of repentance, forgiveness, community, and faith.

The best part of the High Holy Days for me is seeing so many of our Temple family in one place. It is special to have a chance to wish one another a good year and reconnect in this holy season. I look forward to seeing you for any and all of our Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Sukkot, and Simchat Torah services this month!

Micah, Hadara, and Caleb join me in wishing you and your loved ones a shanah tovah u’metukah. May it be a good, sweet, healthy, and blessed year.

October Elective:

Jewish Wisdom For Everyday Living
October 28 • 7:00-8:30pm • Instructor: Greg Marcus • Cost: Free
Why is it hard to be good? The Rabbis asked themselves that question 1000 years ago, as they wondered why people had trouble keeping the commandments. The Jewish Spiritual practice of Mussar grew out of the recognition that we have an internal world, drives and impulses that make it hard to keep our cool, and do or say the right things. In today’s challenging political, cultural, and social media environment, now more than ever we need guidance on how to show up as the best version of ourselves. Come to this highly interactive session to learn how the Jewish Mindfulness practice of Mussar can help you become more present, stress less and love more.

Melton Two Year Program
Beginning Monday, September 16 for 28 weeks
7:00-9:00pm • Instructors: Rabbi Steven H. Rau, RJE and Rabbi Adam Starr • Cost: $250/person for Temple members
These two one-hour classes make up the first year of a two-year certificate program:

RHYTHMS OF JEWISH LIFE: What’s the point of living Jewishly? What ideas, beliefs, and practices are involved? This course examines a wide variety of Jewish sources to discover the deeper meanings underlying Jewish holidays, lifecycle observances, and Jewish practice.

PURPOSES OF JEWISH LIVING: Why do Jews believe as they do? What are the big questions of life and how do Jewish thinkers answer these questions? This course explores both ancient and modern responses to many of the major issues of Jewish thought and theology.

WELC PRESCHOOL

Our Mishpocneh is Growing!
This year, the Weinberg Early Learning Center is overjoyed to welcome TWENTY NEW families to our Jewish community including 9 babies in our new infant room! We’re excited to see the next generation of families prospering and choosing WELC for their early childhood care and educational needs. We have great things in store this 2019-2020 school year for our children, parents and grandparents!

Community is Key to WELC’s Success
“It takes a village to raise a child.” These words ring forever true at the Weinberg Early Learning Center. Our preschool is more than a learning center, it is a community. At WELC, the health and happiness of our families is monumental to the well-being of the students. We cultivate a kindred community by organizing events for the entire family and inviting parents and grandparents to participate in classroom activities. Our Community Committee is busy planning park playdates, post drop off noshes, so our parents can bond.

L’Dor V’dor - Instilling Tradition
From child, to parents, to grandparents to even GREAT grandparents, every generation is honored at WELC. The stories from our ancestors—ancient and modern—carry through us in an unbreakable bond. As our preschool children begin to forge their own identity, we instill a sense of connection and belonging by bestowing upon them the gift of the tales of the Torah as well as fostering a connection with their own elders in the classroom. Our teachers and staff are enthusiastically planning in-class holiday celebrations for our families and special days to specifically honor our dads, moms and grandparents.

Gratitude
At this time, we want to take the opportunity to thank YOU, our fellow Temple congregants, for helping us spread the word about WELC. YOU are a huge part of our success and growth. We are still accepting applications for our infant program. We have limited spots available this semester.

In other exciting news, we're gaining momentum with the local media about WELC’s success. Check out this month’s appearance in Atlanta Intown Magazine!

RSJI – Raising Race Conscious Children—A Three Session Workshop

Sunday, October 6 @ 10:00 am & Sunday, October 27 @ 10:00 am

This three-session community education workshop is designed to help white parents of white and multiracial Jewish children learn tools and strategies to raise children and teens who are able to actively understand, empathize with, and intervene in the struggle for racial justice in the United States and around the world. Because each session builds on the previous workshop, attendance at all three sessions is highly encouraged, but not mandatory. This workshop is ideal for any father, mother, grandparent, foster parent, prospective parent, teacher, or religious educator who wants to feel better equipped to help the young people in his or her life rise to the call to repair the world by first learning how to repair the damage we have all inherited as white people in an unequal society. People of all levels of experience thinking and talking about race are welcome to attend.

All sessions will be facilitated by E.R. Anderson. E.R. is the Executive Director of Charis Circle, the non-profit programming arm of Charis Books and More, the South’s oldest independent feminist bookstore. He is a proud life long Atlantan with more than twenty years experience working in multi-racial coalitions and with other white people to learn how to be more effective in the fight for racial justice. He currently co-facilitates a monthly Race Conscious Parenting Collective support group at Charis. E.R. serves on the Board of Directors of the National Center for Civil and Human Rights LGBTQ Institute and The Decatur Book Festival Programming Board.

Sponsored by the Racial Justice Committee of the Rothschild Social Justice Institute

Mini Shabbat

Saturday, October 12 • 9:30am Shabbat Service

10am Bagels and Coffee • 10:30am Playground

Join us as our puppets welcome guests into their Sukkah! We begin in Covenant Chapel with our puppets, clergy, and friends for prayers and guitar music. Then, we move to the Motor Lobby for bagels, juice and coffee, followed by playtime on Sonia’s playgroup outside (weather permitting). Please dress casually. There is no fee or RSVP required.

Questions? As always, please contact Rabbi Lydia Medwin at lmedwin@the-temple.org. Songs, stories, bagels, coffee & friends? An unbeatable Shabbat combination. We can’t wait to see you there!

Bob Bahr Series: Anything for a Laugh—American Comedy and The American Jewish Soul

Wednesdays, October 23 - November 20, 2019

10:30am-12:00pm • Cost: $49 per person

An examination of how Jews have largely created America’s comic tradition in the last hundred years against the backdrop of changing times and monumental changes in technology and communications. Liberal use of feature film and documentary film sources. RSVP to Joya at jschmidt@the-temple.org
Out with the Plastic, In with the Reusable!

Exciting Changes to Yom Kippur Food Drive
Starting this year, in partnership with the Midtown Assistance Center (MAC) and the RSJI Environmental Justice group, The Temple is excited to make the move from plastic bags to reusable grocery bags as the preferred bag for your Yom Kippur food donation. The Temple donates literally tons of food each year to MAC, and each year, the bags break under the weight of so much food, sometimes destroying the cans and certainly wasting the bag. The switch to reusable grocery bags helps us get the food to MAC more easily, after which we can donate the bags for use by their clients who also need tougher bags to carry their food home!

Consider using your own extra reusable bags from home, or you can grab one of our new Temple reusable grocery bags as you exit Rosh HaShanah services. And thank you in advance for your generosity in fulfilling the commandment to feed those in need.

Annual College Outreach

Sign up your student again!
Do you have a college-age student, a child at college, on a gap year, or pursuing other paths? The Temple would like to reach out, send holiday greetings and gifts, and remind them that they are still part of our Temple family, wherever that may be! Please send us your student’s new mailing address for this year so we can continue to be a part of their life. Contact Jacqueline Morris at jmorris@the-temple.org for questions and more information.

Leven Family Jewish Identity Institute
The programs of the Leven Family Jewish Identity Institute are particularly aimed towards interfaith couples (dating, engaged, married, partnered) who are figuring out the role Judaism has in their relationship and future and those who are trying to figure out what connection their children (or future children) will have to Judaism and the Jewish community. Our goal is to help you find your path into The Temple and to feel supported in your journey. For more information, contact Rabbi Lapidus (llapidus@the-temple.org) or Brian Weiss (brianweissmedia@gmail.com).

Respite Care Atlanta
A collaboration of 7 faith congregations in Buckhead has formed Respite Care Atlanta, Inc., to offer a safe place for adults with mild cognitive impairment to engage with others in stimulating activities. This program provides their dedicated caregivers with some much needed respite time. This respite care model is staffed exclusively by volunteers. At full launch, the program will operate four days a week from 10:00am to 3:00pm. All hands on deck!!! The soft opening is near… the end of the month! Volunteers are needed to make this endeavor happen! There are many options and time frames to become involved… from greeters, lunch servers, office assistants, care givers, piano players, art instructors, cooking demonstrators, flower arrangers, physical fitness instructors, gardening and dance instructors, story tellers (travel, book review, history, etc.). The list goes on and on! If you have a special talent, interest, or knowledge that could help entertain our participants with interesting, fun activities, please contact Lola Battle (batlola@att.net) or Dell Rearden (dellrearden@gmail.com). Many thanks!

We’re Collecting Things!
Don’t know what to do with empty plastic medicine bottles? We do! MedShare, a Mitzvah Day Agency, collects surplus medical supplies and used equipment from U.S. hospitals and manufacturers and sends them to hospitals and clinics in third world countries. Peel or soak off the label and bring the bottles to The Temple. Just leave your bottles at the front desk and we will put them in a barrel to be taken to MedShare.

Our Caring at The Temple

Our Caring at The Temple program reaches out to fellow congregants during times of hardship or pastoral need, providing homemade chicken soup and challah to members who are bereaved, ill, recently discharged from the hospital, or are celebrating the arrival of a new child. We have delivered more than 500 soups, and nearly every step of the program—from soup preparation, to delivery (within your zip code), to letting us know about fellow congregants in need—is led by members of our congregation.

Thank you to our Caring at The Temple volunteers who delivered soup this month: Scott Chalk, Ron & Elaine Koenig, Robbie Levin, Adam Oppenheimer, Stanley Romanstein, Randy & Marc Shapiro, Debbie Shelton, Shayna Steinfeld, Debbie Wexler, Ronnie van Gelder, Lisa Vayle, Esther Zells

To be a part of this program and to fulfill the mitzvah of bikur cholim (visiting the sick) or to let us know who needs soup, please contact Rabbi Lydia Medwin at lmedwin@the-temple.org or 404-873-1731.

Zaban Paradies Center

A new season, new residents and… new mattresses! The staff of the Center worked through the summer to ready the facility for the 2019-20 cohort of couples. Part of that included replacing the queen size mattresses that were several years old. A huge thank you to a generous donor. The residents will be most appreciative!

The 2019-20 cohort of residents will move into ZPC on October 15. As always, they will enjoy a home-cooked meal each evening and a continental breakfast every morning. In addition, the wonderfully successful brown-bag lunch program is back again. This year the goal is to provide lunch every Monday, Wednesday and Friday from October 15 – April 30.

Please consider signing up to make a simple bag lunch for our 40 residents. Lunches typically include a sandwich, chips, granola bar and/or fruit, and bottled water. Just gather a group (youth group, scouts, school club, book club, etc), find a date that works with your schedule, and we’ll provide the information to make it happen. It’s easy, fun, and a great service for the residents!

We have an online sign-up to make volunteering at the ZPC even easier for you! Just follow these three easy steps:

1. Go to www.zabanparadiescenter.org and click on the volunteer tab. Here you will register as a volunteer.
2. Look for a confirmation email that will take you to your personal volunteer page.
3. Click on VOLUNTEER JOBS where you can select the day(s) that you would like to deliver lunch.

If you have questions about the lunch program, please contact Robyn Ripps robyn.ripps@gmail.com. And, spread the word – this is a fun, easy way to provide an important service for the residents.

When you think about spreading the word about the good work that continues at ZPC, think about lending your marketing and communications expertise to our team! If you are quick with social media and would like to write short articles about what is happening at ZPC, please contact Linda Davis davis4atl@aol.com

Thanks to you, this Endowment Campaign will help establish financial stability for future generations. Creating a strong endowment is the most important thing we can be doing for the future of our beloved Temple.

Moroccan Discovery
with Rabbi Peter Berg

Embark on a fascinating and invigorating trip to Morocco, a country drenched in color and brimming in mystery. A rarity in the Arab world, Morocco boasts a long and rich history of Arab-Jewish co-existence. A journey to the four imperial cities, which all played a crucial role in Moroccan history, offers authenticity, mystique, and passion.
