Playing a Role in this year's High Holy Days

The core theme of the High Holy Days is T'shuvah—taking deep account of the soul—searching within to notice that which is not in alignment with the way we want to live our lives. Taking the time to notice where we are and what we want to change. It is, in effect, a deep cleansing of the soul; a “coming home” to who we truly are.

How do we find these moments of “intimacy” in the worship experience?

If I could sit down with every single one of you and ask the question, “Why do you come to synagogue for the High Holy Days?”, I know that no two answers would be the same—because no two people are the same. Some come to services and feel indifferent to the worship experience. We don’t necessarily even realize this feeling, but there we sit, passive attendees, hoping that the clergy will pierce us and get through to our souls.

R’ Roland Gittelsohn helps us understand what purposeful prayer is all about; “If anyone comes to worship and leaves with the feeling that he has gained nothing from it, let him ask: ‘Did I bring anything to it?’ Most often the answer to the second will supply the cause of the first.... The impact of public worship, like that of electricity, is felt only where there is a capacity for receiving it”.

The act of doing t'shuvah involves more than just showing up. It involves a dialogue—between each of us and God, between each of us and each other and between each of us and the liturgy. Dr. Rabbi Larry Hoffman calls the worship experience a dramaturgy, where each member plays a part of the unfolding drama of our liturgy.

This year, 5783, we invite you to play a part in the High Holy Day experience. There are many ways to do this:

Sing along with the familiar melodies, either with the words, or a simple lai, lai, lai. Music has a deep connection with the soul and allows us to feel deeply that which words cannot express.

Take the opportunity for introspection: browse the machzor (Prayerbook). There is no rule that says that you must keep up with the liturgy that is being spoken or sung. Find a poem, a phrase a reading that touches your heart. Our machzor is filled with beautiful alternative readings.

Close your eyes and be an active listener. Pay attention to the nuances of what you are hearing. Open your heart, feel the awe and reverence of the ancient words of our ancestors and realize that those words will still be ringing in generations to come.

Look around you and marvel at the fact that we are ALL together as a whole, taking stock of ourselves and making personal vows for the coming year. This will help you feel a sense of community and connection.

Any one of these paths will help us feel that we are a part of this beautiful worship experience; that we are in it together and that each one of us has a unique and important role to play.

I look forward to getting to know you all— Please come by my office and introduce yourself!

Wishing you a Shana Tovah,

Cantor Tracey Scher

About Cantor Tracey Scher.

Yizkor

Wednesday, October 5

If you would like the name(s) of your loved one read at Yizkor Services, they passed away during last year, and the service was not performed by one of our Temple rabbis, or the service was out of town, please call The Temple office 404-873-1731.

All Babies Born in 5782

We would like to celebrate the birth of any new life during our Rosh Hashanah Service on Monday, September 26. If you or anyone in your family has given birth to a baby since last Rosh Hashanah please call The Temple office 404-873-1731.

Kever Avot Services

"The Graves of Our Ancestors"

Sunday, October 2

11:00am @ Crestlawn Cemetery

1:00pm @ Arlington Memorial Park

We are continuing our custom of Kever Avot (The Graves of Our Ancestors) for our members. This service is held on the Sunday between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, Sunday, September 16. We will offer separate services at Crestlawn Cemetery and Arlington Memorial Park. It will be a time for us to confront our own mortality, and it will help each of us face the future with serious intent and purposefulness.

High Holy Day Food Drive & Help Unload the Truck

Sunday, October 9 @ 10:00am • The Temple's Motor Lobby

The Temple is a founding sponsor of the Midtown Assistance Center (MAC). MAC is a non-profit organization that has provided emergency assistance to the working poor of Midtown and Downtown Atlanta since 1986. As always, we continue to collect food on the High Holy Days in order to meet the critical hunger needs in our community. This expression of our unwavering commitment to social justice is a part of our proud Temple tradition. Help us unload the truck and sort and stack all of the food we collect here at The Temple.

RSVP to unload the truck by emailing Joya Schmidt at jschmidt@the-temple.org or by calling The Temple at 404-873-1731.

More about the High Holy Days, including parking information, is available on our website: the-temple.org/high-holy-days. Questions? Please contact The Temple at 404-873-1731.

EVENTS & NEWS

The Installation of Rabbi Lydia Bloom Medwin

Friday, September 9 @ 6:00pm
See back cover for details!

MUSIC@ THE TEMPLE

Meet our New Music Specialist!

We are so excited to welcome Jordan Wilensky to our Temple team. Jordan will be helping to build musical bridges between all Temple demographics, engaging with our youth and playing an active role in our worship experiences. Please help welcome him to The Temple family!

A word from Jordan:

Shalom! My name is Jordan Scott Wilensky. I am 24 years old and from Miami, Florida. I've been playing guitar since the age of ten, song leading since I was fourteen and songwriting since I was fifteen. While music is my number one passion, I also have a solid background in music tech and automotive mechanics. Music tech work includes fixing instruments and recording and producing live and studio recordings. My auto mechanic experience includes fixing cars and keeping my own car running! I just finished my sixth summer on staff at Camp Coleman, where after five years of song-leading, became the music director. In addition to song leading, I have directed bands and planned services and created fun camp musical activities.

I cannot wait to start meeting everyone in the community and begin making wonderful music together!

New Music Opportunities at The Temple!

If you or anyone else in your family loves music, please consider joining one of several new opportunities to get involved in the musical life of The Temple!

- Shir Harmony—3-5th grade meets twice a month on Sundays
- Project Shir—varied musical opportunities for 9th-12th graders, meetings TBD
- Shir Ami—Volunteer adult choir meets every Tuesday night
- Shir Chadash—Volunteer adult band plays one Friday night Shabbat service each month.

 Remember—the only thing you need to possess to join these musical groups is a love of making music! Contact Cantor Scher at tscher@the-temple.org for more information.

Mini Shabbat – Rosh HaShanah Sameach!

Saturday, September 10 • 9:30am Service • 10:00am Bagels and Coffee and BIRTHDAY CAKE • 10:30am Playground

Join us as we celebrate the birthday of the world! How do you throw a birthday party for the world? Come find out! We will start together with our Mini friends for a fun service, and then enjoy some treats and coffee and run off the energy on our playground. We'll meet in The Temple's Circular Drive—make sure to pay attention to the weather and dress accordingly, because we'll be outside! Questions? Email Rabbi Lydia Medwin at lmedwin@the-temple.org.

New Members' Happy Hour

Sunday, September 11 @ 5:00 pm

Calling all New Members (those who are new and those who still feel new)! We welcome you to join us for a happy hour at The Temple! We want to get to know you, introduce ourselves, and orient you to High Holy Days at The Temple. We are here to answer all your questions and help you get integrated at Temple as quickly as possible. RSVP to Joya Schmidt by September 1 at jschmidt@the-temple.org.

Brockey-Rothschild Institute with Scholar-In-Residence Rabbi Kerry Olitzky

Friday, September 16 through Saturday, September 17

As we head toward the High Holy Day season, we look to our teachers and scholars for inspiration and direction. We are thrilled to have just such an excellent teacher join us for a celebration of our holiday season kick off: Rabbi Dr. Kerry Olitzky.

Dr. Olitzky is executive director of Big Tent Judaism, a national independent organization dedicated to bringing Judaism to interfaith families and the unaffiliated. He is a glass and mosaic artist, an author of children's books, a leading voice in Jewish spirituality and Jewish 12-Step Programs, and an internationally acclaimed academic. For more information, check out his website: www.kerryolitzky.com.

Kulanus: Jazz Sessions – Emrah Kotan Shares his Percussion Mastery

Monday, September 19 • 6:30-8:00 pm • Chapel

Our Temple arts and culture small group, Jazz Sessions is back again for those members who have an appetite for jazz! Join us to listen, learn, and enjoy locally based Jazz Percussionist, Emrah Kotan.

Emrah is a classically-trained percussionist who came to the U.S. from his native Turkey, and is the current Director of Jazz and World Percussion Ensembles at Agnes Scott College. After playing some of the most renowned venues in the world, such as the Istanbul Jazz Festival and The Blue Note in New York, Emrah is one of the most sought-after musicians in the Atlanta music scene. His unique musical ability transcends many genres and cultures. He is involved in various musical projects of his own, he's the drummer/percussionist for Grammy award-winning artist India Arie, and we're proud to call him our Temple Percussionist for our Shabbat House Band! Aside from performing, Emrah is an enthusiastic music educator who has conducted master's classes and taught many students over the years.

We will gather at 6:30pm for refreshments and socializing; the program will begin at 7:00pm. Interspersed throughout the program, Emrah will play a variety of both global jazz and his original work.

RSVP required—email Joya Schmidt at jschmidt@the-temple.org. Questions? Contact Summer Jacobs at sjacobs@the-temple.org

Reverse Tashlich – Join Us to Clean Up our River

Sunday, October 2 @ 1:30 pm

Chattahoochee River—Inside the Perimeter, Exact location TBD

On Rosh HaShanah, Jews around the world participate in the ancient ritual of Tashlich. We go to a body of water and symbolically cast off the sins of the past year into the water to start the New Year with purity of heart. However, this is not the only time humans cast their “sins” into the sea.

Every year, approximately six million tons of human-made trash enter the water, posing health and safety hazards to the animals that call the sea their home. Marine debris is a blatant violation of the fundamental Jewish ethical principle Bal Tashchit, the prohibition against destruction of nature.

Save the Date and join your Temple family as we head to our local waterways to cast off our sins by cleaning up the river! Families welcome, Age 10+. Registration information will be published in our weekly communications.

GO GREEN for the High Holiday MAC Food Drive

Every year, our Temple Family contributes a large amount of food to the Midtown Assistance Center. This year, once again, we are shunning the use of plastic bags. On Rosh Hashanah, we will be handing out Temple logo reusable grocery bags. Please use these to bring your food contributions back to The Temple on Yom Kippur!

If you do not get a Temple reusable bag, PLEASE still bring your groceries in a reusable bag from home. We all seem to accumulate these and likely have some to spare. We will avoid the use of plastic and provide MAC clients with a lovely reusable bag for their personal use. Thank you for your efforts to go green!

THE TEMPLE

Getting to Know You! Prospective Member Coffees

Families with Kids:

September 11, 2022
11:30am at The Temple

Adults:

September 13, 2022 @ 7:00pm
at Henry Bauer's house (address provided upon RSVP)

Please tell your friends and family who are not yet Temple members to join us and meet The Temple clergy, staff, and leadership. They'll get all their questions answered and meet other prospective members. Most importantly, we'll get to know each other and how we can best serve your needs. Spread the word!

RSVP to Joya Schmidt at jschmidt@the-temple.org. If you have questions, please email Rabbi Lydia Medwin at imedwin@the-temple.org.

Caring at The Temple

Our Caring at The Temple program reaches out to fellow congregants during times of hardship or pastoral need, providing homemade chicken soup and challah to members who are bereaved, ill, recently discharged from the hospital, or are celebrating the arrival of a new child. We have delivered more than 500 soups, and nearly every step of the program—from soup preparation, to delivery (within your zip code), to letting us know about fellow congregants in need—is led by members of our congregation.

Thank you to our Caring at The Temple volunteers who delivered soup this month: Susan Banner, Scott Chalk, Adam Ganz, Debbie Levinson, Judy Maziar, Sharyn Bernard Mulqueen, Fran Putney, Robyn & Scott Ripps, Barbara Scheer-Eason, Craig Taylor, Debbie & Jack Wexler.

To be a part of this program and to fulfill the mitzvah of bikkur cholim (visiting the sick) or to let us know who needs soup, please contact Rabbi Lydia Medwin at Imedwin@the-temple.org or 404-873-1731.
