The Kortelisy Escape by Len Rosen Discussion & Book Signing

Sunday, December 2nd | 10-11:30am

TBZ member Leonard Rosen will discuss the role of magic, faith, and what he calls Tabernacle Moments in reclaiming lost wonder. The occasion: the publication of his third novel, The Kortelisy Escape, which is getting rave pre-pub reviews! Join us as Len reads a section of the book and leads a rousing discussion of the relevant issues. Light refreshments will be served. What are "aha!" moments in magic? Why do we pay money to be deceived? What's really going on in Pharaoh's throne room when Moshe, Aaron, and the court magicians duel with snakes? An argument is taking place. What has it to do with us? Come to explore and discuss! Learn why Len couldn't have written The Kortelisy Escape absent his affiliation with TBZ. RSVP to the TBZ office at 617-566-8171 or office@tbzbrookline.org.

Are you interested in living in Jewish Community? Have you ever heard of Cohousing? Cohousing is an intentional community of private homes or apartments clustered around shared space. Boston Moshav will be a Jewish cohousing community in the Greater Boston area. The vision is a modern Jewish village infused with Jewish literacy, ritual, culture... and of course food! If you're interested in learning more and exploring if this may be for you, please come to either event and get to know us!
