Sunday, November 4th, 2018

4:00pm – 5:30pm at TBZ

Have you ever struggled with how to explain a newspaper headline to a child? Or worried that current Israel education isn't striking the right balance between fostering love and connection, but also understanding complexity and nuance? You are not alone! Join us on November 4th from 4:00-5:30 pm to hear about Rav Claudia's own experiences with these questions during her family's recent stay in Israel, share your concerns with others in your community, and gain concrete tools and resources for tackling difficult Israel conversations in the future. Co-sponsored by TBZ and the New Israel Fund. Free childcare will be provided.

Phonebank for Transgender Equality at TBZ

Every Thursday until the November election | 6:00pm - 9:00pm

Next Phone Bank TONIGHT, Thursday, August 9th, 6-9pm!

This election, Massachusetts Ballot Question #3 asks voters if they want to keep current state non-discrimination law, which makes it illegal to deny service to transgender in public spaces such stores and hospitals, and which allows people to use the bathroom that matches their gender identity. Opponents are falsely claiming men will masquerade as women to attack women and children in restrooms. The work we do at these phone banks is vital to educating the people of Massachusetts about these issues, and ensuring these important civil rights are upheld.

For questions or more information about the campaign, contact Marion Freedman-Gurspan (freedgur@aol.com, 617-835-1190) or Melinda Strauss (melindastrauss@gmail.com).

Watch this 1-minute video to learn why it's important to vote YES on Ballot Question 3.
