The Conversation Project is dedicated to helping people talk about their wishes for end-of-life care. Click here for more information about the project.
in conjunction with the Wise Aging Group
Please email office@tbzbrookline.org to let us know you are coming!

Drumming during Services

A friendly reminder from the Synagogue Practices Committee:

It is our policy that drumming and playing other instruments during services be limited only to select individuals vetted in advance by the Rabbis and that all other members of our congregation and guests kindly refrain from doing so, regardless of skill level.

Mindfulness

"Every morning we are born again. What we do today is what matters most."
Gautama Buddha

"In the end
these things matter most:

How well did you love?
 How fully did you live?
 How deeply did you let go?"
 Jack Kornfield

Urgent Call to our Community

Please help us phone-bank to protect Dreamers
 Wednesday February 7, 12-1 pm at TBZ

We will be calling Congress in support of a clean DREAM Act and rejecting Trump's demands for massive, unnecessary spending on border security. We'll have phone numbers, scripts and snacks...please bring a fully charged mobile phone and charger.

For questions, contact
 Sara Fendrick sarahfendrick@gmail.com
 Julia Freedson jfreedson@yahoo.com

What's that extra table at kiddush and TBZ events? A message from the Inclusion Committee

Jews love to eat together. Through the ages, Jews have used food to celebrate holidays and life cycle events and, at a deeper level, to enhance a sense of community. At TBZ, we take great pleasure in this tradition. At the same time, we are aware that the meals we so enjoy sharing can pose serious health risks to members with food allergies. These allergies range in severity from stomach aches, head aches, rashes, and respiratory distress to the life-threatening reaction known as anaphylaxis, which can be fatal without immediate medical intervention.

Out of respect for these members, and following the principle of Kol Yisrael arevim zeh bazeh-"We are all responsible for each other"-we have set aside a special table where those with allergies or sensitivities will find an array of foods: glutenfree bagels, rice crackers, dairy-free cream cheese, hard boiled eggs and a vegan (parve) kugel.

We ask everyone to be mindful. Please do not take food from this table if you do not have a food allergy or sensitivity.

TBZ has committed to helping ensure the necessary numbers for the Monday morning minyan at Cong. Kehillath Israel (KI) on Harvard Street. We ask one or two TBZ'ers to join in this wonderful mitzvah.

Minyan begins at 7:00am

Tefillin are optional.

Email the office to let us know if you are willing to help with this effort, and to add your name to the list of KI Minyan volunteers.
