We Begin A Spiritual Quest

Jewish literary tradition uses humor and the image of the "fool" to teach existential lessons. Take this story, taught by Hanokh of Alexander:

Once there was a man, called Golem, who had trouble keeping track of his clothes. He lost his clothing so often that he realized he had to devise a scheme, so he would not end up naked in the village! So one day, he got a pencil and a piece of paper and wrote down where he was placing each article of clothing. He placed the note next to his bed and thought to himself, "Tomorrow I will have no trouble finding my clothes!"

He awoke the next morning, and, quite pleased with himself, took the note and followed it to the letter. He found each piece of clothing exactly where he had set it down. Within a short period of time, he was fully dressed.

Suddenly, he was seized with a terrible, terrifying thought: "But where am I!?" he cried. "Where in the world am I?"

He looked everywhere but could not find himself.

"And so," taught Hanokh of Alexander, "so it is with us."

The man had dressed himself—on the outside—but what had happened to his inner self?

It is important to note that the name of the man is "Golem"—a robot-like man who is completely empty inside. Rather than empty of brains, however, the story seems to be implying that he is devoid of maturity or spiritual growth. He is enveloped in clothing, but devoid, and scared, of what he really needs. Come explore these questions with me on Sundays, September 11, 18 and 25 from 9:30-10:30.

The story is a lesson—what is outwardly dressed must be inwardly addressed.

As we approach the High Holy Days, we begin a spiritual quest. We have the opportunity to confront the fundamental questions of our existence: "Where am I? Who am I? Why am I here? What should I be doing here?"

Through prayer, reflection, conversation and study, let us be clothed—and found.

Shana Tovah U'metukah—To a Sweet and Good Year.

From Brett's Desk

I often write bulletin articles that revolve around time, particularly the seasons. I find that marking the passage of time helpful and somehow comforting.

This bulletin certainly lends itself to the same kind of writing, as the High Holy Days, school, and our full programming season are upon us.

After a few years at ST-KA, it's clear that like the planet, we too, have seasons. High Holy Days, membership, programming, annual appeal, and more. Sometimes, I feel as though we are hamsters on a wheel—certainly getting our exercise, but are we getting anywhere?

I hope that I can answer that question with a yes, mostly!

Membership is headed in the right direction and gifts to Open Doors are increasing. Attendance at programs is strong. Religious school participation is terrific and if you haven't spent time on a Sunday morning in the lobby, you should! Talk about great energy!

Finally, we are blessed with a wonderful board of trustees. We meet approximately 8 times annually. The dates can be found on our online calendar as well in the Bulletin calendar. Kim Rosner, our president, has asked that we try to be more transparent about what occurs at the board level, so please look for board updates in the Bulletin and online. If you have questions about what the board does, please just ask.

As we enter the High Holy Days, may we all be inscribed for a year of good health and happiness.

From our President: A Sweet New Year

I've learned over the years that everyone has a favorite holiday on the Jewish calendar, with Passover and Chanukah seeming to be perennial favorites. Personally, I find Rosh Hashanah to be the most meaningful. As the secular calendar is an opportunity to re-set one's GPS with all types of life style resolutions, the Jewish New Year is as well. It may not be the same type of resolutions such as a weight loss challenge—that focuses on one's physical being—but something more spiritual in nature.

As Temple President, praying on Rosh Hashanah is a larger communal experience, with the entire congregation coming fully together for one of the few times of the year. It's at this time that I experience something very special: the feeling of something new and clean is in the air. We pray, we eat, we wash our sins away with the rite of Tashlich. We not only ready ourselves for the next ten days of introspection leading to Yom Kippur, but we get excited about new beginnings in our Jewish world. Maybe you have enrolled children in religious school; maybe you are considering stepping up to participate in a new way. Some of you are even leading one of the committees or task forces that keep our congregation humming. We invite our members to do Friday night blessings—no Hebrew involved. No time? The Temple has a long wish list of needs, some large, some small, but all that will make a difference in the place we pray. All good things for a sweet new year.

No matter the leadership, hard work, or task list that I face, worshiping with our congregation gives me an opportunity to celebrate all that is good in the world. I look forward to praying on Friday evenings, a respite between the week gone by, and the week ahead. Praying on Rosh Hashanah, as we face the new year, a clean slate of open possibility. Praying together brings me comfort in knowing that for all of our differences, we are still one people. I look forward to seeing you!

From our Director of Lifelong Learning

New Year, New Schedule, New Ideas, New People, & New Excitement!

Our new school year begins on Sunday, September 11, and I have lots of news to share with you! This year we are going to be shaking up the schedule a bit and adding some new and exciting programming.

For some time now, Rabbi Vann and I have had the goal of incorporating a regular Tefilah (prayer) experience into our religious school program. We both believe it is a vital component of a personal and meaningful Jewish education. Through the generosity of one of the grants we received from the Jewish Education Center of Cleveland, we have hired Cantor Dave Malecki to help make this program a reality.

Students will have Tefilah every other week by age group. Rabbi Vann, Cantor Dave, and I will be the leaders, and as the year progresses, we will have the students help us to lead as well. This gives them the opportunity to develop their Tefilah skills and leadership skills.

Cantor Dave is new to the Cleveland area, and was ordained a few months ago at Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion in New York. During his time as a cantorial student, he worked with students of varying ages both at his student pulpit at Temple Beth Israel in York, PA, and as an education intern at Brooklyn Heights Synagogue in Brooklyn, NY.

We are so pleased that Dave will be joining the ST-KA family this year, both helping to lead and teach Tifilah in religious school, as well as being our new Come Grow With Me Shabbat. I know you will all give him a warm welcome!

In order to include Tefilah into our program, we have made a couple of changes to our weekly schedule. Z'man Kehilah (Community Time) will no longer take place weekly. However, we look forward to gathering as a community for special programs like the Israeli Cafe, the Experiential Seder, and the All-School Jewpardy Game."

Additionally, our Kolaynu students (8th–12th graders) will now have one hour as madrachim (student aides), one hour as students themselves, and a half hour each week to gather all together informally to be with each other and build community. What a gift!

I am so excited for the "news" this year will bring, and I can't wait to greet you all on September 11!

Lifelong Learning

Unless otherwise noted, please RSVP for all programs to Miriam Golenberke by emailing MGolenberke@suburbantemple.org or by calling 216.991.0700 ext. 101

Come Grow with Me Shabbat

On September 16, at 6 pm join us for a brief, interactive, and fun Shabbat service, followed by Shabbat dinner for families with very young children (0-9 years old). This program is free, but please RSVP!

Hebrew Marathon

Have you always wanted to learn to read Hebrew, but never thought you had the time? Well then we have the class for you! Come learn to read Hebrew in just one day! Join Rabbis Vann and Nyer on Saturday, September 24 from 2-6:00 pm for a Hebrew Marathon. The fee for the class is $36. Please RSVP to Dale at DHopkins@suburbantemple.org or by calling 216.991.0700 by Friday, September 16.

Menchkins

Purple apples? Red Shofars? Blue bumblebees? Let your imagination run wild on Sunday, September 25 at 10-11:15 am as we create High Holy Day cards with artist Mimi Becker. Mimi encourages bright abstract art through color, line, shape and form. Together we will uncover the artist with in all of us. Our "studio" is Coffee Phix

Café 4485 Mayfield Rd, South Euclid. In addition to holiday card making, we will share a story or two and enjoy some refreshments. This program is free, thanks to a generous grant from the Jewish Education Center of Cleveland, but please RSVP.

Parent's Night Out

Would you like a date night? Or a night out with friends? Let our professionally trained teachers, Kathy Klein and Heidi Mell, and their assistants watch your children while you go and enjoy yourselves! All children 1 year and older are welcome to join us October 29, from 6-9:00 pm for a pizza dinner, activities, havdalah, and a movie in pajamas. The cost is $10 per child with a maximum of $25 per family for the whole evening!

Adult Education

Journey of the Heart: Getting the Most out of the High Holy Days

A three-part workshop with Rabbi Vann

On Sundays, September 11, 18, and 25 from 9:30-10:30 am, in the Gries Library of Suburban Temple-Kol Ami, Rabbi Vann will present an interactive class designed to prepare and teach about the High Holy Days. How can we make these sacred days meaningful and personally impactful? What do the main prayers and songs mean? In what ways are they relevant?

Save The Date!

Consecration

Suburban Temple-Kol Ami family, you are invited to celebrate with us as our newest students are Consecrated (a formal welcome to their Jewish education) at Shabbat services on Friday, October 21, beginning at 6 pm. The students will recite the Shema, be blessed by Rabbi Vann and receive their very own baby Torah. Do not miss this opportunity for our whole congregation to kvell (beam with pride and joy)!

Simchat Torah

The Torah is our sacred text. After we come to the last word in Deuteronomy, we immediately begin again with the first words in Genesis. On Sunday, October 23, come rejoice in our gift of Torah as our members read from it and we dance to joyous music provided by the Workmen's Circle Klezmer Orchestra. To participate in the service by reading a line of Torah, please contact Rabbi Shana Nyer at snyer@suburbantemple.org.

Kolot Kol Ami Sings for N'ilah Service

For the third year, our volunteer choir, Kolot Kol Ami, will participate in our N'ilah service on Yom Kippur. This is a very moving portion of our High Holy Day liturgy, and the added participation by our congregational choir makes it even more meaningful for us as a community. If you are interested in joining Kolot Kol Ami this year, no previous attendance is necessary. We will be using the same music as the past two years, so our "veterans" will be a great support system for new singers.

The rehearsal schedule will be as follows:

Tuesday, September 20 at 7 pm

Thursday, October 6 at 7 pm

Sunday, October 9 at 5 pm

The service will take place on Wednesday, October 12 around 5 pm.

If you are interested in participating, please contact our interim Music Director, Laura Lindauer at ljindauer@gmail.com or 440.781.7673.

Calvary Church Supper

For more than 20 years, Suburban Temple-Kol Ami members have been cooking and serving meals at Calvary Church at 79th and Euclid Ave. The next dinner is scheduled for Wednesday, September 28. We need volunteers from 4-6:30 pm to set up, serve the guests, and clean up. To sign up please contact: Sandy Lusher-Waterhouse (spruce50@gmail.com or 440.498.8282).

SUKKOTAPALOOZA

On Sunday, October 16 from 9:30am-1:30pm we will have our annual congregational Sukkot celebration, SUKKOTAPALOOZA. We will come together as one community to celebrate our fall harvest festival and to offer gratitude for our blessings. Our celebration will include the building and decorating of our congregational sukkot, learning sessions for all ages, tikkun olam opportunities, lunch, ritual and more. There will be something for everyone from babies to bubbies, so we invite you all to join in the fun.

Greetings From Kol Nashim

I can't believe that the summer is winding down already and we are gearing up for back to school! With back to school comes the new religious school year. We hope to see all of our religious school families for opening day! Kol Nashim will help welcome everyone back for an exciting school year with a bagel breakfast that first day. I look forward to experiencing our religious school hallways filled with conversation and laughter again!

We have many exciting events planned for this coming year. I hope you will be able to join us for some of the old favorites; JCC Book Festival, Chanukah dinner, Kol Nashim Shabbat Service, Women's Seder, and for some new programs in the year to come as well! Please see the article following this column about our September 18 get together! In addition, our book club will meet for the first discussion on September 15 at the home of Nancy Huntsman at 7 pm. We will be discussing The Secret Chord by Geraldine Brooks. Please RSVP to the Temple office and you will be given the address at that time. Finally, please save the date, November 16 for our annual author event that we host in conjunction with the JCC Book Festival. The event is free and open to the public but does require reservations. Author Uri Bar-Joseph will discuss his book, The Angel: The Egyptian Spy Who Saved Israel. It promises to be an exciting read and a wonderful evening so look for more details to follow.

Very soon you will have received a letter from Kol Nashim explaining our purpose and asking you to join. If you have not yet sent your membership form and payment to the Temple office, please consider doing so. It is through your membership that we are able to continue supporting our religious school, many Temple family life-cycle events, and fostering fellowship among our women members with programs.

As always, if you have any questions or ideas for Kol Nashim, please do not hesitate to contact me at STKAKolNashim@gmail.com or 216.534.6286. I hope your family eases seamlessly out of summer and into a sweet new year!
