Our Mission

Congregation Or Ami strives to be a warm and welcoming center of Jewish life built on the foundation of Torah (Jewish Text and Tradition), Avodah (Spiritual Fulfillment), and G'milut Chasadim (Acts of Lovingkindness). We embrace the varied needs and rich diversity of our congregants, our community, and the Jewish people. We endeavor to create an inviting and inclusive community that promotes spiritual fulfillment for our congregants and supports their search for God. We take pride in the strong partnership among our clergy, professional staff, lay leaders, and congregants. Guided by Jewish values, we are strengthened by our active volunteerism and informed decision-making. We uphold the principles and ideals of the Reform movement and are a member of the Union for Reform Judaism.

A day at the Norristown Hospitality Center

By Debra Delano Brenner, Chairperson of COATZ

On Monday, June 25, COATZ spent the day at the Norristown Hospitality Center on Church Street in Norristown. The Hospitality Center is the only day shelter in downtown Norristown that provides food, shelter, a shower, a place for the homeless to receive mail, a fax, and has two social workers on staff there each day. This center provides breakfast five days a week, and it's the only public place in Norristown where a person has the ability to take a shower daily with provided toiletries and towels. Additionally, it is a Crisis Management Center that provides the people that come there with immediate access to social workers and addiction counselors, and it is funded completely without government money.

I have to admit that I was definitely nervous about going to the Norristown Hospitality Center for the first time because I really did not know what to expect. Ironically the woman who I had delivered a Thanksgiving basket to two years ago through COATZ, (who has become someone that has inspired me and that I've become close to), was the one who made the connection with the Center and came up and coordinated the whole sandwich and baby wipe idea.

I loved the idea from the minute my friend suggested it and I decided the best way to let the people at Or Ami know about this project would be through a sign up genius. Therefore, a sign up genius link was available to all congregants which allowed them to sign up for various things. Countless members donated Wawa gift cards, cases of water, and variety pack of chips. Some of the Or Ami members made sandwiches and donated baby wipes. Two of our members, Susan Hoffman and Jill Connolly, joined me at the hospitality center and were so wonderful with all of the people that were there.

The Wawa gift cards that Or Ami members donated were really amazing because it was Hoagiefest at Wawa, which allowed us to purchase more than thirty classic Wawa hoagies that they cut in half to make sixty-plus individually wrapped hoagies. Thank you to the other Or Ami members who took the time to make turkey and ham and cheese sandwiches. This allowed us to provide over 100 sandwiches for the people there!

As we pulled up to the hospitality center there was a young guy sitting outside with all of his belongings in one suitcase on wheels. He was very nice and helped us carry all of the stuff inside. As we were setting up, I looked around and took note of all of the people who were so excited for the lunch. The people that were at the hospitality center eventually were told that they could line up and start getting some lunch. They couldn't have been more appreciative as they lined up! They loved the fixings that Wawa had sent with me like the lettuce, tomatoes and onions. They loved picking the chips to go with their sandwich and every single person took a package of baby wipes.

As I stood there and looked around, it made me wonder what each person's story was and what it would be like to walk in their shoes. One gentleman came over and stood with me and told me how he had so much and lost so much. He was such an intelligent man and was so well spoken. My heart broke as he shared his story.

The people that were at the center had the best manners. They couldn't have been more appreciative for the sandwiches, chips, and things. After lunch was over, I told them that I would be coming back again. I asked them what were some of the other things they liked to eat? Many of them replied, "We like anything. We appreciate anything."

I left there feeling so good. It truly was such an amazing experience! It reminded me personally of something that I tell my children all the time, "You have to step out of your comfort zone sometimes."

One person can't do this alone, it takes an Or Ami village to make these special things happen with donations, gift cards, volunteers, etc. We will continue to partner with the Norristown Hospitality Center and get involved throughout the year, so please look for other exciting opportunities to get involved!

Gifts for any occasion at Or Ami's Gift Shop

Whether you need a screening, initial consult or second opinion, the team at Lankenau Medical Center, part of Main Line Health, is known for its expertise in colorectal care. A heritage built by Dr. John Marks—one of the world's foremost colorectal surgeons whose experience includes more than 3,000 minimally invasive colorectal procedures—and his father before him, whose techniques remain the gold standard in colorectal surgery. What's more, with his partner Dr. Henry Schoonyoung, sphincter preservation here at Lankenau is achieved 93 percent of the time vs. the national average of 40 to 60 percent. Which means most of our patients avoid a permanent colostomy bag.

So whatever your colorectal concerns, let's face them together. Here at Lankenau Medical Center. Visit mainlinehealth.org/markscolorrectal or call 610.645.9093

The Or Ami Board of Trustees "Buries the Hatchet"

On Thursday, July 12, some of our board members got together at Bury the Hatchet, where they were able to show off their targeting skills! Immediate Past President Larry Paul was the night's big winner with a bull's eye!
