A Home Yizkor Service

Yizkor is a time set aside to formally include in our thoughts and prayers family and friends who have passed away. Though Yizkor is recited on each of the festivals, on the High Holy Days we may feel a special connection to those who have played a significant role in our life's journey. This year in particular, as we participate in High Holy Days services from home, we include the central Yizkor prayer here in print. On pages 290-293 in the Maḥzor Lev Shalem, you may find additional prayers and readings to add.

May the memory of those we recall be a blessing...

(In memory of male relatives or friends):

May God remember my _____,
who has gone to his eternal home. In loving memory to his life, I pledge tzedakah to help perpetuate ideals important to him. Through such deeds, and through prayer and remembrance, may his soul be bound up in the bond of life. May I prove myself worthy of the many gifts with which he blessed me. May these moments of meditation strengthen the ties that link me to his memory. May he rest in peace forever in God's presence. Amen.

(In memory of female relatives or friends):

May God remember my _____,
who has gone to her eternal home. In loving memory to her life, I pledge tzedakah to help perpetuate ideals important to her. Through such deeds, and through prayer and remembrance, may her soul be bound up in the bond of life. May I prove myself worthy of the many gifts with which she blessed me. May these moments of meditation strengthen the ties that link me to her memory. May she rest in peace forever in God's presence. Amen.

A Special Prayer for Those Not Saying Yizkor for Parents

The following prayer may be recited by worshippers who are blessed by having their parents still living while others are reciting Yizkor:

Almighty God, while those who have lost their parents and their dear ones call to mind those who have gone to their eternal rest, I at this solemn moment raise my eyes unto You, the Giver of Life, and from a grateful heart thank You for Your mercies in having preserved the life of my beloved father and mother.

May it be Your will, Adonai my God and the God of my ancestors, to bless them with health and strength, so that they may be with me for many years to come. Bless them even as they have blessed me, and guard them even as they have guarded me.

In return for all their affection and the sacrifices which they have made for me, may I bring them joy and lighten their cares. May it be my privilege to help them in every way that lies within my power; may I learn to understand and recognize the duty I owe unto them, that I may never have cause to reproach myself when it is too late.

Shield my home from all sorrow. May peace and harmony and Your spirit ever reign within its walls. Keep me true to You and to all with whom I come in contact so that I may do Your will with a perfect heart, my Creator in Heaven.

Amen.

A Reflection on Death

If life is a pilgrimage, death is an arrival, a celebration. The last words should be neither crazing nor bitterness, but peace and gratitude. We have been given so much. Why is the outcome of our lives so little? Our embarrassment is like an abyss. Whatever we give away is so much less than what we receive. Perhaps this is the meaning of dying: to give one's whole self away.

Unless we cultivate sensibility to the Glory while we are here, unless we learn how to experience a foretaste of heaven while on earth, what can there be in store for us in life to come? The seed of eternal life is planted within us here and now. But a seed is wasted when placed on stone, into souls that die while the body is still alive.

The greatest problem is not how to continue our lives but how to exalt our existence. The cry for a life beyond the grave is presumptuous if there is no cry for eternal life prior to our descent into the grave. Our greatest problem is not how to continue but how to return. "How can I pray unto the Lord in all His bountiful dealings with me," Psalm 116:12 asks. When life is an answer, death is a homecoming.

This is the meaning of existence, to reconcile liberty with service, the passing with the lasting, to weave the threads of temporality into the fabric of eternity.

This is the meaning of Death, the ultimate self-dedication to the Divine. Death so understood will not be distorted by the craving of immortality: for this act of "giving away" is reciprocity on man's part of God's gift of life. For the pious human, it is a privilege to die.

Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel

We Remember Them

At the rising of the sun and at its going down,
We remember them.

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
We remember them.

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring,
We remember them.

At the shining of the sun and in the warmth of summer,
We remember them.

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
We remember them.

At the beginning of the year and at its end,
We remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live;
For they are now a part of us,
As we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength,
We remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart,
We remember them.

When we have joy we crave to share,
We remember them.

When we have decisions that are difficult to make,
We remember them.

When we have achievements that are based on theirs,
We remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live;
For they are now a part of us,
As we remember them.

Jack Riemer & Sylvan Kamens

In Memory of Congregants Who Died During the Past Year

We lovingly recall the members of our congregation who have passed away since we gathered at this season last year*. They have a special place in our hearts.

Exalted, compassionate God, comfort the bereaved families of this congregation. Help all of us to perpetuate the worthy values in the lives of those no longer with us, whose names we respectfully recall:

Marty Adler
Herb Berkowitz
Marcos Brujis
Nan Fried
Barbara Kaplowitz
Dorothy Kulik
Robert Levinson
Ephraim Levin
Richard Meltzer
Joel Miller
Jerome Morenoff
Bernard Narrow
Honey Rosen
Carol Schulman
Sheldon Solomon
Herb Stone
Joan Weintrob
Carol Witt

May their memory endure as a blessing. And let us say: Amen.

**Deaths occurring after Sept. 10th will be included in next year's book.*
