FASCINATING FACTS IN JEWISH HISTORY

This week, 11 Nissan, marks the Yahrtzeit of Rav Moshe ben Nachman, the Ramban, (1194/5 –1270). Rav Moshe ben Nachman was born a scion of a renowned rabbinical family, in Gerona, Spain, where he lived most of his life. Rav Moshe ben Nachman was a renowned Talmudist, Kabbalist, and Halachist.

Commonly spoken of as the Ramban (after the initials in his name Rabbi Moshe Ben Nachman), or as Nachmanides, he was described by the Ari HaKodosh (Rabbi Isaac Luria) as the last of the ancient Kabbalistic school, who received direct transmission of the mystical secrets that were later concealed.

The Rivash (Rav Yitzchok ben Sheshet Perfet) wrote of him: “All his words are like sparks of fire, and the entire community of Castille relies upon his halachic ruling as if given directly from Hashem to Moshe Rabbeinu.”

The Ramban also studied medicine, which he practiced professionally, as well as languages and physics. He was a defender of tradition, and authored major works defending earlier Rabbis against critiques by later sages, and he wrote the famous Iggeres HaRamban, an ethical will to his children. All of Ramban’s works are part of the core curriculum of contemporary Torah studies. Ramban penned an account of his public disputation in defense of the Torah in Barcelona with the convert Pablo Christiani in 1263. After the disputation, the Ramban sojourned in Castille of Provence, where he began writing his monumental Torah Commentary, unique in that it not only interprets the verses, as does Rashi and others, but also analyzes the topics, presenting them from a Torah perspective. The Ramban’s commentary on Torah is multi-dimensional, including all methods of interpretation from straight forward explanation known as pshat to esoteric Kabbala.

Ramban held that the mitzva of settling Eretz Yisrael applies even after the destruction of the Temple. In 1267, at the age of seventy-two, after a difficult journey and much suffering, he settled there himself, in Acco, a Torah center at that time. Ramban spent Rosh HaShana in Yerushalayim, which was in a deplorable condition as a result of the havoc wrought by the Crusaders. He designated a desolate house as a shul, and brought in a Torah scroll from Shechem (Nablus). In this shul, he gave a derosha (sermon) on the laws of Shofar, and exhorted the inhabitants of Eretz Yisrael to be exceedingly careful that their actions be righteous, for they were like servants in the King’s palace. With Rambam’s help, the Jewish community in Yerushalayim, which had all but ceased to exist, began its revival. He passed away in the Holy Land in 1270.

Famous birthdays on 11 Nissan include the recent Lubavitcher Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem Mendel Schneerson a”h, and the current Dunwoody Rebbitzin, Rebbitzin Dena Friedman.

REFLECTOR BELTS

The Orthodox Union is spearheading a safety initiative to encourage the use of safety reflector belts and will provide safety reflector belts to all shuls in their network free of charge. These reflector belts can be worn over coats and other garments and provide enhanced visibility even in low light conditions. Studies have shown that increasing pedestrian visibility utilizing bright colors has great potential to enable drivers to detect pedestrians and cyclists earlier, potentially avoiding tragic accidents.

If any of our congregants are interested in obtaining one of these belts, please email shuloffice@congariel.org by Thursday, April 18th, 2019.
