

TAS ONLINE NOW!

To stay safe and active in our increasingly isolated lives during this crisis, we have gone online with all services, study, education, programs and launched a community care initiative. Family, youth and school engagement to follow separately.

Friday, March 20- 8pm Shabbat Service

Until further notice, services will be streamed using Youtube Live. This seems to be the best option for us, for now. A link to the service will be mailed out tomorrow, Friday March 20.

This is all new for us, so thanks for your patience!

Saturday, March 21

Shabbat (Saturday) Torah Study, 9:15-10:30am (click title for Zoom invite)

It isn't called Wrestling with the Torah for nothing.

Take on the weekly Torah portion each Shabbat with a diverse and engaged group of regulars, new faces, and backgrounds.

This week focuses on building physical sacred space. A timely topic as we look to build that space now in our own homes. Join us!

10:30 Bar Mitzvah of Zack Rabinowitz (our sincere apologies for previously stating it was Jake's Bar Mitzvah)

Our heart truly goes out to the Rabinowitz family and to everyone who had a life cycle event scheduled at this time of crisis and challenge. A Youtube Live link to the service will be mailed out tomorrow, Friday March 20, where we can witness Zack lead our service.

Sunday, March 22

10am Adult Ed with Rabbi Jim (click title for Zoom invite)

Even, or perhaps especially, amid Coronavirus, we cannot close our eyes to the systemic suffering of others. This Passover, be up to speed on modern slavery and human trafficking. Tikkun Olam focused adult learning on the $150 billion a year industry of modern slavery, what Judaism has to offer, and what we can do in 10 seconds, 10 minutes, 10 hours, and at this year's Passover Seder.
