FROM RABBI JIM STOLOFF ...

High Holy Day Prep: It's not just for clergy...

...or lay leaders, or office staff, custodians, and the many volunteers it takes to create a meaningful high holy days. The time to start thinking about, and preparing for, the High Holy Days is now. And it's for everyone!

We are now in the Hebrew month of Elul, the month before the High Holy Days. Because it is the month preceding our most sacred and introspective time of year, the entire month is seen as sacred and introspective. There are many special traditions for this month that Jews have practiced over the centuries. Here are a few things that can be done at home, at TAS, and online to have meaningful moments as we head into Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.

Community Study and/or Prayer: Join us for any service or study opportunity between now and the holidays, and by design you will get some of the preparation that comes with Elul. Be in our sacred space in person or digitally, hear the shofar blown at services, or engage in study where the themes of the upcoming holidays present themselves. Most notably for the holidays, join us for Slichot on Saturday night, August 28.

Individual Study and/or Prayer: Judaism emphasizes the communal, but some things are individual or even personal, especially about Yom Kippur. Elul gives us time to consciously take time for ourselves. This can be traditional prayer or study, as well as anything that focuses on self-improvement: meditation, yoga, cooking & baking, the outdoors, reflection, and even therapy can be part of Elul, with the right intention.

Sign up for Jewls of Elul (jewlsofelul.com): This one you can do right now, and have a bit of Elul in your inbox or on your phone when you want to take a Jewish moment for yourself. Each day of Elul has a meaningful message, leading us into the High Holy Day season.

Connect with friends and family, including those no longer with us: This past year and a half has left us disconnected in ways we could not have anticipated. Family, friends, meaningful connections...many have dropped off with the onset and continuation of COVID. Building back up those connections is part of Elul, including maintaining connections with our loved ones who have died. Visiting the cemetery and saying kaddish for those we miss is a long Elul tradition.

Bat Mitzvah of SAMARA BARTH

Practice Tshuvah (it really works!): Of course the biggest focus of Elul is repentance, or in Hebrew, tshuvah. Judaism teaches that we can make mistakes against God, against ourselves, and against others. For mistakes against God and ourselves, Yom Kippur grants atonement for those who seek it. But for mistakes made against other people, we must seek out forgiveness from those we wronged and attempt to make restitution. A blanket “I’m sorry to everyone I’ve wronged” social media post doesn’t do it. It must be personal, and genuine. It isn’t easy, but nothing is quite as rewarding as practicing tshuvah.

So I encourage everyone: try one or all of the above this Elul. Tailor what you choose to do to yourself. If you do, I promise it will make the High Holy Days even more special this year.

Rabbi Jim

FROM THE PRESIDENT

It's summer and that means that we at TAS are well into planning for the High Holidays. Easy-peasy. We have a list that we've compiled over the years of things we need to do every year. We take out the old schedules, tweak them for any changes, design and print the tickets, order the extra chairs, etc.

Oops!

Like last summer, this summer is still a bit different, to say the least. But we have last year to build on. Now that's good news and bad news. The good news is that we don't need to reinvent the virtual wheel. The bad news is that we are still operating at not quite full speed. As I write this, the plan is to have in-person services as well as streaming them online. In order to accommodate that you will see some changes in the High Holiday schedule when you receive it.

For more good news, in addition to all the online events we have had, we've been able to reopen the building this summer for services, Torah study and a few events.

And we have some great things coming to our Religious School, and lots of events planned for the next year.

Now, this doesn't mean that we are opening fully yet, there are still steps to take but we are moving in the right direction. As restrictions are loosened, we will continue to progress towards full in-person participation. Our protocols will change as needed and we will keep you informed as they do.

They say that the more things change, the more they stay the same.

We may still look different for a while, but we are still the same great community.

And above all, keep staying safe. I hope to see you all soon.

Steve

FROM THE EDUCATIONAL DIRECTOR

I was scrolling through Facebook lately when I came across a post that had been made in a group (as should be to no one's surprise, many of the Facebook groups I'm in are related to Jewish life and Jewish content). The post expressed anger over a targeted ad that had shown up on the writer's News Feed which showed a mother dragging her child on the ground with the caption, "This is not the Hebrew School your parents dragged you to!"

I could make an entire list of why this ad is harmful and sexist, but the issue that I'd like to focus on can be summed up in one of the comments that was left: "It also perpetuates the harmful narrative that Hebrew school is something that can't be enjoyed, and it harms subsequent engagement."

This past year was challenging for our students, teachers, and families, but despite that, I saw smiling children every single time I went into a Zoom classroom, and all the more so when we had in person events. I can only imagine how much bigger those smiles will get when we're back together in person this year (following all safety protocols as instructed on a Temple-wide level).

Our students do love being here, but that love starts at home as well. Simply put, students who are told at home that Religious School is terrible but they have to go anyway will have no desire to be actively engaged Jewish learners.

So we need your help. Send your children with a smile on your face. Come into the building and shmooze at one of our many Java Nagila get togethers or parent learning sessions throughout the year. Come to Family Shabbat; come to any Shabbat! We are so happy to be coming back together in person this year and owe it to ourselves, our community, and our students to set them up for happiness and learning. Do not drag your kids to TAS, but hold their hands and show them how lucky they are to be Jewish.

On Sunday, June 12, 2021, We honored Peggy Schneider with the Ruth and Lawrence Shavelson Award, Russell Sagerman and Joel Rosenblatt with the Barbara King Hineni Award, and Ilana Seltzer with the William C. Brudnick Award

We celebrated in person with a Festive Oneg at the Temple and as our first large gathering back in the building, it was an event to remember! Thank you to all who came, and all who assisted, and all who purchased journal ads. We also need to express a special thank you to Sharon Sagerman and Larry Altman, who arranged the venue, ambiance, and food. It would not have been the celebration it was without their generous gifts of time, talent, and connections. They truly stepped up and said hineni – THANK YOU !

Now, moving on to our bright future at TAS.....

Our first event will be the Carousel cake sale in November; we do all love those cakes and pies ! This will be followed by the year end challenge in December; the theme is yet to be determined. Next up – the raffle, (or some other game of chance) hopefully to happen in March or April as in years gone by, rather than May. And then we'll be gearing up for the 2022 Awards event and ad journal !

Check out our TAS Wish List !

A great way to show your gratitude for all the hard work our TAS leaders have done through the year of Covid would be to give something tangible that is needed. You will find a variety of different ways to pay it forward, at all different levels, and we need your help now more than ever before. Click on the link, or see the written Wish List in the following pages. Go to the Wish List, select something that speaks to you, and give back to TAS; you'll feel really good when you're done!! <https://www.avodatshalom.net/how-can-i-help>

Order a Yahrtzeit Plaque if you'd like to honor a loved one's yahrtzeit in a beautiful and meaningful way. These plaques can be engraved with your departed's name and date of passing (Hebrew year, secular year or both). They are hung on the Sanctuary wall for a period of time close to and including your loved one's yahrtzeit date. If you are interested, please call the Temple office for more information.

Stay tuned as we slowly get back to normal. It's been a rough year, but we are still together and still a vibrant Temple Community

Enjoy the Summer!

Lisa and Amy

TIKKUN OLAM COMMITTEE

Civic Engagement Campaigns

TAS, together with RAC-NJ and national RAC (the Religious Action Center of Reform Judaism), has been busy over the summer, and we are planning for the Fall.

RAC-NJ is participating in the RAC's national Freedom to Vote campaign, advocating in support of the For the People Act (H.R.1/S.1) and the John Lewis Voting Rights Advancement Act (H.R.4), both of which are essential to protecting the right to vote. To date, RAC has set up meeting with more than 40 Senators across the country, both Republican and Democratic. On August 4th, TAS members together with more than 200 other Reform Jews across the state meet with Senator Menendez's staff to advocate for passage of these Bills. Then on August 12th, we joined more than 275 Reform Jews across the state to meet with Senator Booker himself. At the meeting, Senator Booker said he wanted to "awaken people to engage in democracy." He went on to say:

And what is patriotism. It's a love of country, but you cannot love your country, unless you love your fellow countrymen and women.... Love is not sacrifice, or sentimentality. Love is sacrifice, love is service and as one writer says What does love look like in public. It looks like justice.

In August, TOC members met to plan our fall civic engagement campaign, which will include meetings with candidates for the NJ Assembly and/or Senate in districts in which our members live. We also will be working with RAC-NJ on the Double Your Impact Campaign. In 2018, the last year the entire legislator and the governorship were up for election, only 39% of the registered voters voted. Our goal is to make sure at least 80% of TAS eligible voters vote in November. The voting process has again changed in 2021, and we will make sure our members know how to vote and we will help them make a voting plan.

Poll Workers Needed

This November, for the first time, we will have early in-person voting in New Jersey ahead of the General Election. Ahead of the implementation, we wanted to provide voter information resources about the early in-person voting process. The early voting period this year will be from Tuesday, October 23rd to Sunday, October 31st. Early Voting Locations will be open from Monday through Saturday from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Registered voters can vote at any designated early voting site in their county. We have all read and heard about the shortage of poll workers since the pandemic. The need is even greater because of early voting. Poll workers are currently paid $200 per day and there is the ability to work up to 10 days. Teens who are at least 16 can also work shifts at the polls.

The online poll worker application is here: <https://nj.gov/state/elections/pollworker.shtml>.

Standing Against Anti-Semitism

The Mystical Origins of Tikkun Olam

From My Jewish Learning:

“Tikkun olam” (Hebrew for “world repair”) has come to connote social action and the pursuit of social justice. The phrase has origins in classical rabbinic literature and in Lurianic kabbalah, a major strand of Jewish mysticism originating with the work of the 16th-century kabbalist Isaac Luria.

For more information, see https://www.myjewishlearning.com/article/tikkun-olam-repairing-the-world/?utm_source=mjl_maropost&utm_campaign=MJL&utm_medium=email.

Looking Forward

The Tikkun Olam Committee is always looking for new ideas and programming and new members. Please email justice@avodatshalom.net or call Nilene Evans directly.

A Gift for the Future of TAS

When asked what TAS means to our congregants, many of our congregants say “family” or “home.” That is a wonderful thing for our temple community!

If you consider TAS to be part of your family, if you consider TAS to be a home away from home, perhaps you would consider leaving a part of your future estate to TAS. Is there a better place to leave your legacy than to your family, to improve your home?

Please call the Temple office to learn more about how to include the Temple as one of the beneficiaries of your Will, retirement plan, life insurance or IRA.

KIPPAH FUNDRAISER

Order Kippot for your special celebration (Bar/Bat Mitzvah, Wedding) through the Temple and help support our Parents' Association who help fund many of our children's activities.

TEMPLE AVODAT SHALOM BIRTHDAY BOOK DONATION PROGRAM:

Celebrate your child's (or grandchild's) birthday with a book donation to the Temple Avodat Shalom Library!

The program is simple. You send in a donation for $18.00, which will be used toward the purchase of a new book. The books will be available in the library for your child to select.

On or near their birthday, the librarian will have your child choose a book. A bookplate with your child's name, birthday and the school year will then be placed inside this book. Your child will be the first person to check out this personalized book and bring it home to share. Children with birthdays in June will choose a book in December, July in January, and August birthdays in February on their "Half Birthday".

Thank you in advance for participating in this wonderful program to help expand our library! If you have any questions, please email school@avodatshalom.net

HANDY PEOPLE NEEDED TO HELP SENIORS and DISABLED PERSONS

Want to enjoy a really rewarding experience? The Chore Service, sponsored by the Bergen Volunteer Center, helps keep Bergen County seniors and people with disabilities safe in their own homes. Chore volunteers perform minor household repairs that these vulnerable people can't do themselves nor get anyone else to do, and that can make a huge difference in the quality of their lives. These repairs are performed at no cost to the people, other than the cost of the materials used in the repair. For those on a fixed income, these savings could mean the difference between paying a professional a fee just to evaluate a situation, and whether there is money for food or medicine!

A Chore volunteer should be able to perform the kind of minor repairs that any able-bodied homeowner must do: replacing broken locks/doorknobs, installing washers in faucets, replacing electric outlets or switches, installing grab bars and hand railings, putting in/taking out small air conditioners, even changing light bulbs! The Chore Service has three vans that are sent throughout Bergen County 5 days a week. A volunteer would be assigned one day a week to a crew that performs 4-5 service calls per day.

Chore offers a great volunteer opportunity for retirees or people who work second and third shift jobs. Call Maureen at (201) 489-7790 to find out how satisfying it can be to use your handyperson skills to lend a hand to those in need.

Adult Care Brief Drive

Hosted by the Kaplen JCC on the Palisades during July

Help us give seniors freedom to remain social and independent.

25 million older Americans experience urinary incontinence.

25% of New Jersey seniors cannot afford food and other basic needs.

Without absorbent products, older people become isolated at home and fearful of joining social functions and trying new activities.

Please donate today and help us create smiles for seniors in need!

Collection bins will be at the Kaplen JCC on the Palisades entrances.

For more information contact Marlene Ceragno at mceragno@jccotp.org or 201.569.7900 ext. 439

KAPLEN JCC on the Palisades TAUB CAMPUS | 411 E CLINTON AVE, TENAFLY, NJ 07670 | 201.569.7900 | jccotp.org

- Incontinence is the second leading cause of institutionalization.
- 25 million Americans suffer from urinary incontinence
- 25 % of Bergen County seniors live below the poverty level
- There are currently no programs that offer financial assistance to seniors in need of adult “briefs” or other incontinence products, making these necessities for independent living unattainable “luxury” items.
- Adult products of this kind cost upwards of $100 a month, and with social security benefits averaging $874 a month, purchasing them is not possible for millions of adults.
- Having access to these items are a “basic human need,” allowing senior adults to remain mobile, social and productive. Without them, many healthy older people would be trapped in their homes, fearful of joining social functions, trips to libraries or the movies, or even attending their own grandchild’s wedding!
- Seniors who remain socially active remain healthier, both physically and emotionally, and since people are living longer and leading more active lives, it is critically important to invest in programs that can help them afford products that will allow them to remain engaged in their community. The cost of not providing them will be astronomical by comparison to the care costs incurred by the need of early institutionalization and other health problems!
- Unlike babies, who outgrow the need for diapers, incontinent adults will bear this cost for the rest of their lives.

A recent study indicates that 25% of our New Jersey seniors cannot afford basic necessities. They are not eligible for Medicaid yet their Social Security check does not cover food, medications and adult absorbent products. Did you know that there is no government funding for adult care briefs? (formerly known as adult diapers) Without these products many seniors would be trapped in their homes and unable to attend social and/or family events. People are living longer and leading more active lives. The Adult Care Brief Bank was developed to collect and distribute absorbent products to those in need. Through drives, similar food drives or collections, The Kaplen JCC on the Palisades, Englewood Hospital and Medical Center, The Academy of Holy Angels, The New Synagogue of Fort Lee, St. Joseph’s Parish, Bergen Family Center and other venues including networking events have collected over 120,000 products. The items collected are distributed to individuals in need through local agencies such as the Center for Food Action, Meals On Wheels of Bergen County, and Pascack, Visiting Homemaker Home Health Aide Service of Bergen County, Jewish Family Services, Bergen Family Center, the Southeast Senior Center for Independent Living (SESCIL) and more.

All it takes is an email blast and a collection bin. Oh yea, a bit of media always helps©
