Message from the Rabbi

Israel was established 68 years ago and its birthday is on May 12. It is wise to reflect upon the meaning of its existence. Many can remember what it was like to grow up in a world with no safe haven for Jews. Seventy years ago which country was willing to take in those of our people who desperately sought refuge from murderous states? Which country was friendly and which was not?

The questions themselves speak to the fundamental role Israel plays for modern Jews. We have a place in the world now. We have a land to call our own, a land which is dedicated to protecting us physically and nurturing us spiritually.

It is ironic that Israel is currently one of the most dangerous places for a Jew to live. Our enemies have publicly stated their intention to destroy the State with bombs or armies or terrorist attacks. Yet, when I traveled to Israel in late February, the feeling of being threatened was much different than anywhere else in the world. That is because in other parts of the world Jews must depend upon non-Jews to defend them (law enforcement agencies, political bodies or the like) but in Israel Jews themselves decide how they will respond to belligerent action. In the diaspora Jews must work the political system to feel secure; in Israel Jews are the system.

The lessons of Jewish survival were learned only too well during WWII. It is independence and power that are necessary to survive. "Never Again" was the cry and that meant that never again would we depend upon others to secure our protection. When Israel came into being its most essential purpose was to protect the people. Not the United States or the United Nations could tell Israel what it must do in order to survive; only Jews would do that.

To the rest of the world, and even to many Jews in the diaspora, Israel has often appeared to be using its power in overbearing ways. No nation is perfect, to be sure, but nothing is more liberating than the responsibility which comes with independence. The decisions which are most important - the decisions regarding security and survival - are now Israel's and Israel's alone to make.

We can only pray that Israel will also fulfill its mission as a spiritual homeland for all Jews, that the tensions between the Orthodox and liberal communities will lessen and that all branches of Judaism will have a fair share in the spiritual life of the Land. "Kulanu Yehudim" - "We are all Jews" - is the simple rubric we must emphasize. The unity of the people depends upon us recognizing that our common destiny is more important than our present divisions.

As American Jews, we must support Israel and in particular those causes that work for the unity of our people. We must teach our children that all Jews are responsible for one another. We must continually reestablish our ties to Israel and reconfirm our love for the Land.

L'shalom,

Rabbi David Katz

Education Director Message

Sunday, May 1st was our last session of Religious school for the year.

I want to take this opportunity to thank you all for opening your hearts to me and allowing me to be your Education Director. I have learned a great deal about our school this past semester and I now know for sure that this is where I want to be and work to continue making the school grow.

Please look out for the registration packets in your child's book bag – they all went out Sunday!

Please feel free to contact the school if you have any questions.

I want to wish you all a fun and safe summer vacation.

Shalom and see you soon,

Molly Peled

Message from the President

The year is wrapping up and I would like to express how honored I have been to serve as the President of CDT over the past two years. Our annual meeting is scheduled for Sunday, May 15th at 10:00 a.m. Please make every effort to attend - we will be voting on a new slate, some bylaw revisions and next year's budget. I hope that you received the news that we entered into an agreement with Javitz Academy. They will be operating a full time preschool in our building beginning this fall. I would like to thank the Executive Committee, the Board of Directors, the clergy and staff as well as the numerous committee heads, committee members and volunteers in the congregation for all of their support over the past two years. The incoming board has already been planning for next year. Please stay tuned for the many events that we have scheduled for remainder of the year as well as the upcoming year!!

Social Action

Spring is definitely here, and most of us have the allergies to prove it! We have runny eyes and sniffles but we have the resources to buy allergy meds, tissues and eye drops. Imagine, not being able to get what you need to stop from feeling miserable or from getting sick. The children and adults who live in Uganda don't have the resources to get adequate foot coverings to prevent against getting jiggers (sand fleas that grow in colonies). So, as one of our new Tikkun Olam projects, we will be collecting denim jeans (old and new – clean ones please) and plastic containers from milk, juice or laundry detergent, and cutting them using a premade pattern and sending them off to have shoes made from them.

We will be announcing a date when we as the CDT community can get together and do a hands on Mitzvah by cutting up these denim coverings and plastic supports, and sending them off to be made into shoes for the needy!

Also in May, please look for the kick off of a new way to help in the elimination of food insecurity in the Greater Atlanta Metro Community by stepping up our food collection for the Atlanta Community Food Bank. Our new program “Homes Against Hunger” is coming to CDT soon! Please watch for details on this program and how to sign up for the “painless” way to contribute food.

Thank you to all those who contributed to the JF&CS Kosher Pantry Food Drive and to those of you who volunteered your time, efforts and food for the Zaban Shelter this past month!

Looking forward to May and June being exciting months on the Social Action front.

First CDT Networking Program A Success!

by Darryl Berman, Co-Chair

After months of planning we finally launched our first networking program featuring a CDT member, Dan Frey from Giant Worldwide as our first guest speaker. Dan made an excellent presentation entitled, "THE FIVE GEARS: HOW TO BE PRESENT AND PRODUCTIVE WHEN THERE IS NEVER ENOUGH TIME".

The program was well received with 17 people attending our early breakfast program March 17th. Special thanks to Russell Shuster from the CDT Membership Committee for sponsoring the bagels and coffee.

Dan Frey taught us why we should learn more about our unique personality traits and how they can give us better insights into creating stronger relationships in our careers, in the community and with our families. If you are interested in participating in future training program information please contact Dan Frey directly at: dan.frey@giantworldwide.com

CDT Member, Dan Frey, speaking at the March 17 Business and Career Network breakfast.

We dedicated this program series to the late Scott Saban who originally launched a similar CDT program back in 2009 and who I credit with teaching me how to use LinkedIn, the now popular business social networking website.

Our 2nd program by Lisa Winton entitled, "ENTREPRENEURSHIP: LESSONS LEARNED" was also very well received on April 21st and broke a record with 24 advanced reservations. More details about our April program in the next newsletter.

Be sure to join us for our 3rd program in the series on May 19th at 7:30am to hear Susan Grundwald present: "FIVE(5) MARKETING TIPS & TRICKS THAT GET RESULTS". Check your email soon for details and register on EventBrite.com.

FUNdraising at Gwinnett Braves

As of this writing, CDT volunteers worked our 1st Gwinnett Braves game of the 2016 season on Sunday, April 17th which was a beautiful day for baseball! So far the GBraves are leading the International League with the best record and expect good attendance this season, in part, due to the Atlanta Braves rebuilding efforts. Thank you to Tim Anderson, Sheldon Fages and Allan Slovin, who joined me at Burgertopia, behind home plate, at Coolray Field. We had a great time while earning money for CDT!

Unfortunately, we had no volunteers for the very first Saturday game. That was disappointing and a missed opportunity to earn FUNdraising dollars. Let's try to avoid those kind of bagels!

The good news is that we have some upcoming games with 6 volunteers. When we have 6 or more volunteers, we earn the full 10% of the concession proceeds. With fewer than 6 volunteers we receive a lower percentage rate and get assigned to smaller concession stands. Last year, we didn't get to work any April games, so we're off to a better start in 2016 and still have another game at the end of the month.

Let's fill all the May game dates with 6 volunteers: May 1st, 7th & 8th, 28th & 29th

Sign up now at www.tinyurl.com/GBravesSignUp2016. Saturday games start @7:05 pm and Sun games start @2:05 pm. Volunteers report to work 2+ hours in advance of game time, as the gates open 1 hour prior to the start of the game. You should wear comfortable sneakers (or close-toe shoes), khaki shorts/pants and a white collared shirt. Volunteers must be at least 18 years old and volunteers ages 16 & 17 must obtain a signed parental consent form.

For more information, contact Howie Rubenstein at gbravesfundraiser@dortamid.com or log onto the SignUpGenius website at www.tinyurl.com/GBravesSignUp2016.

CDT / Gwinnett Braves FUNDRAISER

Help CDT raise money in a fun environment - selling concessions at Gwinnett Braves games at Coolray Field. We need 8 people to volunteer on each of the dates below - CDT will earn 10% of sales.

Volunteers must be 18 years or older.
16 & 17 year olds must have a signed waiver from a parent/guardian.

What is involved: Volunteers will arrive at the time posted below - 2 hours prior to game time - and will serve food and work as cashiers. The Gwinnett Braves will provide a friendly & knowledgeable stand manager to insure that everything runs smoothly.

Outside of school and his extracurricular activities, Jason is an avid fan of video games.

Sam is a 7th grade honors student at River Trail Middle School. His curious and inquisitive nature make History and Science his favorite subjects. Sam also plays the trumpet in the River Trail Symphonic Band and hopes to continue to play trumpet in high school with the Northview Jazz Band or possibly the Titans Marching Band. In his free time, Sam enjoys, boating, wakeboarding, spending time at the lake with his family and friends, music, and video games.

Because of his love of video games, Sam has devoted his Bar Mitzvah project to an organization named Get-Well Gamers, which helps to collect new and gently used video games and video game consoles to donate to children's hospitals and pediatric wards across the country. Children's Healthcare of Atlanta is just one of those hospitals. Sam will continue collecting these items and look for other ways to help out this organization.

CDT ENGAGEMENT INITIATIVE

What is The CDT Engagement Initiative and how does it help you, our members?

Webster's defines: engagement: as involved, present, teamwork. i) an agreement to be married ii) the act of becoming engaged or the state of being engaged to be married; iii) a promise to meet or be present at a particular place and time; a job as a performer.

Our synagogue is our family. The committee has been given the commitment to strengthen that marriage through spiritual, social and family value engagements for every member of our synagogue. We have watched our religious services attendance grow, Torah study has never been so vibrant. Social awareness programs like the recent Kosher Food Pantry drive and Adult Education have benefited greatly from your participation. Even our fabulous Shabbat Oneg has seen increases in participation from families after services and our wonderful bakers. All facets of CDT are being strengthened. Our initiative is just that, a beginning, a start, fuel to ignite the spark of CDT. Once started, it will be carried by you, our families into the future. We thank you for being pioneers in what will certainly keep our synagogue strong for many generations.

If you have questions, please feel free to check the CDT website for FAQ's, or email moments@dortamid.com.

JEWISH HOLIDAYS THIS MONTH

YOM HASHOAH יום השואה

(Thursday, May 5) Yom HaShoah, also known as Holocaust Remembrance Day, occurs on the 27th of Nisan. Shoah, which means catastrophe or utter destruction in Hebrew, refers to the atrocities that were committed against the Jewish people during World War II. This is a memorial day for those who died in the Shoah. The Shoah is also known as the Holocaust, from a Greek word meaning "sacrifice by fire." In Israel, it is a national memorial day and public holiday. It was inaugurated on 1953, anchored by a law signed by the Prime Minister of Israel David Ben-Gurion and the President of Israel Yitzhak Ben-Zvi.

YOM HAZIKARON יום הזכרון Israel Memorial Day

(Wednesday, May 11) The Israeli Knesset established the day before Yom HaAtzmaut as Yom HaZikaron, a Memorial Day for soldiers who lost their lives fighting in the War of Independence and in other subsequent battles.

YOM HAATZMAUT יום העצמאות Israel Independence Day

(Thursday, May 12) Yom HaAtzmaut, Israeli Independence Day, marks the establishment of the modern state of Israel in 1948. It is observed on or near the 5th of Iyar in the Hebrew calendar.

LAG B'OMER ל"ג בעומר

(Thursday, May 26) Lag B'Omer, is a Jewish holiday celebrated on the 33rd day of the Counting of the Omer, which occurs on the 18th day of the Hebrew month of Iyar. One reason given for the holiday is as the day of passing of Rabbi Shimon bar Yochai. Modern Jewish tradition links the holiday to the Bar Kokhba Revolt against the Roman Empire (132-135 CE). In Israel, it is celebrated as a symbol for the fighting Jewish spirit.

The Omer was an ancient Hebrew measure of grain. The Book of Leviticus (23:15-16) also commands: "And from the day on which you bring the offering . . . you shall count off seven weeks. They must be complete." This commandment led to the traditional practice of S'firat HaOmer, or "Counting the Omer." The seven weeks of counting the Omer spans the 49 days between the second day of Passover and the beginning of Shavuot. Thus, S'firat HaOmer links the Exodus from Egypt with the giving of the Torah at Sinai. Each evening of the 49 day period, Jews say a special blessing, recite a prescribed formula for counting each day, then read a psalm and a special prayer. Excluding the first verse, the psalm has precisely 49 words.
