Rabbinic Reflections

Dear friends,

When you receive this, I will have been serving Congregation Dor Tamid and its families for four months. These past months have been exciting, challenging, and a great learning experience for me as you and I have come to know each other and begin our relationship together. It has been a truly great four months, but on the weekend of November 10th and 11th, I will be honored to formally assume the role of senior rabbi of Congregation Dor Tamid. Some of you will point out that since I am already the senior rabbi, this celebration seems to come a few months too late. It has been a privilege to worship with you, teach you and learn from you, to share in joyous meals and celebrations as well as moments of sadness and loss. However, while I have been on the job for four months as your new rabbi, an installation weekend gives us the chance to formally ritualize the process. It is a chance to reflect not only on this special moment in my life but the sacred role that this congregation plays in each of our lives.

On Friday night, November 10th, beginning at 7:30 pm, we will join together in our beautiful sanctuary to celebrate Shabbat together, to express our appreciation for the past, and to share our hopes and prayers for the future. After our Torah scrolls are passed through, and from, the congregation to me, my teacher and friend, Rabbi Ken Kanter, will officially install me as your Senior Rabbi. We will then celebrate together at a festive oneg Shabbat. Then, on Saturday evening, November 11th, we will gather together at the Metropolitan Club for a night to "Celebrate our Future." If Friday night represents the formalization of our relationship together, Saturday represents all of our excitement for what is possible in the future. Rabbi Kanter will again be our speaker on Saturday night where, along with our Cantorial Soloist, Mike Zuspan, he will present an interactive musical tribute to "The Jews of Tin Pan Alley." Come celebrate and sing along with us!

This should be a very exciting weekend for the congregation as we formally take a step into our future together. I hope you will join me.

B'ahavah,

Rabbi Jordan

President's Message

November. Really, it's already November??????

The High Holy Days are past us, but let's not forget that we have just spent time asking for forgiveness. We also have a lot to be thankful for. In that spirit, I have a ton of people to thank. So many in our community worked tireless hours for months and months in preparation for our High Holy Days. From our Clergy to the Choir to the office and maintenance staff to our High Holy Days Committee, Co-Chaired by Jackie Berger and Nancy Mittler. I also want to thank those who came to CDT to help build our Sukkah.

I am excitedly looking forward to our upcoming Installation Weekend. On Friday night, November 10, join us for Shabbat services as we formally install Rabbi Jordan as our Senior Rabbi. Then join us the following night, November 11, as we Celebrate our Future with a fun night of food, drink entertainment and most importantly, community. This celebration will be held at the Metropolitan Club. Please RSVP for this fun night at <https://secure.acceptiva.com/?cst=0cc869>.

You should all be aware of our fundraising campaign, Kulanu B'yachad, All of us Together. With this campaign, your donations will be matched! What does this mean? If you donate $1,800, CDT receives $3,600. This is HUGE!!!! Special thanks to our "Angels" responsible for the matching funds. Please donate using this link: <https://secure.acceptiva.com/?cst=80a892>.

As the cooler weather is finally upon us, we have a lot to be thankful for. I wanted to let you all know how thankful I am for all of you being part of such a special Community. Hope to see you all during our Installation Weekend!!!!

This is your CDT!

The Campaign for Our Future Match Challenge

A packet with all the details of this exciting campaign was mailed to all members. If you did not receive yours, please contact KulanuCampaign@dortamid.com.

The challenge is on!

A small group of generous 'angels' has offered a gift of $125,000 to Congregation Dor Tamid if our members join together and collectively match or exceed their gift by December 31.

Can we count on your to help meet the challenge?

We hope that you will take great pride in being part of The Campaign for Our Future: Kulanu B'yachad – All of Us Together!

The Engagement Committee is excited to begin the third year of this great program! We would like to thank the 142 congregants who completed our survey and the 116 people who donated Moments this year! The goal of this program and our committee is to help increase CDT's sense of community through engagement by fostering a sense of connection. We finished off last year with Moments that helped create the shofar choir over the high holidays, and we are busy starting off this year by connecting people with Moments for our upcoming Adult Ed Sessions, baking for Rabbi Jordan's Installation weekend and other events that are in the works.

We have started something new this year by providing each CDT committee with a liaison on our Engagement Committee. This will allow us the opportunity to work closer with the planners in our community and create Moments based on their needs as well as our participants' interests and skills. We are excited for this new year and look forward to making some connections through Moments!

If you did not complete the survey and donate Moments and would like to participate in the program, it's not too late! Also, please remember that Moments do not carry over from year to year. Congregants must complete this year's survey to continue to participate. Simply go to the website (www.dortamid.org) and click on the link to the survey. It's that easy!

Education Director's Message

Sukkot is one of my favorite Jewish holidays. It's such a fun holiday! It brings people together.

I want to take this opportunity to thank our President, Rob Lederman, VP of Men's Club, Dan Rosen, Eric Kranowitz, Steven Kushins, Keith Spolan, Bob Eisenhardt, Chris Rosa, Jeff Reisman, the Lord family, Natalie Shakhnovsky, the Granit family, Mr. Teddy and Justin Zandstra for helping built CDT's sukkah this year.

The students got a chance to be in the sukkah, decorate it, learn about it and even shake the Lulav and Etrog in it. The most important Hebrew word I teach during Sukkot is "Ushpizin" – which means "guests". The biggest mitzvah during Sukkot is inviting guests to sit with you in your sukkah. Every year in Israel my family had a sukkah. Now we have CDT's sukkah to enjoy and for that I will always be grateful.

Watching the 6th, 7th and 8th graders pray together in front of the sukkah and having an Israeli dinner together warmed my heart. We must be doing something right around here!

Also this month, our Derech Tamid students started their school year. The grades are currently mixed and they are all learning about the different milestones in a Jewish life cycle, from a Bris/Naming to funerals. They are learning what happens during these events, why Jews do what we do and how are they different from other milestones from different Jewish sects and different religions around the world.

It truly is a great feeling having everyone at CDT on a Sunday.

Enjoy the cool weather outside, enjoy your family, enjoy life!

Shalom until next month,

Molly Peled

Fran Simon

Many of you may already know Fran Simon but did you know that Fran is in her 4th year of working as the Executive Assistant/Rabbi's Assistant at CDT and has worked continuously the past 17 years at various synagogues in different administrative areas? Fran and her husband, Steve, moved back to metro Atlanta after living seven years in the DC area where he served as a Captain in the US Navy. Steve "Doc" Simon retired from the Navy two years ago and is a professor at Mercer University's business school in Atlanta. They have two sons and a daughter, all married and each with their own children. Their oldest, Ben, is a US Navy aviator and is stationed in New Orleans, LA with his family after living in Naples, Italy for almost three years. Fran's middle son, Adam, and family live in East Cobb and he is a CPA and Senior Manager at PWC. Her daughter, Julie, received her Masters in Atmospheric Sciences from Georgia Tech and currently works as the Energy Efficiency Program Manager for Georgia Power. Julie lives in Brookhaven with her husband and children. Fran says that "my children are my brightest and best achievements!" She and her husband now have six grandchildren ranging in age from 4 years to 6 weeks and they are the lights of their lives.

A brief message from Fran: "I am privileged to work with some pretty awesome people here in the CDT office! I have also gotten to know many of our congregants and see that CDT has the distinction of bringing together a diverse group of people who are interested in community, education, friendship and teamwork. My hope is that I have made my own small positive mark at CDT and that I continue to do so going forward." Yes Fran, you have most certainly made a very positive mark on CDT!

Please stop by the front office of CDT to say hello to Fran!

Social Action

Now that we are about a month past Yom Kippur, the food gleaned from Project Isaiah (CDT's High Holiday Food Drive overseen by Sisterhood –THANK YOU!) has been sourced to the Atlanta Community Food Bank and it is time for our HOMES AGAINST HUNGER project to thrive! Our next pick up/drop off is on NOVEMBER 5th, 2017. Due to the concurrence of Adult Education and Religious School that day, we are going to be starting at 8AM for pickups. Of course, if you want to bring your items to Religious School in lieu of having a pick up or otherwise drop your items at CDT, please contact us at HomesAgainstHunger@dortamid.com and let us know.

Many thanks to those who participated in Atlanta Pride on October 15th. Partnering with SOJOURN and marching with other Jewish organizations and temples in support of basic human rights was indeed gratifying to all who participated!

The Social Action Committee is looking for new members and volunteers to help with upcoming projects, including our food pickups. If you have a teen who could use community service hours, or if you or they want to perform Mitzvot, please contact us at socialaction@dortamid.com.

November B'nai Mitzvah

Maxwell Greene
November 4, 2017

Max is very excited to become a Bar Mitzvah and come of age in our Jewish community. He loves sports of all kinds and is an active participant year round, playing football and lacrosse in the fall and spring while wrestling in the summer.

He loves to travel and is looking forward to spending Thanksgiving in Mexico and visiting the islands of Aruba, Curacao, and Bonaire on a winter break cruise. Max enjoys spending time with his friends, as well as playing with his dogs Bagel and Lucy.

For his tikkun olam/social action project, Max chose to work with the Special K's, a Johns Creek based agency of the Special Olympics of Georgia. Max is working with the athletes in multiple sports, volunteering his time training and playing with the athletes in both basketball and soccer. Max will continue working with the Special K's soccer team up until they proudly represent the state of Georgia at the Special Olympics USA Games being held in Seattle in July 2018. In addition to training with the athletes Max is also active in fundraising for the organization. He does this in honor of his brother Senator, a Special K's athlete who will be playing on the soccer team in Seattle.

Anna Shakhnovsky
November 11, 2017

Anna is an 8th grader at River Trail Middle School and her favorite subjects are science and Spanish. One of her passions is singing and she has been participating in chorus throughout elementary and middle school. She recently took up tennis and piano and has been enjoying discovering both of those activities. Anna loves kids, which is very helpful because she has 4 younger brothers who adore their big sister. She has a very close circle of fun and loyal friends and spends time with them as often as homework allows it.

Anna's parents came to this country as refugees so, for her tikkun olam/social action project, she decided to volunteer at various organizations that provide support for refugees and their families. Anna worked directly with refugee children in grades K-5, helping them with homework and improving their reading and writing skills. She has organized a clothing drive to contribute necessary essentials for new families, such as clothes, items of personal hygiene, household goods, and school supplies. Anna recently set up a virtual lemonade stand and hopes to collect a substantial amount that will change the life of 1 or more families, as her parents' lives were changed many years ago.

Adam Zubar
November 18, 2017

Adam is a 7th grader at Buford Middle School. He has played soccer at LSA for 6 years and plans to try out for the Buford Middle School team in the spring. He loves to fish with his dad in Destin and just recently started mountain biking as a hobby. In the few short years of him starting mountain biking, the hobby has grown into a true passion for him. Last year he joined an interscholastic team and started racing competitively. This year will mark the end of his second season with the team.

Adam's tikkun olam/social action project is the encouragement of bike safety and awareness on mountain biking. His organization partners are National Interscholastic Cycling League (NICA) and Georgia Interscholastic Cycling League (GICL). Adam and his mother worked diligently to find funding opportunities to start a bike team at Buford. Adam's team was able to secure a grant to provide a racing bike for a child in need, including skill trainings, helmets and other items needed to be a safe biker. Adam believes by getting more kids on bikes it encourages healthy habits, confidence, and inclusivity, and makes the world a greener place. Biking also helps instill teamwork in kids who have never been part of a team. Adam hopes to encourage more young people to become educated on bike safety and is really excited to share his passion with Happy Thanksgiving! I am truly grateful to be part of this great group of women and the CDT community as a whole. If you haven't been to a Sisterhood event yet, we'd love to have you join us. We have a lot of fun activities planned in the coming months.

Once again, Sisterhood has been very busy! Due to inclement weather, we made a last minute decision to postpone the wine tasting event. Instead, we enjoyed brunch with Mimosas and Bloody Mary's at Another Broken Egg. We really had a great time getting to know each other better and are looking forward to rescheduling our north Georgia wine tasting.

Our beginner Mah Jong players enjoyed another fun "Mah Jong Monday." Our next Mah Jong Clinic will take place on December 11.

However, we are excited that our second annual Mah Jong Night for all skill levels, will be held at CDT on November 7.

We also had a great time proving our trivia skills at The Cohen Home's Battle of the Sisterhoods.

Ignorance is No Defense

We are pleased to announce that we will be hosting author J. Tom Morgan who will share important information for every parent and teen.

Through real-life examples, Ignorance Is No Defense explains Georgia laws to teenagers in easy-to-understand language. With a primary focus on criminal laws, Ignorance Is No Defense not only describes what the law requires but also teenagers' rights under the law. Author J. Tom Morgan, a highly respected former prosecutor and experienced trial lawyer, provides straightforward information and valuable insights to help teenagers avoid violating the law and avoid being victims of crime.

This event will be open to the community. Be on the look out for more information.

CDT Sisterhood wins the Battle of the Sisterhoods Trivia Night!!

The Cohen Home hosted a trivia night on 10/30. Six Sisterhoods from around the Atlanta area competed for bragging rights and fun prizes. We had a great time socializing with our CDT sisters as well as those from other synagogues. It was close, but we pulled out a come from behind win!

JF&CS Presents:

Ask a Professional

Jenny Gay, LMSW, a Geriatric Care Manager with Aviv Older Adult Services, graduated from Tulane School of Social Work and is a Licensed Master Social Worker in the State of Georgia. Her commitment to the aging process was inspired by her grandmother as she witnessed the good, bad and ugly parts of the aging infrastructure in our society and was motivated to be a part of positive change. She has worked with the Council on Aging in Asheville, NC, with Jewish Family Services of Western North Carolina, and has extensive memory care training as well as hospice experience. Her expertise is equal to her passion for older adult care.

Q: Jenny, at what point does an elder and/or family member know when it is time to consult a geriatric care manager?

A: Subtle or obvious changes in daily life provide signs that a professional guide with the aging process is needed. When routine activities change... like getting lost driving to a familiar store, keys cannot be located, or car cannot be found in the parking lot... a professional perspective is in order. A more obvious sign presents if your loved one has a fall, followed by a hospital stay and then caring for that person upon returning home. Life can turn upside down in the blink of an eye and the professional supports needed to regain balance are difficult to navigate. We are often called a life-line for safety, stability and emotional grounding.

For more information on aging resources, contact Jenny Gay at 770.677.9478 or jgay@jfcsatl.org.
